Professional Women Vote
Donation to YWCA Fund

Regular dinner meeting of the National Business and Professional Women's Club was held Monday, July 16, with the following hostesses in charge: Mesdames Emma Roberts, Anna Sandstrom, Julia McManus, Theresa Finlayson and Esther Larson. Reservation were made with Mrs. Roberts or Mrs. Sandstrom for the picnic dinner which was held in Torrance Municipal Park at 7:00 o'clock.

At the last business meeting members voted to use the proceeds from the paper drive for a donation to the equipment fund of the YWCA. All members are urged to take tied bundles of newspapers, magazines and rags to the home of Mrs. Zada Ramsey. If transportation is not available, please phone Mrs. Ruth Robinson, chairman of the project, who will arrange to have the bundles picked up.

Catholic Daughters Plan
Family Park Picnic 23rd

An interesting report by Mrs. J. J. MacDonald, official delegate to the State C.D. of A. conference, featured a meeting of Court St. Catherine Monday evening.

Presiding was Mrs. Bernard Harwood, grand regent, who heard reports from several committee chairmen: Mmsee. M. N. Felker (social welfare), T. C. Turner (ways and means), Frank H. Forester (share the faith), and Lyle J. O'Hara (program). Mrs. Mae Donald assisted her with hospital visiting. Mrs. Felker reported.

The special mass at St. Vibian's Cathedral, observing the 175th anniversary of signing of the Declaration of Independence, had a large delegation from Court St. Catherine in attendance. The Rev. Fr. Patrick J. McGuiness, chaplain of local court, was sub-deacon at the solemn high mass over which Archbishop J. Francis A. McIntyre officiated. The Torrance group included Mesdames Harwood, MacDonald, Turner, John McVey, John V. Murray, Lawrence Gitchier, John Gitchier, Forester, Anna McIntier, L. Kitto, Jay T. Bailey, Regina Cunningham, and the Misses Rosa and Katherine Ortmann.

The July social, for members their families and friends, will be a picnic in city park Monday, July 23, 5:30 p.m. Chairman is Mrs. Michael Donisch, assisted by Mesdames Sam Estes, James C. Donald Jr., and A. A. Martin. This committee also served refreshments at the business meeting.

Mrs. Howard Owen was a recent hostess to other officers at an executive board meeting at her home.

Housewarming
Party Honors
A. A. Martins

Complimenting Mr. and Mrs. Albert A. Martin, friends gathered recently at their new home, 1630 Greenwood avenue for a surprise housewarming party.

Attractive and useful gifts were presented and refreshments provided by the guests were served.

Present were Messrs. and Mesdames Bert Prior, Lyle J. O'Hara, James Lee, J. R. Alden, Merritt Hartell, John Stoddard, Mmes. Joan Donald and Jane Akers, and Messrs. Clayton Bowen, and Kenneth Lambert.

Crestline Party for Club Group

Members of Torrance Breakfast club spent a recent week end at Crestline, where they were entertained at the Fred Bever and Wilbur Waner cabins.

Included were Dr. and Mrs. O. E. Fossum, Messrs. and Mesdames H. Archer Lewis, J. E. Miller, A. Shriner, J. H. Foss, L. C. Miller, Wilbur Winner (Mrs. Naoma Brown), Stan Morrison, Ray Phillips, M. J. Edwards and Elmo Miller.

STOCKTON VISITORS

Arriving from Stockton recently for a month's vacation were Mrs. Ella Hock, her niece, Miss Joy Hrabec and her sister-in-law, Mrs. William M. Maddy. The ladies will visit at the home of Mrs. Maddy's son and daughter-in-law, Mr. and Mrs. Merle M. Maddy of Gramercy avenue. They will also spend some time with Mrs. Hock's sister Mrs. Della Moon of 2303 Andrea avenue.

Review Year's Activities

Reports of standing committees in which activities of the past year were detailed were given as a feature of the last luncheon meeting of the Harbor District Soroptimist Club. Miss Edna Whitlow, retiring president, conducted the session.
