Death Claims Mrs. Licht, 80

Funeral services for Mrs. Eunice Jane Licht, 80, of 1643 West 216th street, were held in the Stone and Myers Chapel here Monday morning just five months after services were held for her husband, George Henry Licht, 78.

Mrs. Licht, who had been a resident of Torrance for the past 26 years, died at her home last Friday.

Conducting the services Monday were James A. Scott of the Whittier Church of Christ and H. G. Gassell of the Torrance Church of Christ. Both officiated at Mr. Licht's services last May.

Mrs. Licht leaves three sons here, Harry W., at 1643 West 216th street and George W., at 1618 West 216th and Edward S. at 1639 East road. One daughter, Mrs. Rebecca J. Aguilar, of 1513 West 226th street, survives. She also leaves a brother, Harry Wright, in Montebello; nine grandchildren and four great-grandchildren.

Interment in Pacific Crest Cemetery followed Monday's rites.

Will Give Away Gifts During Grand Opening

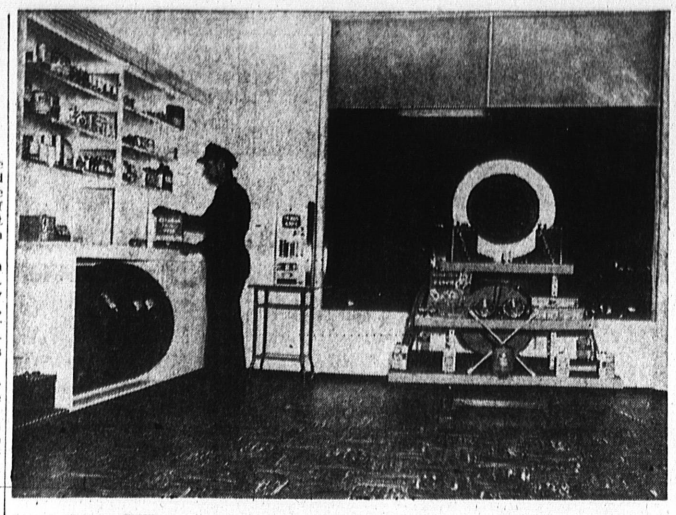
It will be free orchids for the ladies, cigars for the men, and fire hats for the kids during the Grand Opening this Saturday of Red's Texaco Service Station at Carson street and Arlington avenue.

The free gifts are being given away by Wayne "Red" A. Morse, owner of the completely remodeled and modern station, as a "thank you" to his regular customers and as a "get-acquainted" offer to new residents of the community.

Morse, who lives at 923 Faysmith avenue, has operated the station for the past 2½ years.

The station will be open on Saturday from 6 a.m. until 10 p.m., which are the regular hours for the station, except Sundays, when the station is opened at 8 a.m., closing at 9 p.m.

Morse features the Goodrich line of tires and tubes and other automobile accessories. Also featured is a reliable, yet inexpensive motor tune-up. Brake work ranging from an adjustment to a complete relining job, is a specialty with the new station mechanical department.



ALL RED-EE . . . Wayne "Red" Morse, owner of Red's Texaco Service Station at Arlington avenue and Carson street, gets ready for his grand opening this Saturday. There will be free gifts for all members of the family. (Herald photo).
