Belchers Welcome Daughter

Mr. and Mrs. C. M. Belcher (Reba Mathews), of 3445 177th street, are being congratulated on the birth of their first child, a daughter, Vicki Lorain, who was born October 1 in Centinela Hospital, Inglewood. The baby was especially welcome, because the Belchers have waited almost ten years for her arrival.

The baby's daddy is employed with General Petroleum. Proud grandparents are Mr. and Mrs. James Mathews of Torrance and Mrs. A. M. Belcher of El Segundo.

Seaside PTA Launches Year With 6:30 Supper

The dinner bell will announce the first meeting of the Seaside Elementary School PTA at 6:30 this evening, when a pot-luck supper for all the family will be held in the school cafeteria.

Following the family style meal, the teachers will be introduced and a musical program will feature the "Deacons," well known barbershop quartette. During the business meeting the children will see movies especially selected for them.

Each family will bring plates, cups, and silver, and milk, if desired, for the children. Those whose last name begins with A through J will bring a meat casserole, such as spaghetti and hamburger, chili, beans, meat loaf, baked beans, etc. K through Q, a salad, such as tossed green, cabbage and pineapple. Those families whose name begins with

R through Z will supply a dessert. The teachers will provide the rolls and butter and the PTA will contribute coffee, sugar, cream, and napkins. Each dish should be sufficient to serve 16 persons. PTA board members will be hostesses.

Successful Paper Drive

Mrs. Harry Van Bellehem, finance and budget chairman, announces that the paper drive sponsored by the North Torrance Elementary PTA, was a huge success. Since the response was so great, another drive is being planned for some time in January. Keep this in mind and start saving now!

Auxiliary Inspection Night Held

Inspection night held Tuesday of last week was an important occasion for members of the auxiliary to VFW Post 3251. Phyllis Withee, Fourth District president, was the inspecting officer, and May Goodrich, Fourth District hospital chairman, addressed the women, stressing the need for help with the hospital Christmas parties.

Other guests were Naomi Miller of Long Beach, Fourth District secretary; Ruth De Harte, of Long Beach, Fourth District home fund chairman; Theresa Andrews, Long Beach, Fourth District telephone chairman, and Elda Smith, a member of Long Beach VFW Auxiliary. Refreshments were served at the close of the meeting.

OES CHAPTER OBSERVES 92ND DISTRICT NIGHT

Those who attended Torrance Chapter O. E. S. Thursday had the pleasure of seeing the worthy matron and worthy patrons of the 92nd District. Chapter was called to order by Olin Vandegrift, Worthy Patron of Wilmington Chapter and opened in regular form with Vivian Brewer, Worthy Matron of San Pedro Harbor Chapter presiding with all Torrance officers in their stations.

Special escort was given to the worthy matron, Vivian Cook and worthy patron, Gordon Mothersell. The opening ode "God Bless America" was sung and the flag of our country was carried to the east by Olin Vandegrift, worthy patron of San Pedro Harbor Chapter.

During escort, Ann Martin, worthy matron of Playa Linda and Leslie Parsons, worthy patron of Point Fermin presided. Grace Ham, deputy grand matron of the 92nd District, was escorted to the east and presented. The worthy matrons and worthy patrons were escorted to the east and presented: Lorraine Bates, Leslie Parsons, Point Fermin; Vivian and Othel Brewer, San Pedro Harbor; Ione Smale, Olin Vandegrift, Wilmington; Ann Martin, Leslie Baker, Playa Linda and Glenn Hapke, Mar Vista, Long Beach. Mayne and Harry Becrup, worthy matron and worthy patron of Carnation were missed from the district because she had undergone surgery and it was impossible for them to attend.

matron of Wilmington and Leslie Baker, worthy patron of Playa Linda, Deputy Grand Matron Grace Ham spoke of her friendship for Torrance chapter, as did Leslie Baker and Ione Smale of Wilmington. Gordon Mothersell presented the visitors on the sidelines, who were from San Pedro, Wilmington, Point Fermin, Playa Linda, Mar Vista and several members visiting Torrance chapter who carried their membership in the east and are now living here.

