 Torrance Area Youth Band.
 Rev. Clarence E. Miller, pastor of the First Methodist Church, officiated at the service.
 Surviving besides her parents are two sisters, Deborah and Teresa, and one brother, Ronald.
 Mr. and Mrs. John F. Van Dyck, of Oklahoma, were listed as paternal grandparents, and Mr. and Mrs. M. R. Locks, of Texas, as the maternal grandparents.
 Interment in Green Hills cemetery followed the private services.

Home Tracts Approved Approval of 356 new homes for Torrance was granted by the City Council this week with the acceptance of three tract maps submitted by developers.
 The Don Ra-Ran Company will build 184 homes north of 190th street between Hawthorne boulevard and Prairie avenue; the January Company will build 129 homes at the southwest corner of Crenshaw boulevard and Pacific Coast highway and Truman Browne will build an additional 43 homes in his new tract south of Sepulveda boulevard and west of Hawthorne boulevard.

Loots Clothier
 Someone couldn't wait for normal hours to do his Christmas shopping at Treske's Men's Shop on El Prado last week.
 Someone broke into the store during the early morning hours by cutting through the ceiling and carted off clothing and accessories valued at approximately $700, owner Jack Treske told Torrance police.

... Cinderella
 at Denker and Carson street in Torrance.
 The couple was married on November 11 in Quartzsite, Arizona, then flew to Paris, France, where they were remarried in the Notre Dame Cathedral on Thanksgiving Day.
 Following the announcement in the Herald on November 29, papers and wire services across the nation picked up the story as a wedding of "Cinderella and her Prince Charming," and followed the couple with considerable interest.

DECORATORS CONVENED . . .
 James Squire, Tiny Tyke Shop, Lou Arbetter, Allen's Jewelers and Harry Abramson, National Home Appliance Store, stand on the corner of Sartori avenue and El Prado to admire this year's Christmas decorations on the two streets.
 Abramson and Arbetter raised the money for the Sartori avenue lights while Squire and Archie Waech of Mayflower Dress Shop (not pictured) did the work for El Prado. (Herald photo).

Garden Club Set Decor Contest Entries are now being taken for the Torrance Terrace Garden Club's fifth annual Christmas home decorating contest, the club has announced.
 Deadline for submitting entries has been set for December 20. Judging will take place on December 23.
 Three prizes will be given by the club—a first and second award to the top two decorating jobs by the general public and another prize to the best decorative effort made by a club member.
 Entries are not restricted to Torrance alone, the club pointed out. Anywhere in the general Torrance area is all right, they said.
 To be eligible for prizes, the display must be set up outdoors and must be lighted. A display visible only through a window does not qualify.
 Judging will be done by the club's 19 members. Selection of the best club member's display will be made by the group's president, Mrs. Minot Rugg.
 Just what the prizes will be has not yet been determined, the club announced.

Maybe it's Cold Outside!

It used to be that everyone talked about the weather, but nobody did anything about it. That's all changed, now. Passengers on today's modern trains have weather tailored for them—at least while they're aboard. It's always "fair" on today's streamliners, thanks to the miracle of air-conditioning.

Chair Cars on Southern Pacific's great streamliners have been built with your comfort the first consideration. Dust-free, draft-free air-conditioning. No-glare fluorescent lighting. Soft-as-a-cloud foam-rubber seats. Lots of leg room and move-around room. Circulating ice water. Feather-touch doors. Spacious washrooms.

That's why Chair Cars on Southern Pacific streamliners are the most luxurious form of all low-cost transportation.
