

Hindu Ballet to be Given

Amala, beautiful and exotic dancer, will be among the troupe of Uday Shankar Hindu ballet which will be presented by Moss-Hayman-Wilson February 1 and 2 at Los Angeles Philharmonic Auditorium.

Uday Shankar, an outstanding authority on Hindu culture and art, will present his group in three performances, Friday and Saturday evenings and Saturday afternoon. Also on the Moss-Hayman-Wilson schedule in a one night performance by Antonia Triana and his company of Spanish dances. They will present authentic provincial and folk dances of Spain, February 18. Luisa Triana, Juanita Moreno and Gilda Fontana are featured dancers.

Seats for the two events are available at Philharmonic box office and Mutual ticket agencies.

SIX GIRLS RECEIVE PINS

Six members of Girl Scout Troop 1209 sponsored by Fern Avenue PTA received their first year pins at a meeting last Wednesday in the YWCA. Meses. A. Krauszer, O. O. Clayton and P. Bischoff, co-leaders of the troop, hosted the first anniversary party for 25 girls.

Two Hostesses Give Showers For Mrs. Boles

Two stock showers were given last week in honor of Mrs. Clem T. Boles of 1851 Reynosa drive. Hostess for the first, which took place Wednesday evening, was Mrs. Gilbert Armstrong of Wilmington.

An outdoor clothesline holding baby clothes marked the Armstrong home for the guests. Gifts were presented to the honoree from a yellow and white wishing well, and the same colors were carried out in floral decorations.

Guests included Mrs. B. R. Morris, mother of Mrs. Boles; Mrs. James Munce, sister of Mrs. Boles; Meses. Robert Stewart, Rodney Clarke, Evan Evans, Joseph Kruger, Claude Smart, Delores Thomson and Miss Elizabeth Hitehings.

The affair Friday evening was co-hosted by Mrs. Corwin Jones and Mrs. Jack Butters in the Jones' home, 28145 Falena avenue. A large stock centered the refreshment table and pastel streamers completed the decor.

Guests included Meses. B. R. Morris, James Munce, Wallace Bowles of Compton, Gene Robertson, D. K. Keener, John Brost, George Coward, Jack O. Baldwin, Virgil Bowles, A. Northridge and Miss Marjorie Simmons.

10th District PTA Sets Date for Poster Contest

First prize winners in PTA Council poster contests within the 10th district will vie for final awards in the district competition Monday, February 11, at Health Center Auditorium, 333 West 22nd street.

Mrs. Roger R. Rambeau, district poster chairman, reports that while only first prize winners in the local contests may enter, posters from each of the four classifications are eligible. Judging will be from 9:30 a.m. to 12:30 p.m.

New Officers Installed by Star Mothers

Torrance Memorial chapter, American Gold Star Mothers, installed its 1952 officers recently in American Legion Hall, Redondo Beach with National President Eleanor Boyd of Long Beach presiding.

Edith Erbe of Gardona was installed for her second term as president. Others taking office included Meses. Lillie Streicher, Torrancia and Opal Andrews, Gardona, first and second vice presidents; Phyllis Hamilton of Lomita, secretary and Jeannette E. King, Torrancia, treasurer.

Also inducted by Mrs. Boyd and her assistants from Long Beach were Meses. Orpha Wilson, Redondo Beach; Gertrude Lawson, Torrancia; Cleo Bennett, Torrancia; Regina Cunningham, Torrancia; Helen Smith, Torrancia and Luey Vigil, Redondo Beach. Meses. Smith and Cunningham, both color guards, have held those offices since the chapter was founded.

Refreshments were served following the ceremony and included a large white cake centered with a gold star. Meses. Smith, Cunningham and Streicher were in charge of serving.
