

North Torrance PTA Sets Out Welcome Mat for Gay Time

Pennies, dimes and quarters, jingling on the campus of North Torrance Elementary School tomorrow evening will provide fun for all present and benefit an excellent cause—the Dental Clinic.

To raise money for this worthy PTA undertaking, the North Torrance PTA unit is sponsoring an old-fashioned carnival from 7 p. m. until 9 p. m. Mothers, teachers and youngsters are all joining together to make it an event long remembered in Torrance history.

Complete arrangements for the carnival have been made by Mrs. Harry Van Bellehem, PTA finance and budget committee head and general chairman of the event.

Mrs. West Kelly is in charge of the Goody Shop and the intriguing Country Store, which will offer fresh eggs, homemade doughnuts, children's clothes, linens and ceramics. It is under the direction of Mrs. R. L. McDonald and Mrs. Francis Stockle.

Visitors' appetites will be whetted by juicy hotdogs sold at the booth run by Mrs. M. J. Walker and Mrs. Barton Davidson. Entertainment will, of course, be the highlight of the evening. A rodeo will be given under the direction of Donald Mulaney; George Ackerman is going to show a movie, and youngsters in the school will present a variety show under the direction of L. Jones and Ethel Gill.

THE NEWS IS OUT . . . Hammer and nails helped spread the good word of the North Torrance PTA Carnival by posters put up at the school. Even the youngsters are helping to assure the success of the Dental Clinic benefit event. Terry Baker, center, of 16509 S. Wilkie Ave. holds up the sign while Bobby Wyatt of 3223 W. 187th St. pounds a few nails into it and Ikuko Kato of 18357 Crenshaw Blvd. gives feminine assistance. The boys and girls will take part in a variety show tomorrow night. Bobby plays the trumpet, Terry tap dances and Ikuko makes music on her violin. (Herald photo).

Happy Finale to Story
Of Two Marines in Love
This is a story with a happy ending. The Marines landed Saturday in Hollywood Riviera, and because of the generosity and kindness of one family on Calle Mayor, a new bride and groom are en route to Chicago.

Pfc. Jack Forrester of the USMC Classification Center in San Diego had a buddy, also of the Marines. This friend, Sgt. William J. Kromling, was released from active duty last week and wanted to marry his fiancée, Florice Johnson of Michigan, before he returned to the Middle West.

Miss Johnson is a Leatherneck, too, and won't be officially out of uniform for several months. Neither has any family on the West Coast, and the problem was where to repeat the important nuptial vows.

Private Forrester called upon his brother-in-law and sister, Mr. and Mrs. C. W. Key of 416 Calle Mayor, who offered their home for the wedding.

Mrs. Key contacted her minister, Dr. J. K. Stewart of Beverly Vista Community Church in Beverly Hills and he arranged his time so that he could come to Hollywood Riviera to officiate. Arrangements were made for flowers by Mrs. Key, and she called upon other Riviera neighbors to help with plans. She baked a cake and Mrs. Henry C. Miller of 175 Via Las Miradores created an elaborate effect with icing. The wedding came about early Saturday evening, though some-
