First Christian Church Plans Outdoor Services Easter Sunday

Outdoor services on the church's new property at the corner of Eldorado St. and Maple Ave. in Torrance Plaza next Easter Sunday were announced yesterday by Rev. C. J. England, pastor of the First Christian Church.

The services, which will open at 9:30 a. m., will be offered to residents of Torrance Gardens and Torrance Plaza, most of whom are new in the city. Rev. England said. He emphasized that any one is welcome to attend.

The church choir, directed by Charles Bartholomew, will provide the music for the service. Miss Janet Foh will play the organ. Rev. England will deliver the Eastern sermon.

There will be plenty of seats for everyone and a good public address system will make it possible for all to hear well the entire service of worship, the pastor said.

The committees preparing for the service include the decoration committee, Mrs. Walt Levy, Mrs. K. D. Figgins, Mrs. Fredie Smith, Mrs. Joe Lukes, Mrs. William Walsmith and Mrs.

Hugh Rood. The committee on arrangements includes Fred Lincoln, Earl Eckert, Hugh Rood, Freddie Smith and Howard Huizing. The ushering committee will be headed by Gordon Walker, chairman of the board of deacons. Flowers for the service are being donated through the courtesy of the Galleria Florist of Torrance.

The second church service will be held in the church at Arlington and Engracia at 10:50 a. m. All are welcome to attend. There will be a nursery for small children during this service.

The choir of the church will present the Easter cantata, "The Seven Last Words," on Easter Sunday in the church sanctuary at 4 p. m. Charles Bartholomew, the director, announces the following soloists: Nancy Prime, Helen Levy, Howard Foster, Dean Lougee, Linn Branum, Margaret Foster and Joe Lukes. The public is cordially invited to attend this service.

The church will have a baptismal service in the evening at 7:30. The new members of the church will be received at this time.

Cpl. Mescheder Wins Combat Infantry Badge

Cpl. Charles L. Mescheder, 1642 W. 208th St., was recently awarded the Combat Infantryman Badge, symbol of the front line fighting man, while with the 40th Infantry Division in Korea.

The badge shows a miniature Revolutionary War flintlock rifle mounted against a blue rectangle. A silver wreath extends across the bottom and up the sides of the badge.

The 40th, from Southern California, was the first National Guard division to arrive overseas after the start of the Korean War. The unit trained for 16 months in Japan before it was committed to Korea in January. Corporal Mescheder is a member of Company F in the 160th Infantry Regiment.

Housewife Offers Suggestion to Voters For Getting Everyone Out to the Polls

Editor,
The Torrance Herald:
I am a homemaker with a few words to say. I am an eligible voter but have never done so before. The main reason being that we have three children and no baby sitter. We have no family here, and our friends have their own children to care for.
Today most of the grandmas hold down a full-time job and three children, one not yet a year old, is too much for a teenager.

There must be many people who for this reason and others never get to the polls. Wouldn't it be worth the candidates' time to start a "Help your neighbor to the polls" campaign?

I would be glad to watch other children on election day if someone would watch mine for an hour so that I could vote.

A huge car pool could be formed for one day. Many people have no transportation. If the many men's and women's clubs in Torrance got behind such a move, we could get everyone to the polls.

If it worked out, the same plan could be used in the presidential election. We need to show the world with "action," not "words," that we love our country. The ballot in the BOX is one good way to do this.

Reader Lauds The Torrance Herald After Reading First Sunday Issue

Editor,
The Torrance Herald:
It was indeed with pleasure and pride that I opened and read the first Sunday edition of the Torrance Herald, certainly the most concise and well-planned newspaper of its size that I have seen.

Having been a citizen of Torrance for approximately one year and having enjoyed my time here to the extent of wanting to remain here the rest of my life, it is only natural to look forward to each and every progress put forward by its businessmen.

You are to be commended for your newest civic endeavor. Good luck!

Sincerely,
WILLIAM H. SKILES
