Day, Komenda Elected El Camino Grid Captains

Recently elected honorary captain for the El Camino football team of 1951 were Barney Komenda and Ray Day, two hard-hitting backs. Day, in his second year with Coach Amby Schindler's team, averaged more than four yards a crack in 11 games. Komenda played his first year for El Camino this season, and was largely acknowledged for his superior linebacking.

SANTA ANITA PARK

How well do you know California?

Santa Anita Park, opening on Friday of next week and running 50 days through March 8, 1952, will present some of the world's most exciting history lessons pertinent to this wonderful and fabulous Golden State. Santa Anita's outstanding 29 stakes are named for and dedicated to the memory of the famous old Spanish and Mission land grants. Santa Anita's affluent 71 overnight features honor and pay tribute to olden landmarks, noteworthy yearly events, worthwhile exhibits and museums, historic points of interest, the State's celebrated mountains and picturesque valleys, its various parks and unusual streets and highways in and about metropolitan Los Angeles. One hundred commemorative attractions! Plus one hundred exciting races and the spectacle of the nation's most superb race horses winning them! Each one perpetuating the fame of the other!
