Marine Sergeant Among Returning Korean Veterans

Due home this week-end after nearly a year on the Korean front is T Sgt. Clyde E. Middleton, son of Mrs. Lillian Middleton, of 2104 Middlebrook road.

Waiting for him with his mother when he arrives will be his wife and two children, one of whom the sergeant has never seen.

Sergeant Middleton, a Marine regular for the past 10 years, was due to return to San Francisco last evening aboard the transport General William F. Hase.

Before going to Korea last July, he was stationed for two years at the El Toro Marine Base, his mother said yesterday.

His wife, Frances, and his daughter, Janet S. and son, Clyde E. Jr., 4 months, arrived here from Georgia yesterday to meet him when he returns to Torrance. It will be the first meeting between the father and his young son.

Aged Mother Dies Here

Funeral services for the 92-year-old mother of Dr. Oscar E. Fossum of 1621 Cota avenue, and Mrs. Myrtle Morse, of 1633 Cota avenue, were held at the Utter-McKinley-Beaver Chapel in Inglewood Monday following her death here at the home of her daughter Thursday.

The deceased, Mrs. Gertrude Marie Fossum, was a native of Bergen, Norway, and had lived in Inglewood for more than 30 years. She was a member of the Methodist Church of Lennox for most of that time. Rev. Charles Guthrie of her church officiated at the funeral and at the interment in Pacific Crest cemetery.

She leaves four daughters, two sons, two sisters, 13 grandchildren, and 18 great-grandchildren.

Funeral services were directed by Stone and Myers Mortuary.

Ex-Air Force Personnel Plan Meeting

A meeting of Air Force veterans both enlisted and commissioned in this area will be held Friday night at 8 o'clock at the Hollywood Riviera Club. The meeting is being sponsored by the South Bay Squadron of the Air Force Association, and all Air Force veterans are urged to attend. Their wives and guests are also welcome.

According to William Zdanoff, squadron commander, this meeting is the first of a series to be called by the local AFA group for the purpose of keeping Air Force veterans up to date on regulations and policies pertaining to mobilization and recall to active duty.

He stated that he would like to make one point clear that attending these meetings, or any other AFA activities, or affiliating with the Air Force Association, in no way puts anyone closer to military service. "Our Association is civilian, and is in no way directly affiliated with the military, nor subject to military jurisdiction. But we do see the Air Force veteran and feel he will be interested in knowing all the answers regarding our mobilization procedures," Zdanoff explained.

To handle any individual inquiries which might be made between meetings, the local AFA group has appointed a Mobilization Service Officer, Eric Rafter, Hermosa Beach attorney, has been named to this position. He can be contacted at 2625 Manhattan Avenue, Hermosa, telephone number FR. 43998.

One of the objectives of this organization is to preserve and foster the spirit of fellowship among former and present members of the Air Force, and to perpetuate the identity and group solidarity of wartime Air Force units large and small.

Earl Pracht Laid to Rest

Funeral services for Earl Pracht, 51, of 21303 Caroldale avenue, were held at the Stone and Myers Chapel Monday afternoon with Rev. C. M. Northrup of the First Baptist Church officiating.

A Harvey Machine Company employee for several years, Pracht died Friday. He was a native of Tennessee.

He leaves his widow, Edith I. Pracht, and son, Earl Jr., at the home address, one daughter, Mrs. Elizabeth Van Ness, of Long Beach.

Pallbearers included Pat Keegan, Thomas Atkins, Charles Stokely, James Patterson, Robert Thomas and William Hopkins.

Interment was in Green Hills Memorial Park.

Body Being Sent to Oregon for Final Rites

Body of Mrs. Margaret Marie Limbocker, 78, resident of Oregon City, Oregon, will be returned to her home town for services this week by Stone and Myers Mortuary. Mrs. Limbocker became ill while visiting her daughter, Mrs. Ruby Woodworth, at 824 West 253rd street. She died Tuesday.

Another daughter, Miss Catherine Limbocker, lives in Oregon City, and a third daughter, Sister Christine Marie, is a member of a Seattle convent.

No services will be held here, members of the family said.

Rites Held for Infant Suffocation Victim

Funeral services were held Saturday at McMillan Funeral Chapel in Gardena for 3-month-old Sadra Pal, of 17303 Casimir street, who apparently died of suffocation in her crib last week.

The baby's mother called fire department rescue squad when the tot did not respond Thursday morning. An hour-long effort by the rescue squad failed to revive the infant.

Burial was in Roosevelt Memorial cemetery.

Customers' Corner

Just because our government has placed ceilings on the prices a grocer can charge for food, don't get the idea that the prices you find at your A&P are the same as those of every other store.

Actually, our ceiling prices are lower than those of many of our competitors.

In addition, we strive to sell below ceiling prices wherever and whenever our cost of doing business makes it possible.

So you can shop at A&P with confidence that:

None of our prices are above the OPS ceiling.

Day in and day out you save money by doing all your shopping at A&P.
