Good luck to Bob Curry on his new business venture. It would be advertising if we told you, but it has something to do with CARS.

Mrs. Theo Cunningham honored her son, Daniel, with a gay party on his sixth birthday recently. It was held at Torrance Park, with a Hopalong Cassidy theme prevailing in decorations. Colorful balloons and plastic soldiers held crayons for each and every guest. Play mates at the party were Bobby Jobe, Michael Way, Capdy and Tommy Sullivan, Billie Schuckman, Charles Carpenter, Adria Sonnerville, Tamara and Bill Hughes, and Michael Lillywhite.

By the way . . . Mrs. Cunningham's mother, Mrs. Margie Craig, who spent the summer in Alaska, is now at the Cunningham residence and will spend the fall and winter season here.

Congratulations are in order this week to Mr. and Mrs. John Slinger, of 1734 West 236th street, upon the arrival of their new baby daughter, Susan Renee, who was born October 2 at San Pedro Hospital. Three-year-old Michael naturally welcomes the new baby home, too! Grandparents are Mr. and Mrs. Herbert Hartman of Harbor City and Mr. and Mrs. Gordon Slinger of Long Beach.

the birthdays of Mrs. Dorothy Wainwright, hostess, and her cousin's birthday and wedding anniversary. Mrs. Francis Edmundson of Los Altos, Home-made ice cream, cakes and coffee were served to guests Mr. and Mrs. Jack Edmundson, Mr. and Mrs. Albert Valla and their daughter, Anna May, Mrs. Ida Valla and Mrs. Mary Earle of Long Beach, Mr. Fred Decker of San Pedro, Husband Norman Wainwright and two daughters, Donnie and Norma Jean, joined in the celebration, too!

A surprise birthday "brunch" honored Dorothy also last Thursday morning, when neighbors gathered at the home of Mrs. Virginia Jones to present her with lovely gifts. A delicious cake, decorated by Mrs. Marie Foote, donuts and coffee were enjoyed.

Flash—Five Kettler women "kidnaped" from their homes Wednesday morning! Yes, Wednesday morning the PTA executive board had a "kidnap-come-as-you-are" get-together at the home of Mrs. Evelyn Carr, PTA president. The idea was planned as a clever way to get new members acquainted with one another. The gals, sans make-up, hairdos, some in robes, housecoats, etc., had fun with the good-natured chiding and teasing, and enjoyed the delicious coffee and doughnuts that were served. Mrs. Sybil Moffitt, publicity chairman (she also did the kidnaping), deposited Mesdames Vay Minor, Sally Eckersley (little Jan, too), Ethel Richardson, Millie West and Camilla Helphand, back home safe, sound, and well fed.

A lovely stork shower honored Mrs. Margie Welch on October 9, when Mrs. Lou Trezise and Mrs. Norma Tyler hosted the affair at the Trezise home on Marinette street. Guests Betty Wentz, Phyllis Wolters, Louise Yancey and Vera Creighton presented Mrs. Welch with a "Travel-ette" as a group gift. Individual decorations done in appropriate fashion and a bottle-decorated cake were greatly enjoyed.

The Fishers, Hyman (Mickey), "Goodie" and kiddies three of Reynosa drive, left Monday for a two weeks' vacation in Provo, Utah, where they will visit with "Goodie's" family. Mickey intends to get in on some of that famous Utah deer hunting. So, have fun, kids, and—good hunting!

Two more birthday celebrants last week were Master Arthur Grant, a new eight-year-old, and Miss Renee Baerman, now nine years old. They were guests of honor last week at the Kathy way home of the Arthur Grants, who hosted a gay dinner party. Renee's parents, former Kettler residents, Mr. and Mrs. Robert Baerman, and their two sons from San Fernando Valley, were guests, too.

A pleasant three-day jaunt was enjoyed by the Don Minors and daughter, Judy, of Kathy way, this week when they motored to Arizona to visit friends and enjoy the scenery.

Haven't had much news from other tracts (4, 5, 6) lately! What's doing?
