Have all you other mothers noticed how restless the little ones are without school to break up part of their day? Jack and Jill are home with the rest of the children for Easter week, and their constant remark is: "What can we do next?" To gether with a frantic sort of in-and-out action at the front and back door, their restlessness is enough to make a strong man cry. Naps seem to do little good except for the hour's lull in their daily carousel. As my husband says: "And they look like such little angels when they're finally asleep in their beds at night."

Community endeavors of Holywood Riviera reach another new peak next Sunday, April 20, with the first Sunday School meeting at El Retiro Park clubhouse. Designed to be interdenominational, the Sunday School will be sponsored by the Community Methodist group and will be in session every Sunday from 9:30 until 10:30 a. m.

Planning, which was started previous

Up Hill and Down Dale: Riviera has been busy the past Easter Week entertaining friends and relatives or taking trips themselves. In this category, we have Al Winterholler, brother of Mrs. Lydia Showalter, 242 Via Alameda, on leave of absence from his job in Venezuela, South America. . . . He has been visiting in the states for two months and has been with his sister and brother-in-law Dee for the past two weeks. . . . Lydia and Dee also received a surprise visit from her mother, Mrs. Marie Winterholler, and her other brother and his wife, Col. and Mrs. John Winterholler, USMC. . . . They stayed with the Showalters over the Easter holidays; quite a household. Marge and Clark Chittick, 516 Calle de Arboles, are entertaining former neighbor Betty Lee Keele and her two sons, Kenny and Lyman. . . . Betty Lee and sons flew in from Chicago last Thursday to be with the Chitticks over the holiday. Mrs. A. J. Wyatt, 809 Calle de Arboles, and her son Johnny flew to Chicago to await the arrival of the Easter bunny and visit friends while there. . . . Johnny had the mumps just before they left and the trip was delayed several days waiting for him to recover. Over at 804 Calle de Arboles, Betty Koelker and son Eric are visiting friends Betty and Ed Daniels in Palo Alto. Evelyn and Harris Moore, 605 Calle de Arboles, went down to the desert to look at the wildflowers, over the holiday. . . . Pre-trip planning called for visiting Joshua Tree National Park and Box Canyon. Marge and Frank Brennan, 609 Calle de Arboles, did a little of the same thing, but in a separate party. . . . They had the Joshua National Park on their visiting list, too. Faire and Bill Stewart's son, Tom, 514 Calle de Arboles, made a trip to Acapulco, Mexico, to have a wonderful vacation there with friends. . . . Quite a trip for a 15-year-old lad. Suzanna and Henry Ure, 924 Calle Miramar, took a small second honeymoon to Palm Springs. . . . They stayed at the Normandy Village and while resting by the pool had the mirthful honor of watching Jerry Lewis fish his fully clad 7-year-old son out of the pool. San Francisco's St. Francis Hotel had the pleasure of hosting for guests Beverly and James Philpott, 948 Calle Miramar, this month. . . . The trip was strictly for pleasure, for which San Francisco is noted.

Mrs. J. S. Edwards of England arrived last week by plane to spend a few months with her daughter and son-in-law, Patricia and Paul Szecey of 246 Paseo de Granada. Mrs. Edwards' home in England is at Harrow, site of one of England's most famous boys' schools. She is here to be with her daughter through the birth of her grandchild, due the latter part of this month.

They saw fighter planes and huge bombers take off and land. They talked to the airman who flew the big machines. They
