

CHINA AND CUBA . . . Music from many lands highlighted the "aud call" at Torrance High School Monday afternoon when members of Mambolecas, a service club, presented a program of dancing. "Chinito, Chinito" (Chinaman, Chinaman) was the title of the number danced by the three lassies in embroidered silks, left to right, Alice Ybarra, Virginia Seate and Phyllis Alvarez. The lovely young ladies in Cuban costume, Gloria Montijano and Annie Mora, performed the "Mambo 100," a dance originating in the Latin land. (Herald photo).
