

Term Ends For Bethel

Miss Donna Pat Wolf presided over her last meeting as queen of Job's Daughters, Bethel 50, Tuesday evening of last week. She thanked everyone who had helped her during her term of office and asked the same support for her successor, Miss Marian McDonald.

Under presentations, Miss Sydney Young, accompanied by her mother, sang, "Give Me Something to Remember You By."

In the closing ceremony Miss Wolf was presented with a red rose from each of her officers. After the meeting ice cream sandwiches were served in the banquet room.

Cubs Enjoy Picnic Pack Meet

Fern Avenue PTA-sponsored Cub Scout Pack 728-C, held its last regular pack meeting for the season on Saturday at Torrance Park.

The Pack committee held a picnic at the park for the Cubs and all members of their families. They enjoyed organized games and were served a picnic dinner.

Cubmaster R. D. Wollard announced that Cub Scout Barry Coleman had placed third in Torrance in the sale of circus tickets. Coleman and the other two winners will receive a free all-day trip to Catalina. Richard Connett was awarded two silver arrows during the meeting.

Job's Daughters Seat 1951 Staff in Beautiful Ceremony

A beautiful installation ceremony marked the coronation of Miss Marian Ruth McDonald, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Howard McDonald, of 1626 Beech Avenue, as Honored Queen of Bethel 50 of the International Order of Job's Daughters.

Masonic Temple, scene of the impressive rite was decorated with many gorgeous baskets of flowers and ivy covered arches and lattice work, carrying out the theme of a "Friendship Garden."

This semi-annual ceremony, which was the 48th in the history of Bethel 50 was opened by an address of welcome by Mr. Arnold Mueller, master of ceremonies. Next to enter the Bethel were Mrs. Edna Babcock, Guardian, and Mr. William Bremner, associate guardian. Miss Donna Pat Wolf, installing officer and retiring queen, was escorted and introduced. She carried an arm bouquet of colorful garden flowers.

Miss Wolf was assisted by Beverly Luster, guide; Pat Clero, marshal; Jo Ann Sandstrom, chaplain; Joy Oursler, recorder; Dorothy Waring, senior custodian; Dorothy Sandstrom, junior custodian; all past honored queens of Bethel 50 except Dorothy Sandstrom who is an honorary member; and Mrs. Ray Lougee, musician.

The choir was then escorted by the installing junior and senior custodian. The officers entered during a lovely reading by Martha, Dunn written by Dora Ritko. As each officer approached the East she added a flower signifying her office to the Friendship Basket.

The Bethel Choir wore wristlets of pastel carnations with white lace. Appointive officers carried nosegays of colorful garden flowers, and the line officers carried white Bibles with carnations and roses. Beautiful arm bouquets of many types of garden flowers were carried by the outgoing and incoming queens. Linda Wallace, in a white satin hair, carried in the Bible, as a quartet composed of Mr. Herb Allen, Mr. Dean Lougee, Mr. Ray Lougee, and Mr. Howard McDonald sang "My Mother's Bible." Following the Bible Ceremony was the escort of the flag by Bill McDonald, Cub Scout of Pack 241-C and brother of the Queen.

Bethel choir installed were Susan Babcock, Deanna Ball, Judy Cook, Charlene Grace, Elizabeth Hedgecock, Sally Hickman, Carolyn Kush, Dorothy Kush, Kathleen McGinley, Sonja Mooneyham, Alice Olson, Dora Ritko, Marian Smith, Sally Speck, Linda Thayne, Martha Ward, Glenda Wells, Judith Wolf, Sidney Young.

Appointive officers installed were Lou Ann McFarland, outer guard; Janice Crabtree, junior custodian; Janet Poh, senior custodian; Ann Stephens, chaplain; Beverly Rodgers, librarian; Charlotte Anderson, musician; Jane Moffat, treasurer; Jane Fischer, recorder; Lenore Sexton, first messenger; Joy Pearman, second messenger; Linda Lane, third messenger; Peggy Wood, fourth messenger; Sue Deaton; fifth messenger; Janet Robinson, assistant musician; Dana Cecil, assistant recorder; Jeanette Harris, director of choir; Marilyn Edwards, page.

Miss Elaine Rehwald, then sang "My Friend", after which Carol Campbell was installed as marshal and Ann Bishop guide. Ann Olson, junior princess and Mary Ann Lenton senior princess, were both vested with their honors at the East line. Donna Wolf then gave the Queen's obligation to Miss McDonald and vested her with the official crown and cape.

After the Proclamation the quartet sang "Voices of Night". Under "Presentation," Donna Wolf was presented with her past queen's jewel and a white Bible by the members of the Bethel. Paul Sage was the jewel bearer. Donna then presented Marian with her Honored Queens Jewel, and Mr. William Bremner presented Donna with the Princess pins and she in turn presented Mary Ann Lenton and Ann Olson with pins. The new Queen was the recipient of a beautiful gavel from her parents which was made for her by Mr. Arnold Mueller.

The new queen expressed her thanks to all who helped her with the installation, including the Guardian Council which consists of Mrs. Edna Babcock, guardian; Mr. William Bremner, associate guardian; Mrs. Mary McDonald, Mrs. Ila Mae Rodgers, Mrs. Charlotte Robinson, Mrs. Katherine Lane, Mrs. Florence Hedgecock, Mrs. Edna Moffat, Mrs. Ethel Bremner, Mrs. Letha Wells, Mrs. Bernice Stephens, and Mr. E. G. Maloy. Elaine Rehwald then sang "In the Garden of My Heart." After the closing ceremony Rev. Arthur Bello, of the Episcopal Church, gave the benediction.

The banquet room was decorated with pastel colored streamers and baskets of flowers. The refreshment table was adorned with a beautiful basket of flowers depicting "Friendship Garden". Punch, open faced sandwiches, and cookies were served by the Motehrs Club.

Beth Jenkins, as hostess passed out programs and Karen Ness was in charge of the guest book. Leroy Swigart, Duane Mitton, and Bernard Smith served as ushers.
