LORIANA YOUNGKEN

Wins Contest in Japan

Loriana, six-months-old daughter of Sergeant 1st Milton A. Younken and Mrs. Younken, is the proud possessor of a silver bracelet, appropriately inscribed, and a plaque which proclaims her as "Miss Matushima, 1951."

Bracelet and plaque were awards won by the diminutive Torrance Miss in a Fathers Day contest staged in Japan, where her daddy is serving with the 578th Engineers Battalion.

Fifty entrants, children of servicemen, competed in the contest in which Loriana won first place. Her bracelet is inscribed with her name, and inside bears the inscription: "Mistress of Matushima."

Mrs. Younken and the baby live at 2122 Androo avenue. Also basking in reflected glory are the baby's grandparents, Mr. and Mrs. Clarence Youngken, of 1451 W. 219th street, and Mr. and Mrs. John A. McVicar, of 2122 Gramercy avenue.

Torrance residents are urged to save papers for the Job's Daughters paper drive which closes August 4.

Money from the drive will defray cost of the December installation of officers. For pick-up, please call 343-0 or 2362-W.

Lorraine Foley Joins Bridal List in Nevada

In a simple ceremony performed in Gretna Green Wedding Chapel, Las Vegas, Nevada Miss Lorraine Foley became the bride of Thomas Dean Giatras.

The bride is a daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Luke M. Foley of 1738-A Cabrillo avenue and Mr. Peter Giatras of 1734 Cabrillo avenue.

Attended by her mother, the bride chose as her wedding attire a grey and white checked suit with white accessories. Mrs. Foley was costumed in beige with brown accessories.

Mr. Giatras stood with his son's best man.

A reception for the newlywed Mr. and Mrs. Giatras will be given on the evening of August 3 at the home of the bride's parents. Approximately 30 relatives and intimate friends of the couple will be invited.

The new Mrs. Giatras received her diploma from Torrance High with the class of '49 and since has been employed with Occidental Life Insurance Company, Los Angeles. Her bridegroom, who graduated from the same school, is a railroad employee at Barstow, where they plan to make their home following their honeymoon at Reno, Lake Tahoe, and San Francisco.

House Guest Is Party Incentive

Honoring their house guest, Miss Margaret Foust of Columbus, Ohio, Mr. and Mrs. Russell Lund entertained Tuesday evening at a buffet dinner in their Post avenue home.

Following dinner guests enjoyed bridge and canasta. Invited were the honor guest and Messrs. and Mesdames A. V. McNamer, Jr., A. V. McNamer, Sr., Robert I. Plomert, Jr., and Miss Juanita Presnell, all of Los Angeles; and Mr. and Mrs. Harvel Guttenfelder, of Torrance.

DINNER GUESTS
