

W. T. TILLOTSON
... His Entry in Derby

JOHN EBBINGHOUSE
... Succeeds Tillotson

Plant Manager Claims New Marlin Record

Top honors in the unofficial American Rock Wool Marlin Derby shifted this week from former plant manager W. T. "Hap" Tillotson to his successor at the plant, John A. Ebbinghouse.

About a year ago, Tillotson showed up at the plant with a huge marlin, which took all honors at that time.

In addition to succeeding Tillotson as plant manager, Ebbinghouse came in this week with a marlin which he claims is longer and heavier than the Tillotson catch of last year.

"I've succeeded him in all departments here now," the plant manager said.

Pictured above are the two anglers and their catches. As a comparison, it might be pointed out that Ebbinghouse is 6 ft. 5 in. tall.

Herb Wood, plant superintendent at American Rock Wool, witnessed the latest marlin catch, Ebbinghouse says.

Tillotson, who is now vice president in the firm's Chicago offices, may be expected to go after an even bigger fish when his work permits.

Warriors Ready For Second Conference Tilt

Boasting a win in their first conference tilt, the El Camino Warriors will square off with Bakersfield here Saturday night in the second conference scrap for both teams.

It will be an early decider for the two teams as each has one win and no losses in the new conference season. Bakersfield came from behind to down Harbor Tech 20-19 last Saturday night.

In earlier play, the Warriors lost games to the alumni, Fullerton Junior College, and the Arizona frosh.

Bakersfield, lost to College of Sequoias but won from Glendale and Harbor.

The Bakersfield Renegades are led by linebacker Ken Erreart, Alman Bender, and Ray Aquilar, while Burnell Jamerson, Bill Fajung, and Marvin Thompson rump in the backfield.

The Warriors offense will be ready to roll with Don Miller, Don Cody, Ray Day, and George Clark holding down key spots.

APPROVAL GRANTED TECH

Harbor Junior College has been approved as a college for non-quota immigrant students by the Immigration and Naturalization Service of the U. S. Department of Justice, according to Raymond J. Carey, Tech director.

Bike Pilots Still Drive For Title

The mighty motorbikes of the AMA swing into the stretch run at Carroll Speedway Friday night with the 1951 riding title still a nip and tuckish affair as the field hits the final three weeks of night racing.

Chuck Basney, Bob Shirey, and Bert Brundage are the Big Three in the race for the coveted crown with Charming Chuck boasting an 11-point edge over Bullet Bob, his nearest pursuer.

AMA official Harry Pelton has declared that there is a possible 18 points remaining on the final three cards. This is not enough to change the standings if there is anything like an even split between the top three.

But if Brundage and Shirey got hot or if Basney cools off—there might be a big shakeup before the final tabulations are made.

Paul Pettit Returns To Enter Harbor Tech

Paul Pettit, major-league baseball pitcher, has re-enrolled at Los Angeles Harbor Junior College, to continue his studies as a physical education major.

The highest paid bonus baseball player in the United States finished the current season with the Charleston Rebels of the South Atlantic League, where he won two and lost two.

Sentinels Head League After Clouting Leuzinger Eleven 26-7

To the surprise of absolutely no one, the Inglewood Sentinels took an early lead in the Bay League last Friday night when they rolled over Leuzinger High 26-7 in the league's first contest this year.

Fullback Dick Therio, substituting for Jim Carmichael who injured an ankle in the first quarter, raced for two touchdowns and set up a third with a 23-yard run.

Quarterback Ronnie Knox completed 9 out of 15 passes—one of them a 23-yard t.d. pitch to Right End Ken Cornell.

The Tartars open their league play against the Sentinels in Inglewood tomorrow night. At the same time Leuzinger will play at Redondo, and Beverly Hills will play at Santa Monica to complete the league.

The Inglewood-Leuzinger game was the only league game last week. In practice games Torrance beat Oxnard 25-6, in an impressive display of power; Redondo beat Burbank Burroughs 6-0; Beverly Hills beat Notre Dame High 27-13 and Santa Monica beat Fremont High 28-6. Fremont High is defending champion of the Los Angeles City leagues.
