Recruiter Tells Names of Local Boys in Service

The U. S. Army and U. S. Air Force Recruiting Station, for the Torrance, Lomita, and the Harbor City area has officially announced that ten local boys have volunteered in the month of October for the U. S. Air Force.

Torrance boys who have enlisted in October and now taking basic training in Lackland Air Force base, Texas, are: Harold Duncan, 1338 Carson street; Lavon Long, 1417 West 216th street; Charles Lusk, 1648 West 205th street; Fred Davis, 21324 Denver avenue, and Denver Wear, 21012 Shearer avenue.

From Harbor City, Alvin Kenneth Hall, 1218 256th street; Lloyd Donald Trece, 926 West 253rd street, and James Cadwell, 972 253rd street.

From Lomita, George and Bernard Buswell, of 24630 Eshelman avenue, enlisted in the Air Force. George, a veteran of the Army during World War II, has chosen the Air Force this enlistment.

Among the volunteers for the Air Force, were many, who have had their selective service physicals, but who did not yet receive their induction notice.

Men in that category may still enlist in the service of their own choosing until further notice. In this case enlistment must be voluntary.

The procurement program for WACs and WAFs is undergoing expansion.

Hi-Lites Of Seaside Heights

By GRAYCE BYCKMAN
Frontier 5-1779

And so they lived happily ever after. That is our wish for the newlyweds, Mr. and Mrs. Henry Marchel (the former Dorothy Kirschmer). They were married, as planned, last Saturday morning, October 20th, at St. James Catholic Church. The bride was dressed in a beautiful brown suit with beige accessories, the beige hat being veiled, and an orchid corsage. The groom was suited in fall gray. Mrs. Alex Levenenz was matron of honor, and her husband was best man. Following the wedding was a reception at the bride's home. In the truest tradition, the bride and groom cut and served the big wedding cake to the many friends and relatives who gathered to wish them happiness. Later in the evening, Dorothy and Hank left on a motor trip; destination: the moon and the stars. They expect to return to the Heights within the week and will reside a 5323 Bindowald road.

For a time last week it looked as though the bride's sister-in-law, Maryon Martin, might not be able to attend the reception. Maryon was rushed to the hospital, where she was given three blood transfusions. Just returning home October 18th, she was not able to remain long at the reception, but everyone was so glad she was able to make it at all.

Seems four women found that they did not take time out for a real lunch and a short rest if left to themselves. So every day now one of the four serves lunch to all, preferably in the patio. The ladies are Marvel Butler, Connie Priestly, Gloria Keene, and Lora Rosencrantz.

Visiting the Edward Thorne of Zakon road this week is Mrs. Ann Geiger. She is from Long Beach, and is an aunt of Mrs. Thorne's (Peg).

Mr. and Mrs. Jack Milsom of Bindowald stayed at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Roy Miller of Culver City. They, the Millers, are daughter and son-in-law of the Milsoms. Their biggest joy in the visit was their grandchildren. My, how proud they are of them.

At the Benefit Card Party, sponsored by Las Vecinas last Thursday, several of the participants of the Heights came home with prizes. These included Mr. and Mrs. Petr Juristich and Mr. Nix. Also attending were Mr. and Mrs. Edward Thorne and Mr. Ralph Ziskin.
