

WEDDING LINKS NAMES OF FOURNIER-WHIPPO

MR. AND MRS. JOHN P. FOURNIER
... Married Sunday

White brocade taffeta covered with nylon net was chosen by Dorothy Marie Whippo of Harbor City for her nuptials Sunday, when she became the bride of John P. Fournier of 2259 Carson St.

The couple exchanged their vows in a three p.m. service at Nativity Catholic Church, with Rev. Edward Sullivan reading the wedding lines. Miss Whippo, given in marriage by Linden Johnson, is the daughter of Mrs. Marie A. Whippo of 1235 252nd St., Harbor City. Her husband's parents are Mr. and Mrs. Domingo Fournier of Argyle, Minn.

With her gown the pretty bride carried a cascade of white carnations, centered with an orchid. Her honor attendant, Mari Lynn Johnson, wore pink brocade taffeta, fashioned after the bridal dress, and carried a cascade of pink carnations. Bridesmaid Mrs. Penny Morrison was attired in cocoa net over chartreuse taffeta, and had a cascade of yellow carnations. Lenny Reid served as best man while guests were seated by Dale Whistler and Don Wright.

Following the ceremony, over 150 friends were received by the couple in the social hall of the church. Roxanne Johnson was in charge of the guest book and hostesses were Mrs. Linden Johnson, Webb Francis, Walter Parr, Robert Jensen and Burt Mayfield.

The newlyweds honeymooned at the Miramar Hotel in Santa Monica and are making their home at 2259 Carson St. A graduate of Narbonne High School, Miss Whippo attended Harbor Junior College where she was president of Alpha Gamma Chi. She is a past honored queen of Lomita Job's Daughters and is employed at Currie's. Her husband, a Columbia Steel Co. employee, attended St. Mary's School in Minnesota and San Diego High School. He served with the Air Force during World War II.

DOROTHY FLAMENGO
... Engagement Revealed

Popular Pair Announce Plans to Wed

The engagement of Miss Dorothy Flamenco to Robert Gazeley of Torrance was announced in the San Pedro home of the bride's parents, Mr. and Mrs. George Flamenco, at a party with only members of the two families present.

A cake bearing the names of the engaged couple was served as they revealed the news that bore no definite wedding date.

The bride-elect is a graduate of San Pedro High School and was named "Miss San Pedro of 1951." While enrolled in high school she was actively engaged in many of the school organizations and was cast as the comedy lead in the senior play "Meet Me in St. Louis." She attended Harbor Junior College and was later employed at Fort MacArthur.

Mr. Gazeley graduated from Narbonne High School, where he was captain of the basketball team, and a letterman in basketball. He was also a graduate of Harbor Junior College, where he was a letterman in basketball, treasurer of the Phi Sigma Epsilon and commissioner of finance for the associated Long Beach State College, where he is a member of Tau Epsilon Rho. He is also on the San Pedro Hawks Basketball roster.

Shirley York Chosen Debonaire Y-Teen Prexy.

Debonaire Y-Teens, a 12th grade group, last week reelected Shirley York for another term as president.

Meeting in the new YWCA building on Wednesday, the girls also elected Donna Fuller, vice president; Marilyn Baer, secretary; Shirley Athley, treasurer; Sue McWald, chaplain and Jackie Johnson, reporter-historian. Karen Ness was chosen to represent the group on the Torrance High Inter-Club Council.
