

Las Vecinas Club Brings Cheer to Children's Ward

Children at Harbor General Hospital were again made happy at Christmas by Las Vecinas' youth and welfare committees. The youth committee, under direction of Mrs. Lena Howey, chairman, organized the local brownie and Girl Scout troops in the making of stuffed dolls, and puppets, bed slippers, picture cards, material for scrapbooks and the making and filling of Christmas stockings for each child.

Las Vecinas Welfare Committee, under direction of Mrs. Florence Washington, chairman, prepared and delivered to the children's ward: a scooter, dolls, stuffed animals, wood puzzles, yarn, toy bags, games and supplies and equipment for the children's ceramic work. The welfare committee also under-

OES Matrons Initiate at Gay Party

Past Matron Club of Torrance Chapter, Order of the Eastern Star, celebrated the holidays with a delightful party which began with a delicious Chinese dinner served in Ding How Cafe.

At tables set in the private dining room of the cafe, places were arranged for Mesdames Edna Babcock, Frances Buckley, Jeannette Clark, Myrtle Clayton, Lillian Dye, Mildred Edwards, Persia Fess, Hazel Fossum, Estelle Graham, Jean Guyan, Juliette Johnson, May Jones, Billie Kyrber, Helen Miller, Gladys Mothersell, Jean Mosher, Kate Sidebotham, May Sidebotham, Cleora Stanger, Edna Stone, Garnett Satterfield, Lillian Shriner, Lola Mae Tomkins, Naoma Brown Winner, and Vivian Cook, junior past matron member.

The ladies later adjourned to the Beech avenue home of Helen Miller where they were entertained with games. Feature of the evening was initiation of Vivian Cook, junior past matron of Torrance Chapter, into the matrons organization.

Next meeting has been scheduled for January 11 at the home of Mrs. Edna Babcock. Election of officers will be conducted by the president, Mrs. May Sidebotham.

VACATION ENDS

Miss Jeannette Probert will enplane Saturday for Walla Walla, Wash., to resume her duties at Whitman College, where she is a physical education instructor.

Adelle Davis, Nutritionist Engaged for Lecture Series

Torrance Elementary PTA announces the engagement of Adelle Davis, well known nutritionist, for a series of four lectures on the general subject of "Guarding Your Family's Health." Miss Davis will speak Thursday mornings from 9:30 to 11:30 beginning January 10, in the Fern Avenue School auditorium.

All adults interested are cordially invited, as the course is a part of the Adult Education program of the Torrance Unified School District.

Miss Davis has lectured in this area many times in the past few years, with marked interest and well-filled auditoriums. She says, "The health of yourself and your family is a mirror which reflects your intelligence, your efficiency and your cooking methods. With health come beauty, clear thinking, cooperativeness, cheerfulness and freedom from bickering and quarreling, as well as freedom from illnesses and infections. To the mother of such a family come pride of accomplishment and deep satisfaction of a job well done. To the mother comes gratification infinitely more satisfying than she may once have obtained from such trifles as preparing fluffy-textured cake or devitalized white bread. She has shouldered her tasks and has seen to it that good health has come from good cooking."

Miss Davis, now a consulting nutritionist in Pales Verdes, knows her field thoroughly, both through practical experience and extensive professional training.

Christmas activities of the Elementary School PTA included a colorful Christmas pageant which was presented by students and teachers at the regular December meeting. The old, old story was portrayed skillfully and with a spiritual emphasis which public schools are often accused of neglecting. Welfare Chairman Mrs. Bill Martin reports the packing of three Christmas dinners for families whose misfortune had troubled. Each box included meat, canned staples, dessert and toys for the children.

Board members are requested by the president, Mrs. H. E. Cary, to attend the PTA board meeting Wednesday January 9 at 10 a. m. at the home of Mrs. M. A. Bauman, 1504 Post avenue. Plans will then be made for the January meeting, which will be a pot-luck supper on the evening of January 17.

The women are planning to participate in the mass installation of officers to be held in April in Long Beach.

Next meeting has been set for Tuesday evening, January 8, in the YMCA building on Washington avenue.

Trio Rebekah 240 Elects Mary Smith Noble Grand

Mary B. Smith was elected noble grand of Trio Rebekah Lodge No. 240 of Lomita at the annual election meeting held in California hall.

Officers who will serve the lodge next year are Irma Powers, vice grand; Edith Marriott, recording secretary; Dorothy Rogers, financial secretary; Retta Nelson, treasurer and Ada Anderson, who was named trustee for one year.

Noble Grand Leila Sellens opened the meeting with a welcome to several visitors. Dora Rickers, who is a guest of her daughter Mrs. W. J. Schroeder for the winter, was welcomed from the jurisdiction of Nebraska together with Elizabeth Tappin, past president of the jurisdiction of Arizona and guests from Ocean Queen and Compton lodges.

Ruth Jacobs was judged the winner in the recent secret work contest; the auditing committee was invited to meet at the home of the noble grand at 2603 Narbonne avenue Friday night, December 28.

Retta Nelson, president of the Trio Helpers' social club of the lodge, presented a Christmas check of one hundred dollars to the lodge in behalf of the club members, which represented many fund-raising activities throughout the past term.

The holiday spirit prevailed throughout the meeting and so-
