

Warriors Meet Grant In New Year's Eve Tilt

If the El Camino College basketball players have big New Year's eve parties on tap, they'll miss at least part of them. Before the Warriors can get started celebrating the coming of the year 1952, they have a small matter of a game with Grant Technical College to get out of the way.

Whites Capture Tartar Bowl Flag Football Contest

The Whites have been declared unofficial winners of the Tartar Bowl flag football game played last week under the lights on the high school field.

Although an official score was scheduled to be kept, the scorekeeper got confused when several teams scheduled to compete failed to show up. Last minute switches in opponents caused the scorekeeper's confusion, City Athletic Director Red Moon said.

Participants in the game were teams from the Torrance Flag Football league's midget and junior divisions.

At halftime awards were presented to 19 men for their services as coaches and league officials during the 10-week season. Dr. Rollin R. Smith, a member of the YMCA Board of Directors, presented certificates to the following:

Les Breitenfeld, Jack Hood, Kenneth Ostland, Warren Bennett, V. T. Vanderpool, R. K. Petrat, James Balb, Bill Whitmore, Joseph Camp, Robert Snell, Fred Solis, James J. Mullins, Dick Gresham, Frank Christenson, Bill Ochler, Tony Ordaz, Virgil Brenestahl, Robert Brow and Bob Slepch. Fred Solis, Coach of the Pueblo Hornets, and Tony Ordaz, mentor of the Pueblo Juniors, received trophies on behalf of their teams that won the midget and junior divisions.

High School grid coach Cliff Graybehl presented awards to members of the two championship teams. Awards furnished by the Torrance Sports Boosters Club went to these boys: Joe Rios, Pete Chavez, Paul Martinez, Tony Gasset, Carlos Acosta, Ralph Solis, Richard Camou, Robert Grajeda, Manuel Alvarez, Tony Flores, Arthur Alvarez and Coach Solis of the Hornets, midget loop winners. Just why anyone would schedule a basketball game for New Year's eve is the current $64 question. But, someone did, and the Warriors will tackle the Sacramento club. Whether or not anyone will be in the stands is problematical.

With or without spectators, the game will start at 8 p.m. Yesterday afternoon El Camino began action in the Sam Barry Memorial Tournament at Glendale. They met Los Angeles City College in the opening round.

Depending upon the outcome of yesterday's first round, the Warriors will meet either Fullerton or East Los Angeles in either a championship or consolation round game.

The Grant Tech game will be the second meeting of the two teams. El Camino dumped Grant, 50-48, earlier this month during the Warriors' jaunt to the north.

This will be the final practice game for the Warriors. Coach Tom Bailey's short but spirited crew will open the Metropolitan Conference season on Friday night, January 11, in San Diego.

The following night they will make their home-court conference debut against East Los Angeles Junior College. From then on it will be a steady diet of Metro foes, broken only by a February 12 date with College of the Sequoias on the El Camino floor.

Awards were John Gomez, Richard Gasset, Fidel Herrera, Joe Acosta, Capt. Tony Ordaz, Ray Valencia, Tony Alvarez, Alex Grande, Henry Molinar, Tito Valencia, and Paul Rodriguez.
