them trout fishing where the fishing was excellent. In fact, they were practically jumping out of the lake into their laps, no kidding! Anyway, it sounds just wonderful.

VACATION FOR FATHER is the slogan for two weeks at the Friberg residence, at 1771 Santa Fe avenue, as Edwin (father) is visiting friends in Denver, Colorado. Holding down the fort are wife Thelma and children, Eddie Jr., Gloria, and Diane.

MARY AND LOUIS RITCHIE and daughter Katie, of 2137 Middlebrook road, are home following a two weeks vacation trip to Elko, Nevada, where they were guests at the home of Mary's parents, Mr. and Mrs. James McPherson. The weather and scenery are both beautiful up that, State the Ritchies and they had loads of fun attending the Silver Stampede where they saw Bing Crosby, Crooner Crosby, by the way, is honorary mayor of Elko.

RECIPIENT OF MANY lovely gifts is Mrs. Vivian Wise who was guest of honor at a lovely shower given in the Falena avenue home of Mrs. June Grubbs last week. Hostesses were Mesdames Leona Wimmell, Georgia Stroub, Bernice Moore, Jane Lockett, Ruth Bueche, and June Grubbs. Approximately 22 guests enjoyed chatting and visiting followed by refreshments of cake and coffee which were served by the hostesses.

A TRIP TO BE ENVIED was taken by Bob Curry, son of Frank and Faye Curry, of 2031 Reynosa drive, who traveled to Buffalo, N. Y., visited a cousin there, then on to Canada, New York City, and Philadelphia. Bob really took in the sights, and we're glad to hear he had such a good time. But, back to work after the fun's over! He's employed at North American Aircraft, Inglewood.

DOLORES AND DARRYL velice, of 1802 Schilling drive were pleasantly surprised by the arrival of Dolores' brother Eugene Somple of the U. S. Maritime Service. He has seen several months of duty in Japan and Korea aboard a victory ship.

AT TORRANCE PARK last Tuesday morning were members and their families of Circle 7, WSCS who enjoyed immensely their first breakfast and meeting of the summer season. Delicious coffee, eggs, bacon, and pancakes were prepared by hostesses Lorraine Stanton, Jewel Holmes and Emma Lou Clark who were assisted by everyone, of course! Betty Morehead, chairman, presided at their meeting.

BETTY and FLOYD WENTZ, of Marinette street, along with Della and Kelly Mills of San Pedro, enjoyed a fishing trip from Newport Beach to San Diego recently. And what's this we hear about the women catching the fish? Boys, you're slipping.

VI AND ROY CORN and children Jim and Joyce of Falena avenue enjoyed tremendously, their weeks vacation to Klamath Falls, Oregon, where they were guests of Roy's sister and brother-in-law, Mr. and Mrs. R. E. Jeffers. The Jeffers took

HOME FROM A MEMORABLE trip are Jim and Bette Morehead and daughters Janice and Marilyn, of Middlebrook road, who visited relatives in St. Paul, Minn., Billings, Montana and many other cities besides touring such scenic spots as Yellowstone National Park and Rocky Mountain Park in Colorado.
