HINCKLEY'S ARE IN GROUP 4

In accordance with the new O.P.S. Food Market Regulations which are going into effect, we are happy to tell you that Hinckley's will be in Group 4, the group that receives the LOWEST PERCENTAGE OF MARK-UP in the entire food industry.

This is our pledge to you . . . When you shop at Hinckley's, you will find that in addition to STRICT observance to the new O.P.S. Ceiling Prices, MANY, MANY items are below these O.P.S. Ceiling Prices. This is consistent with the Hinckley policy of always giving you low prices not only on special occasions, but throughout the past two generations we have been serving this area. Another reason why people say, "Let's go to Hinckley's."

CHURCH RITES . . . Mr. and Mrs. Fred G. Miller pose for a photograph on the grounds of Grace Baptist Church, Wilmington, following their wedding rites. The bride is the former Virginia Cozart, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. H. C. Cozart of 2345 W. 243rd street. Mr. Miller is the son of Mr. and Mrs. Fred Miller of Harbor City.

Bridal Pair Returns from Honeymoon

Mr. and Mrs. Fred G. Miller returned home from their wedding trip to Balboa, San Diego and Tijuana, Mexico, which followed church rites in Grace Baptist Church of Wilmington.

Rev. Homer Judson Aspy, church pastor, read the marriage lines before close friends and relatives of the couple.

The new Mrs. Miller is the former Virginia Cozart, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. H. C. Cozart of 2345 W. 243rd street, and her husband, an employee of the Columbia Steel Corporation, Torrance is the son of Mr. and Mrs. Fred Miller of 1424 W. 254th street, Harbor City.

For the ceremony the bride chose navy blue and white check with a navy bolero complemented with white accessories and a corsage of white sweet peas. Her aunt, Mrs. William Brown, was matron of honor.

The bridegroom was attended by his uncle, William Irby, as best man.

Retiring to the home of the bridegroom's parents, a reception followed the bridal luncheon.

Club Visits Commercial Gardener

Mrs. John B. Hoffman was hostess to the Torrance Terrace Garden Club on March 28 at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Thomas K. Hargrave, 25925 Cypress street, Lomita. Club guests included Mesdames J. E. Cox, F. W. Meyers, William LeBlanc and Joe Gardner. Mrs. Carl Hood was welcomed as a new member.

Mr. Hargrave, grower of the Regina Strelitzia, (Bird of Paradise) addressed the club on the history and cultivation of the plant. Later members and guests viewed the field of 1500 plants from which Mr. Hargrave supplies cut flowers for the market.

Service club representatives will meet Monday April 9 at 7:30 in the conference room of the city library to discuss further plans for the coming annual Hobby and Flower Show May 18, 19 and 20.

Mrs. Marion Hartley, 513 Madrid avenue, will be hostess to club members on April 11.

Margo Is Incentive For Party

Margo Lee, year-old daughter of Mr. and Mrs. B. Taylor Whitney, was the incentive for an intimate dinner party Saturday evening in the Acacia avenue home of the hosts.

A floral theme was followed for the table decorations and places were arranged for the baby's godparents, Mr. and Mrs. Bob L. Haggard of Torrance, and Mr. and Mrs. C. R. Klingler of Los Angeles, the hosts, and Mrs. Whitney's mother, Mrs. Jeannette Elliott.

TRIO HELPERS PLAN MEETING

Wedding Trip to Mexico Follows Church Rites

Way-side Chapel was the setting for wedding rites which united Miss Billie Beth Tinkle, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Jack Tinkle of 4055 Newton street, Walteria and Benny James Capdeville of Port Huemene. Rev. Roger W. Sawyer officiated.

A white floor-length dirndl skirt of net over taffeta with fitted bodice of Chantilly lace and tulle was worn by the bride. Completing her costume was a fingertip veil of tulle, and she carried white carnations and camellias.

Miss Margaret Tinkle, sister of the bride, was maid of honor. Her blue net over taffeta was complemented with a bouquet of sweet peas. Mrs. Jack W. Tinkle, sister-in-law of the bride, as bridesmaid chose pink net over taffeta and carried sweet peas.

The bride was given in marriage by her father.

Henry Capdeville attended his brother as best man and usher were Jack W. Tinkle and James Lee Whitmer.

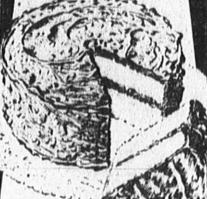

White stocks, calla lilies and fern decorated the altar and tall white tapers shed a soft light on the couple as they repeated their vows.

Robert S. Sleeth Jr was accompanied by the organist, Miss Margaret Phillips, when he sang "I Love You Truly" and "Because."

The guests were received at the home of the bride's parents where the new Mrs. Capdeville cut the three-tiered cake which was served with punch.

A wedding trip took the gov-

District Deputy Visits Trio

Featuring last meeting of Trio Rebekah Lodge presided over by Mrs. Amy Savage, was the official visit of Mrs. Catherine Spruill, district deputy president and her staff. Representatives of all lodges in the district were present.

Delegates chosen to represent Trio at Santa Cruz in May during Rebekah Assembly include: Mmes. Margie Russell, Elizabeth Hunt and Olive Veatch.

Spring flowers furnished the decorative theme chosen by Mrs. Veatch and her committee, who served delicious refreshments.

About five quarts of milk are required to manufacture one pound of American cheese.
