Mother, Daughter Fete Follows Indian Theme

Approximately 150 women and children met in the parish hall of First Lutheran Church Friday evening for the annual Mother and Daughter banquet sponsored by the members of the Missionary Society. As the project chosen for the banquet is the education of a native boy of India for work in the mission field, a large sum of money was gathered in the offering for this work. The decorations and a part of the program featured the India theme and several of the Luther League girls presented a skit about the work being done in India. The hostesses, dressed in the garb of Indian women, were Mrs. William Hood and Sharon, Mrs. Ernest Lind and Karen, Mrs. Leigh Ouimette and Barbara, and Mrs. Paul Goodrow and Martha.

Mission work was further presented by the guest speaker, Mrs. Albert Alsop, who is working with her husband in Argentina, South America. The girls of the Sunday School, directed by Mrs. Paul Wenske, paid tribute to Mother in song and verse. Miss Alpha Stropmke acted as toastmistress.

The banquet was planned and prepared by these chairmen and their committees: Invitations, Mrs. Stuart Phillips and Miss Emma Wenske; program, Miss Alpha Stropmke; decorations, Mrs. Kay Ellermeier; menu, Mrs. Wesley Megow and Mrs. Charles Mcaring; dining room, Mrs. Charles Clayton. According to the tradition of the banquet, the men of the church served the dinner.
