Walteria PTA Chooses Two Life Members

Walteria PTA presented two life memberships at its meeting last week—one to Mrs. Della M. Armstrong, first president of the Walteria PTA, the other to Mrs. Evar Jansson, historian. C. M. Nestlerode made the presentations, saying the group had chosen Mrs. Armstrong because of her "pioneering and organization of the PTA and continued interest and service to the school and community." Mrs. Jansson was honored for "many years as officer and chairman of both council and local PTAs and work in Girl Scouting."

Mrs. C. W. Johnson, Founder's Day chairman, presented the 12 past presidents, who were honored guests. Other guests were Mrs. A. B. Cowie, Torrance Council PTA president; and Mrs. Grace Wright, member

Manuscript To Be Taught

If people can't read writing and you'd like to learn to print clearly and neatly, a new class offered at Walteria School is just for you!

Sponsored by Walteria PTA, the class will meet every Wednesday evening for six weeks beginning Feb. 27, in the school auditorium. Dale Wickstrom, sixth grade teacher, will instruct.

Classes will be from 7:30 until 9 p.m. and persons may register by calling the school office, Lomita 3034, or attending the first class. A manuscript workbook costing 45 cents will be the only expense.

The program included a skit, "The Children's Rainbow," by children from the school, and a comedy song by Mmes. G. Olding, F. Howsley and M. Willey. Mrs. Fern Springer accompanied the women.

School Bond Voted By PTA

Endorsement of the $3 million dollar school bond was voted by North Torrance Elementary PTA at its meeting Feb. 13 in the school auditorium.

Mrs. Ralph McBee presided, and was presented with an honorary life membership in the association.

An election of a nominating committee took place, with Mmes. Ted Kelly, G. Babby, M. Coats, D. Manginle and M. J. Walker chosen to serve.

Reports were given by Mmes. Harry Van Belchem, finance and budget chairman; Ott Fagnano, parent education chairman and Dale Matson, philanthropy chairman. Their topics were the recent paper drive and another slated for May, the nutrition course at Fern Ave. School and the March of Dimes and forthcoming Red Cross drive.

Mrs. L. Blumfield presented the program which included a candlelight ceremony and a dancing recital by children from North Torrance Elementary School.

Many Enjoy Book Review

Torrance Woman's Club had a large turnout Monday evening for the second of Fanny McEnroe's book review programs sponsored by the club.

Speaking in the clubhouse, Mrs. McEnroe reviewed the new book of homespun philosophy, "Neither Hay Nor Grass" by John Gould; Daphne du Maurier's "My Cousin Rachel" and Emily Kimbrough's latest, "Through Charley's Door."

Giving the reviews her usual dramatic twist, Mrs. McEnroe provided her listeners with a picturesque description of the volumes. "Through Charley's Door," a story depicting life at Marshall Field's during the '20's, received the most thorough treatment. She also recommended other books to her listeners.

Mrs. M. B. Millar headed the refreshment committee, Mmes. Carl D. Steele, J. E. Stavert, J. K. Steinbaugh and John Oursler.

Past Rebekah Officers To Meet Feb. 25th

The monthly business and social meeting of the Past Noble Grand Club of Trio Rebekah Lodge No. 240, will take place in the home of Mrs. Lola Neilson, 1854 W. 257th street, Monday evening, Feb. 25.

Mrs. Margie Russell and Mrs. Dorothy Rogers will be co-hostesses for the day.

Drama Group Adds Members

New members of Thespians, dramatic club at Torrance High School, were initiated Sunday afternoon and feasted at a dinner in the Hollywood home of the parents of D. P. Wedberg, Torrance High drama instructor.

The group met at the school in the afternoon and journeyed to the Wedberg home together. Following dinner they saw the motion picture "Quo Vadis."

New members honored included Diana Davis, Ann Olson, Nancy Ruth Miller, Richard Uglan, Donna Latture, Joan Leech, Sylvia Harper, Ann Stephens, Sandra Pestoff, Jeanette Lopez, Beryl Jones, Bob Hubbard, Hilma Jalo and Ann Flanagan. Mr. and Mrs. Wedberg accompanied the group, as did the Thespians officers, Jim Crowe, president; Dwight Hanna, vice president; Marian McDonald, secretary; and Jo Ann Benard, treasurer.

District Officers of Lodge Visit

Trio Rebekah Lodge No. 240 was honored during the regular business meeting of the lodge Wednesday night when District Deputy President Miss Gertrude Smith and Deputy Marshal Mabel Banks of Eureka Lodge of Los Angeles made their official visit.

The meeting was held in the California Hall.

Mrs. Elizabeth Tappin, past president of the Jurisdiction of Arizona, was escorted to the platform with other guests including Mrs. Nellie Bradford of Denver, Colo. and Mrs. T. Firm of Chicago, Ill.

Instructions were given to the new lodge officers and Mmes. Elizabeth Hunt, Margie Russell and Lurah. Bost were named as the committee to call on the sick for the month of February.

The annual of $25.50 was made by Noble Grand Mrs. Mary B. Smith from a kidnap breakfast held in the home of Mrs. Olive Veatch, and other funds were reported from members who assisted Mrs. Halle Parbois serve the annual Lomita Chamber of Commerce dinner.

St. Valentine's Day with its gay theme was used as a decorative feature and an exchange of valentines was held. Spring flowers and the St. Valentine motif formed the decorations for the attractive tables where refreshments were served by Mrs. Katherine Vash and her committee following the meeting.
