Soldier to Rejoin 578th After Emergency Leave

Due to rejoin his outfit, the 578th Combat Engineers in Japan, is Sgt. Charles T. Turner who is home on a 30-day emergency leave arranged by the Red Cross following the recent death of his sister.

Sgt. Turner got as far as Hawaii before he learned through a transoceanic phone call to his mother that his sister, Mrs. Marie C. Kiecklighter, 23512 Park street, had been buried earlier that day. He left his outfit, Company B, at the Matsushima Air Field Base on May 30, arriving in Torrance on June 3.

He is to report at Camp Stoneman in two weeks for transportation back to Japan to rejoin the 40th Infantry Division. Until that time he is staying at the home of his parents, Mr. and Mrs. T. C. Turner, 1749 Arlington avenue.

Vacation time is certainly here, as we fell sure, any harassed mother will agree. With the kids home from school, the "What will I do now?" query is driving many an otherwise normal woman slightly berserk. But soon it will be nice enough to shuffle off to the beach or the pool and then things will calm down—we hope. Some of the luckier people we know are already leaving for vacation, and some are coming back already!

Home from a fishing trip to Mexico is Dr. Max Webber, who flew from Tia Juana with Bob Bacon, Norman Marsh, Ray Burton, and Walt Marley to La Paz in hopes of hooking a few big ones, namely marlin. Luck was with them and they got two—one weighing 202 pounds and the other 197 pounds. The fishermen also claim numerous other fish and Max has pictures to prove it—and a sunburn, too.

Francis Webber and the three

little Webbers left Friday to motor to Springfield, Illinois to visit Frances's mother. From there Frances will go to Washington D. C., Philadelphia, and then Chicago to meet Dr. Webber. They will be gone about seven weeks, all told, and although they will be missed by their many friends, we hope they will have a grand time.

"Going home to Mother"—for a vacation, at least, are Lyretta Bowman and her two children, Gail and Lynn. Lyretta is driving to Rapid City, South Dakota with her brother Wally Chihak and his wife Madeline. Another brother, Robert, is to be married while they are there.

Lynda Shwalter, 7-year-old daughter of Lydia and Dec, returned home Sunday after an exciting two weeks visit to Oakland and Fontana. In Oakland, Lynda stayed with her aunt and uncle, Colonel John and Dena Winterholler; then returned for a week with another aunt and uncle, Betty and Fred Ungetung in Fontana. However, Lynda says that although she had a grand time, it is nice to be home with her mother and sister, Jackie and all her little friends.

The outgoing board members of Las Vecinas and their husbands had a dinner and dance at the Alondra Park Club in lieu of a final board meeting. Present for an evening of fun and hiinks were Prexy Helen and Claude Ferrel, first vice-president, Mickey and Don Stewart, second vice-president Ruth and Frank Hanover, corresponding secretary Margaret and Paul Roettger, historian Bobbe and Gene Byrd, recording secretary Winnie and Bud Mewborn, treasurer Marge and Dave Cochran, courtesy chairman Helen and Bill Schmitz, community projects chairman Jo and Peter Jurisich and past prexy Lou and Dick Blakeley. The inclusion of the husbands is intentional, for without their help, the board could not have done the wonderful job they have. The new board meeting on June 21st, which is also the final meeting until September.

Father's Day was last Sunday, as we all know, and some of the fathers we know had fun being pampered a little more than usual. The Hanover children had a grand time keeping Frank busy opening small gag presents and entered into the spirit of the day with great enthusiasm. Jack and Mary Webb made a call to Lima, Ohio, to wish Mary's father a wonderful day, even though they could not be together.
