

Rangers Rejoin 40th Division At Japan Base

Rejoining the 40th Division in Japan recently after several months of grueling Ranger Courses were five Torrance area soldiers who went through the training together.

Training which included parachute jumps at Fort Benning, Georgia; mountain climbing at Camp Carson, Colorado, and other specialized instructions was completed by:

Cpl. Joseph C. La Porte, son of Mr. and Mrs. Norman P. La Porte, of 1562 West 213th street.

Cpl. Robert Buchanan, son of Mr. and Mrs. W. W. Buchanan, of 1507 West 215th street.

PFC. Dick McWhirter, son of Mr. and Mrs. Lloyd K. McWhirter, of 606 Calle de Arboles.

Cpl. Howard Shuler, son of Mr. and Mrs. W. H. Shuler, of 2505 N. Thomas avenue, and

Cpl. Dick Forseth, of 917 West 256th street.

Activated with the 578th Combat Engineers last September when the 40th Division was called into Federal service, the five men volunteered for the Ranger training while the unit was stationed at Camp Cooke.

They all left from Ft. Lawton, Washington, near Seattle to rejoin the 40th near Senadi, Japan.
