Betrothal Announcement Links Post, Hopkins Names

Plans for a summer wedding are being formulated by Miss Beverly Hopkins, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Sydney R. Hopkins, of 1548 Post avenue, and her fiancé, Mr. James Armstrong Post, whose parents are Mr. and Mrs. James Wallace Post.

Announcement of her engagement was made to her sorority sisters Monday evening when Miss Hopkins passed candy in traditional manner.

A junior at UCLA where she is an elementary education major, she is a member of Alpha Gamma Delta and an honorary group, Shell and Oar.

Her fiancé, a commerce major, will receive his degree next month from University of Southern California where he is affiliated with Beta Theta Pi. Following World War II he returned from U. S. Navy duty in the Pacific to enter Loyola University.

Installation of Board Planned by Dance Club

Attractive cotton dresses were worn by the ladies while sport shirts featured men's attire at the Los Fiesta-dores' dance held Thursday evening in Portuques Bend clubhouse.

Highlight of the party was a waltz contest, which was won by Mr. and Mrs. Joel R. Klink Jr.

Only the new Model 10 Mixmaster has the exclusive larger ROWL-FIT beaters for EVEN mixing, greater AERATION, and lighter, higher, finer-textured cakes.

Progressive Party to Aid Annual Cancer Fund Drive

In support of the annual cancer drive, Torrance Woman's Club, under direction of its Special Events chairman, Mrs. Lee A. McCoy, is arranging a progressive card party on Monday evening, May 21.

Bridge and canasta will be played in members' homes and, at 10 p.m. all will gather in the clubhouse for refreshments and prizes.

Tickets at 75 cents each are available from clubwomen and those who wish may still arrange to entertain two or more tables in their homes on that evening.

Retires From Business

Concluding four years as proprietor of Elite Cleaners, 2168 Torrance boulevard, Mrs. Ludwig C. (Helene) Miller plans a well-earned rest.

A past matron of Torrance OES Chapter, and past chairman of Torrance Branch American Red Cross, Mrs. Miller had been active also in Torrance Woman's Club, Torrance Breakfast Club, and other organizations.

MISS MARY LEE RYAN

Miss Ryan Joins Ranks Of Lovely Brides-Elect

Mr. and Mrs. Larry H. Ryan, of 2404 Apple avenue, have announced the engagement of their daughter, Mary Lee, to Mr. Ronald F. Higgins, son of Mr. and Mrs. John F. Higgins of 1222 Anapola avenue. No wedding date has been set.

The announcement was first made at a Sunday afternoon buffet luncheon arranged in the Ryan home attended by 14 family members from Hollywood, Los Angeles, El Monte, and Torrance.

Sweet peas and roses graced the serving table and accented the pastel theme used throughout.

The charming bride-to-be is a senior at Torrance High School where she is active in the Tri-Y and GAA. Her bridegroom-elect, who received his diploma from the same school, is a freshman at El Camino College, specializing in business administration. He is employed at Star Furniture store of which his father is a co-owner.

Policewoman Lucille Stroh Complimented at Luncheon

Honoring Miss Lucille Stroh, who has resigned her position as policewoman with Torrance Police Department, her associates among city employes entertained at luncheon Monday at Ding How's Chinese restaurant.

The honoree was the recipient of a beautiful jeweled necklace and earring set, and a gardenia corsage. Her gift from the personnel of the Police Department was a handsome cow-hide brief case.

Covers were placed for the honoree and Meses, Gladys Stock, Esther Lowen, Maude Deiningor, Dorothy Riley, June Perkins, Edith Smith, Mary Walmeyer, Marguerite Kelsey, LaVerne Gerl, Polly DiMayle, Ledeene Chamberlain, Mary Andrus, Lucille Lewellen, Adele Francois, Diane Peckham, Ellen Blackshere, Marcella Smith, Carol Wright, Thelma Hill and Meses Beverly Whitney, and Jean Lovelady.

Sobada Club Greet New Members at Dance Party

Alondra Park Clubhouse was the setting for a most enjoyable party Saturday evening attended by members of the Sobada Club.

Cottons and denims were worn by the clubmembers at this informal spring affair which was concluded with a midnight buffet.

Assisting with party arrangements were Mr. and Mrs. Vincent Hebbson and Mr. and Mrs. Regis C. Jones, who welcomed as new members Messrs. and Meses, Gray C. Anderson, Howard E. Schott, C. W. Vogelsang, and Earl Grimes. Plans for the May dance party will be formulated at a meeting in the home of Mr. and Mrs. Hal Smith.

St. Cecilia's At Enjoyable Social Meet

Members of St. Cecilia's Guild of St. Andrew's Episcopal Church gathered Wednesday evening in the Post avenue home of Mrs. J. Hugh Sherfy Jr. for the month's social meeting. Assisting with hostess arrangements was Mrs. Sydney R. Hopkins.

Bridge and canasta occupied the ladies with Meses Earl A. Miles and Sterben Manning as bridge scorers and Meses Sarah Muhleck and Hilda Munroe winners at canasta.

Beautiful bouquets of spring flowers adorned the rooms forming a pretty background for the tables where a dessert course was served after card play.

Mrs. Muhleck will conduct a business meeting of the guild on May 19 at the parish house.

AT DESERT RESORT

Mr. and Mrs. H. M. Haynes and granddaughter, Donna Haynes, of 1340 Engracia avenue, spent the week end at 29 Palms.

War Mothers To Attend Tea, Sew for Veterans

On Wednesday, May 9, Mrs. Fred O. Bacon will open her home at 1303 Portola avenue for a tea honoring members and guests of Torrance Chapter of American War Mothers.

Tea will be served beginning at 1:30 and during the afternoon members will sew "scuffies" for Veterans Administration Hospital, Long Beach.

Service mothers are welcome at this and other chapter meetings. Since the need for aid to hospitalized veterans is growing more acute, it is hoped Torrance mothers will give this chapter the support it needs.
