Auxiliary Sets Sunday Breakfast

American Legion Auxiliary will sponsor a breakfast to be served on Sunday, October 21 from 8 till 12 noon. The public is invited. "Come out on your way to church and bring the family," says Mary Toombs, president.

Miss Navarro Is Engaged

Miss Juanita Navarro, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Joseph Navarro of 1564 W. 219th street, Torrance, will become the bride of Mr. Michael Sooter, son of Mr. and Mrs. Roy Sooter of 22 E. 68th street, Long Beach, early next summer.

Both are graduates of Narbonne High School. Miss Navarro is employed as a receptionist with a Walteria physician. Mr. Sooter is presently enrolled at Harbor Junior College.

Grand Royal Matron Pays Official Visit to Court

The official visit of the Grand Royal Matron was the order of business at Lomita Court 61, Order of Amaranth, Thursday evening, at Torrance Masonic Temple. Presiding officers were Maybelle Spencer, Royal Matron, and Eugene Spencer, Royal Patron.

The hall was well filled with members, matrons and patrons, both present and past, of many of the Southland courts. The following grand officers also were present:

Cosby Gillstrap, Grand Royal Matron, Alhambra; Walter P. Kelly, Grand Royal Patron, Oakland; Thomas Toner, Associate Grand Royal Patron, Long Beach; Louise Heinecke, Grand Treasurer, Whittier; Zolma Blackshear, Grand Prelate, Rosemead; Octa Perry, Grand Marshal, Los Angeles; Nina Cheney, Grand Lecturer, Los Angeles; Myrtle Nelson, Assistant Grand Lecturer, Pasadena; Sally Weber, Grand Representative to Australia, Lomita.

A number of the 1951 Association members were present, the matrons all crowned alike in azure blue and wearing American Beauty rose corsages.

Grand Royal Matron Cosby Gillstrap was indeed charming, and her remarks were well received, especially when she complimented Lomita Court's officers and members on their work and attendance. She was presented with a monetary bouquet, the leaves being dollar bills and the flowers, red roses.

The table decorations in the banquet room were beautiful, the tables so placed that they formed a crescent, the insignia for this year. The head table, adorned with a beautiful doll dressed in azure blue and American beauty, this year's colors, which represented the Grand Royal Matron, and another doll dressed in a tuxedo to represent the Grand Royal Patron. There were also tall light blue candles in silver holders, as well as silver candy dishes and place cards embossed in American beauty rose designs. The other tables were artistic also with large silver crescents; silver bonbon dishes, blue and silver mats and ivy down the center of each. The chairman of

Reflections

By J. Hugh Sherfey, Jr.

WHAT'S IN A NAME?

The ultimate of pride of a young man going into business is a sign over his door with his name on it. The loss of his name is the greatest penalty a felon pays; he's a number. Give a person a directory; watch him turn the pages, smile happily when he finds his name. When your name is mentioned in the Herald you preserve that notice. Thirty years ago a young man erected a sign over his door; his ideals, philosophy of fair play, honor, and trustworthiness were to make that name a tradition in his profession. Stone & Myers Mortuary is a name that has been burnished with old fashioned neighborliness and friendship until it shines with regal splendor. At the other end of this distinction I read of an outlaw known as J. Frank Dalton, who wanted to be known as Jessie James. That name is odious to us; it brought distinction to him.

What's in a name? A man will work night and day to make his name more than so many symbols; to glorify it is his ambition. It is the one thing he owns. He's proud of it. By keeping it bright with friendship and deeds of kindness he perpetuates it long after he is gone.
