CDAs Tell Garden Party Success, Other Affairs

An annual affair, benefiting charity, for which Mrs. M. N. Felker graciously opens the spacious gardens of her Beech avenue home, is the garden party under sponsorship of Court St. Catherine, Catholic Daughters of America.

Held this year on Wednesday, September 26, it served as an enjoyable social gathering in addition to swelling the court's philanthropy funds. Most appropriately, the hostess is the court's social welfare chairman, in charge of visiting Harbor General hospital, and other philanthropy projects.

Homemade cake and coffee were served buffet style in the patio beginning at 12:30 p.m. Assisting the hostess were Mrs. Bernard Harwood, who heads Court St. Catherine this year, and Mrs. T. C. Turner, ways and means chairman; also other officers in addition to Mesdames Anna McIntire, Regina Cunningham, Donald Richards, John Hoffman and Albert Elder.

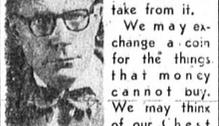

Bridge, canasta, and pinocle were played, prize winners being Mesdames J. J. MacDonald, L. M. Fernley, P. B. Clayton, R. J. Deoininger and Carl Warner, for bridge; in pinocle, Mesdames Elmer S. Moon, Ruth Bith, J. Lasky and Miss Rosa Ortman. High scorers in canasta were Mesdames Ernest Mondor, John P. Gitschier, E. C. Youngken and Tom Watson. The door prize was won by Mrs. George Peckham, Sr.

On Monday evening, Mrs. John McVey was hostess to other officers of the court at her new home, 920 Kornblum in Torrance Gardens. At a recent meeting of the court's study club at the home of Mrs. Lyle J. O'Hara, the Rev. Fr. Moser was guest lecturer. Fr. Moser suggested book giving for Christmas and briefly outlined books he recommended. The court's business meeting is scheduled for next Monday, October 9 at the parish hall at 8 p.m.

Reflections

By J. Hugh Sherley, Jr.
COMMUNITY CHEST

We give less to Community Chest than we take from it. We may exchange a coin for the things that money cannot buy. We may think of our Chest as being filled with gold; I hope you're right, but some of that money has your name on it. It might be your child who will benefit from Y.M.C.A., if so you've taken your first handful. Or a member of your family has been returned to you from Polio; if so, you're standing in gold up to your knee. Or a mother, perhaps a neighbor, is working while her infant is being cared for at a Day Nursery; if so, how much is her peace of mind worth? Or your son joins Boy Scouts and comes home a man, ready and willing to fill his place as a citizen. Would you trade his sturdy character for all the gold in that chest? Again, you have taken more than you gave. There isn't a man, woman or child in Torrance who doesn't receive more, much more, from our Chest than he gives.

Give more to your Chest because it gives more to you.
