THE BELLE SINGS... Stars Elaine Rehwoldt and Buddy Powers, who have leading roles in the coming high school operetta "The Belle of Bagdad," gave the high school faculty a preview of one of their numbers this week, along with numbers by Patty Dunwoy, Bob Moon, Grace Lafferty and Joe Lafferty. The faculty was unanimous in its approval. The operetta will be staged here May 3 and 4. (Herald photo).

Local Quartet Enters Barber Shop Contest

The "Deaconaires" are about to hit the big time. Four members of the newly chartered Torrance chapter of the Society for the Preservation and Encouragement of Barber Shop Quartet Singing in America, who sing as a quartet under the registered name of "Deaconaires," will compete in the Far Western regional contest of the organization in the Shrine auditorium Saturday.

Making their first contest bid will be Bill Bartholomew, Dean Lougee, Charles Bartholomew and Howard Foster. They will compete in the afternoon in an elimination sing-off, then enter the finals in the evening—if they are among those selected for the evening competition.

In addition to the quartet, about 15 other members of the Torrance chapter of the SPEBSQSA will sing in the 300-voice male chorus led by Paul McFartridge of Pasadena.

"The fact that we will be represented by a quartet and 15 members in the male chorus is pretty good, we think, for a club which has been chartered less than a month," according to Herb Allen, president of the local chapter.

The best two quartets from the Saturday night contest will compete in the society finals in Toledo, Ohio in June.

Serving under Allen as the new officers of the local group are Charles Bartholomew, vice president; Howard Foster, secretary; Al Ewalt, treasurer; and Doug McClay, historian. Directors are Francis Lehr, Dean Lougee and Howard McDonald.

Judging of the quartet contest will be based on five points, according to Allen. Each quartet will be judged on harmony, accuracy, balance and blend, voice expression, song arrangement and stage presence.

Foursquare Evangelist To Continue Series

Evangelist Bob Herald will continue revival services in the Torrance Foursquare Church, 1207 El Prado, this coming week. He will preach nightly at 7:30 except Monday and Saturday.

Herald is an intensely interesting evangelist who has traveled and preached the Gospel in Europe as well as in the United States. Thursday nights he prays for the sick and Friday shows pictures of his European travels and preaches warnings of the sweep of Communism. He was himself converted from a drunkard's life. His wife, an excellent musician, will assist him during the revival.

Everyone is invited to attend these old-time revival services.

Leo Coleman Serving Aboard Landing Ship

Leo H. D. Coleman Jr., seaman apprentice, USN, son of Mr. and Mrs. Leo H. D. Coleman, of 2441 West 229th street, is serving aboard the landing ship, tank, USS 1101 which was recently recommissioned at the Navy Yard, Bremerton, Wash.

Coleman, who entered the Naval service August 8, 1950, and received his recruit training at the Naval Training Center, San Diego, is a graduate of Torrance High School.

BICYCLE DAYS
 The bicycle craze in the U.S. reached its height in the years after 1880.

Lt. Powell Completes Navy Course

As the movie-goer or airplane passenger knows, the instrument panel in an airplane looks much more complicated than its automobile counterpart.

Lt. (jg.) Samuel J. Powell Jr., USN, husband of Mrs. Patricia C. Powell of 5012 Sharynne lane, will tell you that it is much more complicated. He has recently completed an intensive and concentrated course in Instrument Flight Training at the U.S. Naval Air Station, San Diego.

Lieutenant (junior grade) Powell, a member of a squadron in the Air Force Pacific Fleet, learned to operate a Navy plane in good or bad weather with a maximum degree of safety by the use of instruments.

Movie Slated For El Nido Baptists

A movie entitled "The First Step," will be shown at the 7:30 p.m. services of the First Baptist Church of El Nido Sunday evening, according to Rev. Leland Pisel, the church pastor.

The church is located on 182nd street about one-quarter of a mile west of Hawthorne boulevard. Reverend Pisel described the movie as "the real drama of everyday Christian living portrayed in an intensely interesting and understandable story."

Other worship services Sunday include the Sunday School at 9:30 a.m., the morning sermon at 11 a.m., and the young people's meeting at 6:30 p.m.

Instrumental Students Capture State Honors

Torrance elementary instrumental students won Superior and Excellent ratings at the State Orchestra and Band Contest at Fullerton on Friday April 13th.

Those students receiving honors were: Barbara Hester, Dan Buckley, Bennie Watson and Bill Strohm, students at Torrance Elementary School; Roy Kato of North Torrance School; and Matt Magano and Steven Thomas of Torrance High School.

Visits Poet Campus
 Miss Sandra Scott, Torrance High School senior, was among the 255 Southern California High School students who attended the Annual Whittier College Campus Day April 14. Over 40 schools throughout the southland were represented.
