Lions to Hear Speakers On Fur Industry

Representatives of Allied Fur Industries, one of the city's lesser known industries, will present the program at the Torrance Lion's Club Tuesday, December 18.

Lloyd Preswich, president of the North Torrance firm, and Don Grover, district manager of the Chinchilla sales concern, will present colored slides and briefly outline the history of the industry in the U. S.

Jack O. Baldwin is program chairman and will introduce the speakers.

At the meeting held Tuesday, Frank Carpenter, city recreation director, presented a sound film on the Los Angeles Rams.

EL CAMINO BAND PLAYS AT DANCE

The El Camino college band will play for the North Torrance Civic Improvement Association dance Saturday night. The dance will be held in McMaster hall, 174th and Yukon, starting at 8 p.m.

NEW INDUSTRIAL FACILITY . . . Dow Chemical Company's new storage and distribution facilities designed to handle caustic soda solution was opened this week near here. The new terminal will increase Southern California's potential for defense production, officials say.

Considerers are delighted to note that trees have been planted all around the rim of the hill, just behind the new homes. Our guess is that they are lovely, quick-growing eucalyptus, and will be a welcome sight in just a year or two. Our sincere thanks to Mr. Ben Haggott.

Deepest sympathy to Betty Koehler of 804 Calle de Arboles, in the loss of her husband, Jordan.

Lois and Harry Greenwood, formerly of 5330 Carol drive and now residing in San Francisco, proudly announce the birth of their baby boy, Stephen Paul Greenwood, on November 25. Young Stephen weighed in at 4 pounds, 2 ounces.

There has been a rash of birthday parties for the younger set in the Ranchos. On December 8, Skipper Brazier of 6164 Sharynne lane celebrated his sixth birthday; on the following day Janet Lawrence of 5421 Linda drive escorted her guests to the show; and on December 10 Carolyn Roettger hosted a number of guests at a birthday dinner.

The first Yuletide party was held at the Richard Blackleys of 720 Calle de Arboles last Sunday afternoon. Guests included Mr. and Mrs. Bud Mewborn, Mr. and Mrs. Harvey Spelman, Mr. and Mrs. William Schmitz, Mr. and Mrs. Paul Roettger and Mr. and Mrs. James Berkeley of Manhattan Beach. During the evening the group gathered at the home of Helen and Bill Schmitz for a Sunday night supper.

One of the outstanding events of this year is this Saturday night's Las Vegas Christmas dance at the Riviera Beach Club. Tickets may be obtained from the following: Ethel Sacks on Sharynne lane, Frontier 5-1930; Peg Thorne on Zalkon, Frontier 5-2165; Peggy Reid on Linda Vista, Frontier 5-4698; Maxine McDonald on Aragon, Frontier 5-481; Lynetta Bowman on Andaluca, Frontier 5-3819 and Helen Schmitz on Carol drive, Frontier 5-1410. Call the one nearest you and she'll be glad to deliver your tickets when you designate. Don't forget, it's December 15 from 9 till 1 o'clock and the tickets are just $2 a couple.

Several neighbors have been anxious to learn the dates of the children's vacation from Seaside Holiday in order to plan their school trips, so here's the data: the last day of school will be Tuesday, December 18 and school will resume January 2, 1952.

After a long siege of illness, Dottie Pomeroy attended a birthday dinner in her honor at the Everett Rowans'. This was Dottie's first time out "partying" in over a year.

Still another birthday celebration . . . that of Rickie Honzik of Reese road, who was 10 last Saturday. Rickie and his guests went roller skating.

Vonderahe Joins Connett Realty

Paul Vonderahe, veteran Torrance realtor, has recently become associated with the Perry Connett Realty Company, 1871 West Carson.

Vonderahe is a former member of the board of directors of the Torrance Realty Board. He originated the multiple listing service now used by the Torrance-Lomita Realty Board.

He has been a resident of Torrance since 1920, and has been active in real estate here since 1923. In 1933 Vonderahe was a member of the Torrance Club. Bluebirds, a softball team which won the Southern California softball championship.
