Just Like Mail, TAPS Hit Snow

Despite hail, fire or snow, the mail always comes through. And so does the Torrance Police Department. Seventeen girls, all members of the TAPS-Auxiliary Police—were guests of the local crime-stoppers at Knob Hill, in Enchanted Valley (near Crestline) over the weekend. The girls battled snow and ice to get through to their destination and had "a real great time," one related. Chaperones were Police Officers R. E. Wright and his wife, Carol, Officer D. C. Cook and his wife Esther, and Miss Lucille Stroth. In two weeks the male members of TAPS will take the jaunt.

guests met Monday noon at Ding How Cafe, Board of Education member Mrs. Grace Wright presided.

Participating in a panel discussion were Mrs. Dorothy Law of Hollywood Riviera, representing the parents; Charles Wallace, vice principal Torrance High School presenting the secondary educational level opinions; Miss Clara Guetzkow, Torrance Elementary School teacher; and David Fils, school psychologist; Walter Reinholdt, director of instruction, was moderator.

The group, answering questions presented from guests, delved into the problems of "What is discipline" and "The public school and the private school—how does each solve its problems." Because of lack of time, no definite conclusions were reached. The group did agree, however, that discipline is not something which can be nailed down but is a varying standard with every social group.

BOY SCOUTS FETED AT COURT OF HONOR HERE

Boy Scout troops 215 and 315 X held a court of honor in the Moose hall Wednesday night with more than 100 Scouts, parents and friends in attendance. George Powell, assistant director of civil defense, was presented with a 25-year Scouting pin for service to the Boy Scouts. Al Moller, Scout field executive, made the award. Scouts Don Meyer and Tom Marshall were presented with Merit badges. Scout Bob Ross received his senior patrol leader's badge and Scout Dennis Coll his junior assistant Scoutmaster's pin. In addition ten one-year pins were given to Scouts and Scout-commissioners who qualified. Rose won an entire Scout uniform as a prize for selling the most Christmas trees in a fund drive sponsored by the Harbor area. Other tree selling winners were Larry Grimmering and Roger Amble, packtrucks; Larry Lewis, carving knife and Scout axe, and Dennis Coll, flashlight. The court was termed "very successful" by Lynn Dene, troop committee chairman.

NORTH TORRANCE TATTLER

By Mrs. HELENE ALLISON
 ME 42130

The North Torrance Civic Improvement Association meeting and program last Wednesday, March 5th, at McManis Hall will be a long remembered affair. After a short business meeting, the evening was turned over to Sgt. Bob L. Cassullo, Crime Prevention Bureau, Lennox station of the Sheriff's office. Approximately 30 interested parents and school representatives viewed the film, "A Criminal is Born," and heard a most informative discussion of the different phases of the juvenile delinquency problem. The community is greatly indebted to the association for presenting such programs.

The El Nido Parents Association will sponsor a Cub Scout pack, consisting of two dens, for the South Bay District. Charles Craig will serve as Cubmaster, and Mr. Scarper as committee chairman. Mrs. W. A. Wright and Mrs. R. Wilson are den mothers for the pack, and meetings will be held the last Friday of each month, at the El Nido School.

Mrs. Ralph McBee and Mrs. Barton Davidson attended the TEAC meeting Monday at the "Ding How" Cafe.

Just another reminder that Saturday, March 15th, is the date for the Cub Scout paper drive. If you have papers requiring bundling, call Walt Bronson at ME 4245. Mr. Bronson would also like to remind parents the regular meeting for Pack 761 will be held Friday, March 14, at McManis Hall.

Wedding anniversary congratulations are in order for the Walsons on their 10th—March 7—also the Burt Johnsons on their sixth, March 9. Time does fly!

Last Friday evening six couples piled into Dave Dyer's "panel job" and were off to an evening of square dancing, fun and refreshments. Helen and Ed Gomborg of Welteria were hosts to the W. Bronsons, the R. Richters, the D. Dyers, the D. Alford, the H. Blacks, and the C. Bronsons.

A "Come As You Are Breakfast," held Tuesday morning at the home of Mrs. Helen Wood, 17104 Crenshaw Blvd., for the benefit of the Community church circle, proved that styles for this spring surely are different, if nothing else! At any rate the coffee was hot, the biscuits perfect, and we enjoyed the best possible companionship. Who minded a few raised eyebrows as we trailed homeward?

Ten-year-old Billy Wright, of 18328 Roslin Ave., has been a very sick little boy for the past week. Mumps! According to his mother, however, he is now on the up-grade.

There are a good many sore arms in this area this week. County Health Department vaccinated children from kindergarten through the third grades, at the North Torrance School.

Mrs. Sophia Tucker, 17220 Crenshaw Blvd., suffered a severe stroke Sunday morning at her home, and is quite seriously ill. We know all Mrs. Tucker's friends will join us in wishing her a rapid recovery.

The regular monthly meeting of the Community Church Circle met at the home of Mrs. Ann Collins, 17025 Crenshaw Blvd., Monday, March 3. Nine women attended and planned a ham dinner for April 30 at McManis.
