

Fritz H. Burns
... At Dominguez Rotary
Noted Developer
To Visit Rotary
At Dominguez

Fritz B. Burns, go-getting president of Kaiser Community Homes, a multi-million-dollar home building corporation, will be the featured speaker at the Dominguez Rotary Club luncheon this noon at Lone Pine Inn, Sepulveda at Harbor boulevard, according to Wallace D. Reynolds, program chairman.

Inducted into the realty profession at an early age by distributing handbills for a major real estate company, Burns has followed his chosen field with unparalleled enthusiasm. Incidentally, he later became president of the firm which first employed him as a handbill peddler.

During his career, Burns has successfully marketed real estate developments in over a dozen states throughout the nation. His influence has been a dynamic factor in the residential growth of Southern California and the entire West Coast.

Moose Lodge to Take 200
To Grid Game

Buses will leave from in front of the Moose Lodge on Carson street at 12 noon next Sunday for "Operation Football." It was announced this week by George Powell, governor of the lodge.

The Torrance Moose Lodge is planning to take approximately 200 young grid fans to the Coliseum to see the Los Angeles Rams in their crucial game with the Detroit Lions. A win by the Rams would sew up the playoff berth in the National League.

"There is still room for some youngsters to make the trip Sunday," Powell emphasized yesterday. Those wishing to go can be at the Moose hall prior to the 12 noon departing time.

Class Visits
Herald Plant

David S. Lepkowski, Torrance elementary teacher, and 31 students of his sixth grade class at the Torrance Elementary School visited the Herald offices and printing plant last week as a field trip. The students were shown the newsrooms, photo laboratory, engraving department, and the typesetting and printing operations which go into publishing a modern newspaper.

Members of the class are setting up an exhibit on printing materials for study and discussion.
