

GINNY BALDWIN BETTY MATSON
SEASIDE-RIVIERA
'Potpourri'
 RUTH HANOVER HELEN SCHMITZ
 Frontier 5-1410

Mrs. Claude Ferrel of Calle de Arboles has as her guest her sister, Mrs. Ralph Goss, of Youngstown, Ohio. In honor of Mrs. Goss, whom she has not seen in four years, Helen hosted an informal Canasta get-together of her neighbors.

Mrs. Robert Matson is spending several days at the Surf Motel in Long Beach. She will be joined at the end of this week by Mrs. Lawrence W. Maurice of Palos Verdes.

Mr. and Mrs. Everett Rowan were entertained at the home of Betty's brother and sister-in-law, Mr. and Mrs. William Forbes of Pasadena. Among the guests was Mr. James Foula, producer of the new Ames and Andy television show, who kept them spellbound with a fascinating account of the inner workings of that medium. Another guest was a film editor at Columbia who won the Academy Award Oscar for his work on a recent picture, and gave them insight into his field.

Did you know the Seaside-Riviera girls softball team, known as the Sierras, are upholding our community's fair name with a consistent record of wins?
 The team is composed of Ellen Morris, Pat Patton, Shirley Parrish, Syd Plahive, Sandy Scott, Nancy Miller, Maryne Hixson, Shortie Haskins, Mickie Newton, Ginger Coekrian, Diane Davidson, Carol Briggs, Terry Raleigh, Laurie Alexander, Hemo Stone, and Joan Black.

Schedule of future games: 7 p.m. Tuesday July 31 at Lomita vs. the Pueblos; 7 p.m. Thursday, August 9 vs. the Harveys at Waleria; and 7 p.m. Thursday, August 16 at Waleria vs. the Tartarettes. The all-star game will be held on Sunday, August 26 at Waleria. Al Patton is manager of the Sierras, with Quinn Johnson taking over during Al's vacation.

Best man will be the role of Bill Schmitz of Carol drive at the wedding of his brother Daniel this weekend in Glendale. A reception at the Chevy Chase Club will follow the ceremony.

It's barbecue weather, and enjoying this treat in Mr. and Mrs. Paul Roettler's patio were Mr. and Mrs. Clifford Scioneaux, Mr. and Mrs. Wm. Masters, Mr. and Mrs. Bud Mewborn, and their respective families.

Mr. Markle Sparks has just returned from a vacation in his home town of Oklahoma City. This was a vacation of necessity following a minor operation on his hand. Markle appeared a short time ago on the television show "Batters Up," on KTTV, when five Western Airlines pilots beated five stewardesses in a quiz show about Los Angeles. Among numerous and sundry awards, the Sparks will be wined and dined one evening this week at the Wilshire Brown Derby.

Many in the community regret the sale of the Don Stewart's boat. There have been frequent enjoyable trips to Catalina for not only the Stewarts but for many of their friends. Mickey and Don will continue their sailing excursions on Don's brother's yacht, formerly owned and known notoriously as the O'Connell yacht. And we'll just have to be content with our water wings!

Mr. and Mrs. Leonard Doyle hosted a gathering at which friends welcomed Len home from his South American voyage. Among the guests were Mr. and Mrs. William Haeger, Mr. and Mrs. Frank Hanover, and Mr. and Mrs. William Schmitz.

It seems only fair to thank whomever is responsible for the Seaside Summer School, now that it is drawing to a close. We hope to spread the word so that attendance next year will warrant its continuance.

There have been trips to the Aquarium in Hermosa Beach (and if you haven't been there you've missed those fabulous creatures, the sea-horses); an excursion to the Inglewood Dairy farm where host Barney guided and explained (prize question "does chocolate milk come from the brown cows?"); frequent visits to the beach, patio picnics, watermelon parties, a tour through the chinchilla farm, and marshmallow roasts. Everyone has been so very co-operative, teachers and parents alike, and the children have enjoyed it to the utmost.

The educational phase was not ignored; this ability to enable the children to learn, and enjoy learning, is commendable. Our congratulations to all concerned.

Fleetingly . . . the Frederiek Knouse family vacationing at Yosemite . . . the Wayne School-ey's moved to a lovely home in Rolling Hills . . . Mary Jane Miller recuperating nicely after surgery . . .