Leslie Baker mentioned the many miles the Torrance matron had traveled in visiting chapters and observed that wherever one went he would find her. She in turn welcomed all to the meeting, especially the worthy matrons and worthy patrons of District 92, the deputy and Glenn Hapke from Long Beach. She made the necessary announcements for the week and closed her remarks with a beautiful poem entitled "We Are Builders All." Closing was presided over by Lorraine Bates, worthy matron of Point Fermin and Othel Brewer, worthy patron of San Pedro Harbor with Lorraine giving the farewell.

The Torrance Barber Shop Quartette, presented by Ray Lougee, sang several numbers followed by the "Colonels of Corn Quartette," who sang a group of three numbers. Later the two groups entertained and the "Deacons Quartette" sang three special numbers and the program closed with the combined groups singing "America."

Nellie Haynes was chairman for the evening with Hazel Hyde, Margaret Raymond, Irene Drake, Leda and Jack Harshbarger as the committee. The guest worthy matrons and worthy patrons led the line of march to the banquet hall where the tables were decorated with lovely flowers, and while refreshments were being served, the singers again presented several numbers.

During the regular business session Vivian Cook and Gordon Mothersell presided. Good of the Order was conducted by Ione Smale, worthy

No. Torrance Member Drive In Full Swing

North Torrance Elementary PTA membership enrollment is now in full swing. It started yesterday and will continue through October 20.

Theme this year is "Children Still Come First," which is truly the policy of North Torrance PTA.

Parents can now attend the scheduled monthly meeting together. A nursery is available during meetings.

A prize will be given to the room with the highest percentage of memberships obtained.

With the new play under way, the Hampton Players are off on another happy journey "across the boards" via "The Bees and the Flowers," a comedy in two acts, from which the highly successful musical motion picture, "Three Daring Daughters," was adapted.

Next regular meeting of the Hampton Players is Monday, October 15, at the Torrance High School, Room 101. Visitors are welcome, including those having a yen to participate in the "spoken drama," or merely to improve personality.

Two men's parts are still open in "The Bees and the Flowers," it was learned.

Gold Star Mothers Are Feted

Mr. and Mrs. Oliver B. Hamilton opened their Cayuga street home for an enjoyable evening party for members of Torrance Memorial Chapter of Gold Star Mothers.

Groups of members and their husbands from Redondo Beach and Gardena, as well as those from Torrance and Long Beach, were among the guests. Games and group singing, with Mrs. Beatrice Neigh of Gardena, as accompanist, occupied the group and buffet refreshments were served.

Torrance PTA Represented

Torrance Council, First District, C.C.P.T., was well represented at the Pomona Fair on September 20, by Mmes. Byron Johnson, O. R. Hopkin, H. Van Bellehem, Glenn Hardecastle, Hartley Carr and Jules Ross of the Walteria, Seaside, Torrance Elementary, and North Torrance PTAs. All questions pertaining to parent-teacher work were answered by Mrs. A. R. Cowie, president, and her group, who staffed the booth for the entire day.

WE HAVE IT! Sunbeam IRONMASTER

... PLUG-IN for STEAM just as you do for current

You can switch from STEAM to DRY ironing, or dry to steam, instantly. The water for steam is supplied from your bottle of distilled water, outside the iron. The new Sunbeam weighs no more than an ordinary iron. No additional weight. No filling, emptying—slipping or spilling. Steam when you want it.

HERE'S HOW YOU CAN GET A Steam Ironmaster Free!

Just guess how long it will steam on one gallon of water. The Steam Ironmaster will be started in the window of the Edison Company, 1437 Marcellina in Torrance at exactly 9:30 a.m. Friday, October 19. All you have to do is make the closest guess to the exact moment the steam will stop. Come into our store today for an official guessing blank and clue on how to guess.
