NEW SLATE CHOSEN Mrs. Robert Jackson To Head North Torrance PTA

Mrs. Robert Jackson was elected to govern North Torrance Elementary PTA during the coming year at the unit's monthly meeting, March 12, in the school auditorium.

Chosen to serve with Mrs. Jackson were Mrs. Ott Fagnano, vice-president; Mrs. Harry Van Bellehem, corresponding secretary; Mrs. S. F. Odell, recording secretary; Mrs. M. J. Walker, treasurer; George Ackerman, auditor, and Mrs. R. L. McDonald, historian.

Mrs. Fagnano was selected to be alternate delegate for the San Francisco PTA convention, and 11 delegates were chosen for the 41st Annual First District Convention in Long Beach March 27.

Presiding over the meeting was Mrs. Ralph McBee. C. E. Swell gave a treasurer's report and Mrs. Harry Van Bellehem announced a carnival to be given at the school from 6 until 9 p. m. April 18.

Fathers presented the evening program which included a medley of songs by the Four Corners of Corn. F. Lehr, D. Mc-

Salvage Need Stressed By K. C. Workers

Kate Crutcher Workers of the Children's Hospital in Los Angeles are making an urgent appeal to residents of Torrance and other Southland cities for donations to replenish stock at their Salvage Store, 155 S. Western Ave.

Needed is every sort of salable salvage including furniture, appliances, clothing and accessories for men, women and children, jewelry, books, toys, cooking utensils and other items not in use.

Volunteer workers own and operate the store. Proceeds from the sale of goods goes for care of polio and heart patients at Children's Hospital, as well as for equipment.

Donations may be brought to the store or a store truck may be arranged for by calling Dunlark 7-5244.

FIRST MEETING OF RIVIERA PTA SET

Formation of a PTA unit for the new Riviera School, soon to be completed, will take place April 2 in Seaside School auditorium at 8 p. m.

Hollywood Riviera residents have been bidden to participate in the meeting when officers will be elected and installed and by-laws adopted.

Mrs. Raymond E. Hole has been selected to head the committee planning the details of the organizational meeting. She was chosen last week by an investigating group from the Riviera area which met with officers of the Torrance Council of Parents and Teachers.

Others chosen to serve with Mrs. Hole are Mmes. Frank Bowman, secretary; G. Henry Miller, nominations chairman; Rose Dorsett, by-laws; Jack Satterlee, membership; Jay Kocher and Lee Kendall, issue "Call," and Arlis Wyatt, hospitality.

Annual membership dues of 50 cents paid at this time will apply to the 1952-53 school year, Mrs. Hole announced. She said charter memberships will close April 2.

New Program Ideas Developed In Y-Teen Training Session

A training session for Y-Teen officers followed a potluck supper sponsored by the Y-Teen Inter-Club Council March 6 at the Torrance YWCA.

Craft and game ideas for club use were presented, as well as dramatic readings and devotions. Instruction was given by Lou Ann McFarland, Adele Curtis, Pat Friberg, Pat Merritt, Lou Ann Durant and Ruth Lannan, chairman of the Y-Teen committee.

Donna Fuller was elected Y-Teen representative for the annual meeting committee during the business session. Ruth McDougall and Madeline Goerke were chosen to give invocations at the Torrance annual meeting April 3 and the Harbor Area meeting April 16.

Plans were discussed for a spring dance. Y-Teens are planning to revamp their organizational setup after that of University High School, using a president's council and a vice-president's council and mother-sponsors for individual Y-Teen Clubs.

Representatives at the meeting included Betas: Betty Gyllenskog, Durant, Pat Cleary; Freshmen: Merritt, Connie Walton, Alice Albertson, Friberg, Joan Stewart; Juniors: Carolyn Chapman, Shirley Parrish, Sacha Kawada, Kazuko Hasegawa, Amy Tomura; Debonairites: Patricia Shirley York, Karen Ness; Seaside: Adrienne Keyes, Judy Powell, Jackie Gaida, Ina Mac Sanno, Sandy Merola, Johanna Trainor, Eleanor Faichney; Torridades: McFarland, Norma Ioppa, Mitzi Yasutaki and Curtis. Also present were Mmes. Mary R. Faichney, Joseph Lukes; Misses Nell Colburn and Lannan.

PTA Hears Woman Expert In Guidance

"Parents as Teachers" was the title of an interesting talk given by Mrs. Maude Risinger, guidance counselor supervisor of the Los Angeles Board of Education, at the meeting of 186th St. PTA last Thursday in the school.

During the afternoon business session, Mrs. Claud Hill was re-elected president. The slate chosen to serve with her during the coming year includes Mmes. Ronald Powell, first vice-president; Evaline Gill, second vice-president; B. H. Coltran, secretary; A. B. Pond, treasurer; W. C. Attebery, auditor, and Mrs. W. A. Douglas.

Delegates chosen for the council and 10th District conventions include Mmes. Oliver Lang, Powell, Bill Davis, Coltran, Raymond Abernathy, Samuel Dow and Douglas.

A St. Patrick's Day theme was carried out in decorations by members of the faculty who served as hostesses.

Attendance awards were given Mrs. Helen Morton's room and Mrs. Dorothy Saunders' room.

Names of six women have been added to the YWCA roster since the first of the year. Included are Mrs. Ruth Porter, Mrs. Hannah Armagost, Miss Jean Lancaster, Miss Mary Roden, electoral members; Mrs. Marion Louis Gadal, Bill Davis, Raymond Lukes and Miss Lourdez Dano.

Customers' Corner

We take off our hat to Mother! Maybe it's true that it's Dad who pays, but from experience we can assure him his money is in good hands when Mother buys the groceries.

For Mother, without doubt, is America's greatest purchasing agent. She knows what she likes and wants. And at A&P we make it our business to see she gets it. If she doesn't, we'd like to know about it—and the reason why. Hoorah for Mother—and Dad, too.
