Eight TORRANCE HERALD APRIL 26, 1951

Hi-Lites Of Seaside Heights

By GRACE RYCKMAN AND MERLE HOLSTIN
FRontier 5-1779 or FRontier 5-3718

"When someone needs help and you can give it to him, it's not only selfish, but bad manners, not to. Most people would be more helpful to others if they had a clearer idea of how to go about it."

"Everybody's Elton"—L. A. Time's This Week Magazine.

We feel the last line of the above is especially true, and that is the basis of the Civil Defense Program now being organized in the Heights. The interest shown on this program has been great, so far. However, there is still a need for volunteers. If you are a nurse, have a First Aid Card, know about fire fighting equipment, or just want to do your part for this, your community, contact Jack Heptig of 5359 Bindewald, Frontier 5-4292. He has accepted the responsibility of Captain of the Wardens of Seaside Heights and deeply believes in the necessity of community cooperation at all times, and particularly in the time of stress. Each block will have a warden and an alternate. These names will appear in this column as soon as the list is completed.

A Home Nursing Course will be given at our school as soon as enough women in this tract express a desire for such training. If you want information on this course you can see Grace Ryckman at 5229 Bindewald or call Jo Jurisich, Frontier 5-1779. It is supposed to be very interesting and really practical.

Our Warden's Captain Jack Heptie and his wife (Florence) and three children are new members of the Heights. All who have met them, so far, wish to welcome them into our midst.

We understand they were given a surprise housewarming one Sunday recently. They had been to the Valley and upon returning home found 35 of their tried and true friends waiting to give them a grand party for their new home. Imagine—35 friends! And they have made new ones here already.

The Dwyer family of Bindewald had quite a trip out to and around Lancaster two Sundays ago. They met friends there and did a lot of scenic driving. This is the time of the year for wanderlust, and reports on trips like this add fuel to the fire. If this column turns up missing—we're off.

Mr. and Mrs. Joe Shields also had a Sunday outing. They spent the day at Knott's Berry Farm. Ever been there? It is quite a place. We also hear that Joe just recently had an accident at work (Douglas) and had to have three stitches in his hand.

Cub Paek 726-C held another meeting at El Retiro Park last Friday evening. Win Graylin is Cub Master. Merle Holstin, Den 5, had the opening flag ceremony, a movie on trains was shown, and Mrs. White's Den had the closing ceremony. We wish we could say something to those of you who have not attended any Paek Meets, that would encourage you to do so. The enthusiasm and ability of those young boys show is amazing, and we know you would enjoy yourself. The next meeting is May 18, 7:30 p.m.

The First District PTA Congress held its annual meeting in Pasadena, Thursday, April 19. Attending from the Heights were Mrs. John Robinson, Merle Holstin, Jo Jurisich, Peggy Thorne, and Grace Ryckman; and from the Ranchos, Dorothy Johnson, Margaret Rootiger, Thelma Schockency, and Dorothy Hurford.

Tomorrow and Saturday night are the long awaited Boy Scout Circus nights at Hollywood Bowl. We can let you in on a nice secret. Cub Paek 726-C will have a 24-ft. float of Fulton's Steamboat with a bunch of "old fashioned" boys aboard our local cubst. You can still get tickets.

Little Myra Mitchell of Zakon is a sick girl with the chicken pox.

SERVICE WITH A SMILE!

We talk a great deal about the inanimate objects and policies of our store such as low prices, the beautiful, modern open Self-Service Refrigerated Cases, the quality of our wonderful U. S. Govt. Graded GOOD Beef . . . and the unique personal service that Hinckley's have offered for over two generations.

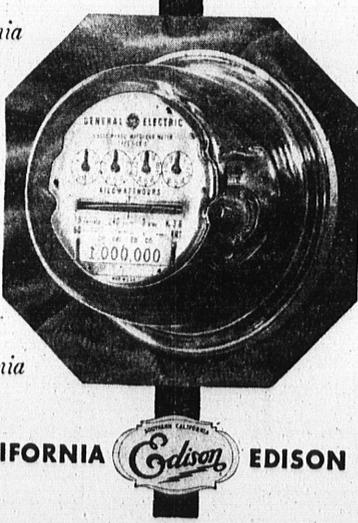

BUT, none of these wonderful features could mean anything without our grand personnel of employees, whose special courtesies and helpfulness go beyond the line of duty. They appreciate the praise and comments extended by so many of you. We are proud of the fact that all of our 14 employees live in Lomita and vicinity. They are your friends and neighbors . . . another reason why so many say "LET'S GO TO HINCKLEY'S."
