Dr. Pyeatt Will Claim Bride on Christmas Day

Christmas nuptials are being planned by Dr. Allan Lee Pyeatt of this city and his fiancée, Imogene Garland Roberts of Los Angeles. The couple will recite their vows at 6:30 in the evening in the presence of 100 guests.

Dr. Pyeatt's brother-in-law, Lt. Commander O. B. Salyer, a Navy chaplain stationed at Bremerton, will arrive to perform the ceremony.

The bride is a daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Leland Stanford Garland of Los Angeles, and the bridegroom's parents are Mr. and Mrs. Leonard E. Pyeatt of 1648 W. 220th street. Mr. Garland will give his daughter in marriage.

Mrs. Mark Hulse of Los Angeles will attend her niece as matron of honor and Dr. Murray R. Grady of Long Beach will serve as best man for the bridegroom.

A reception in the church parlors will follow the ceremony, and subsequently Dr. and Mrs. Pyeatt will leave for a honeymoon in Mexico City. They will be at home after January 3 at 1808 Santa Fe avenue.

Mrs. Nadine Nickol, mezzo soprano, will sing Schubert's "Ave Maria," "Thru the Years" and "The Lord's Prayer."

The bride-to-be and Dr. Pyeatt were high school classmates at Olney, Texas and she attended Tarleton State College, Texas. She will receive her BS degree in June from USC, where she is majoring in secretarial administration.

Dr. Pyeatt attended Texas A&M and North Texas State College and SC, and was gradu-

WARTHANS WELCOME GRANDSON

Special reason for celebrating in the home of the Lloyd C. Warthans Sr., 650 Border avenue, is the arrival of their grandson, Lloyd Carlton Waranth III, born December 14 in San Jose City Hospital.

The baby's father, who had been attached to the police department in San Jose, has been recalled to Army service and is stationed at Ft. Linton, Washington, as a Military Police officer with the rank of second lieutenant.

Mrs. Warthans and the baby will remain with her parents, Mr. and Mrs. J. T. Wayman of San Jose, until she can join her husband at the Washington base.

Marilyn Lee Becomes Bride In Solemn Chapel Rites

Marilyn Josephine Lee, daughter of the Hillman R. Lees of Las Vegas and formerly of this city, became the bride of Richard Terrence Arbenz in a beautiful wedding ceremony performed Sunday afternoon in Shatto Chapel of First Congregational Church, Los Angeles. A reception in the church parlors immediately followed the ceremony.

Dr. George N. Reeves, president of Chapman College, officiated in the presence of 150 wedding guests.

Escorted down the aisle and given away by her father, the bride was radiant in a gown of white satin with lace and tulle overskirt cascading into a chapel sweep train. Her veil of tulle was fingertip length and she carried an arrangement of white carnations and lilies of the valley centered with a white orchid detachable corsage.

Mrs. Leonard C. Richardson (Janet Lee) attended her sister as matron of honor wearing a gown of silver grey tulle fashioned with a blue net overskirt. An arm bouquet of pink carnations complemented her gown.

Miss Martha Phillips was the bridesmaid in blue taffeta designed like the honor attendant's gown, and she also carried pink carnations.

Little Sarah Dianne Lee was flower girl in a replica of the matron's gown and Miss Beth Allen presided over the guest book.

Charles D. Holloway served the bridegroom as best man and ushers were Michael Arbenz, Wayne Snell, and Sergeant Leonard C. Richardson.

The bride attended Torrance schools and was graduated from Las Vegas High School and Chapman College. Her bridegroom received his diplomas from Excelsior Union High School and Chapman College.

Upon their return from a honeymoon trip to Santa Barbara Mr. and Mrs. Arbenz will be at home at 4262 Monroe street, Los Angeles.

William B. Morgan Claims New Mexico City Bride

Of interest here is news of the marriage of William B. Morgan, son of Mr. and Mrs. Homer B. Morgan to Miss Winona English of Las Cruces, N. M. Parents of the bride, Mr. and Mrs. John English, reside near Rosedale, N. M.

The new Mrs. Morgan chose as her wedding attire a suit of cloud grey with which she wore harmonizing accessories and a corsage of gardenias and pink roses.

Mrs. Leslie Russell Hanson Jr. (Betsy Ruth Morgan) of this city, accompanied her parents east to serve as the bride's only attendant. Mr. Morgan attended his son as best man for the simple ceremony which was performed in the rectory of First Baptist Church of Las Cruces.

The couple met when both were students at New Mexico A&M, where the bridegroom is a junior specializing in electrical engineering. He is an officer of the campus ROTC.

The bride is employed in the offices of the White Sands Testing Station in the New Mexico city.

Executives' Wives Are Guests at Kresse Home

Complimenting Mrs. L. F. Dahl of San Francisco, wife of a United States Steel Company executive, Mrs. Otto A. Kresse entertained at luncheon last Wednesday afternoon in her El Prado home.

Guests were wives of Columbia Steel Company executives and others, including: Mesdames James Ashworth of Rolling Hills; John W. Beaman, Torrance; A. L. Chilman, Los Angeles; Harlow L. Dotson, Redondo Beach; Walter Heineman, Los Angeles; Don H. Hyde,

John T. Ousler, and M. J. Sahl, all of Torrance; F. E. Sejelga, Hawthorne; G. W. Wagner, and Paul F. Wittson, Palos Verdes; Carl Warner and Grover C. Whyte, of Torrance.

In anticipation of Christmas Mrs. Kresse chose a seasonal theme for the luncheon motif featuring colored tree ornaments and Christmas bells.
