

PREPARE FOR FLOWER SHOW... Pointers of judging prize-winning flora are explained to members of the WSCS of Waleria Methodist Church by John R. Bauman of the Palos Verdes Bogonia Farm...

Mrs. E. Hagan, member of the committee on arrangements, and Mrs. William F. Burgener president of the Waleria WSCS. Clubs and individuals from the Harbor and South Bay areas will enter arrangements and blossoms in the show tomorrow evening between 5 and 10 p.m.

OFF TO SACRAMENTO... Their suitcases packed and loaded into the luggage compartment of the car, these three women will set forth today on a motor trip to Sacramento where they will attend the 1952 State Convention of California Federation of Business and Professional Women's Clubs.

SAM LEVYS FETED BY FAMILY, FRIENDS ON ANNIVERSARY

Thirty-five years of wedded happiness were celebrated Tuesday evening by Mr. and Mrs. Sam Levy of 1503 El Prado. The Levys, both well known in Torrance civic and social circles, have made their home in Torrance for 33 years.

Mr. and Mrs. Levy exchanged their nuptial vows in Los Angeles in May of 1917. Many members of their family from Los Angeles gathered in the Levy home Tuesday for a party feting the couple. Also hidden were a few intimate friends from Torrance.

The party was arranged by the Levys' two daughters, Mrs. Harold (Norma) Greene of Beverly Hills, and Mrs. Eddie (Ella) Schwartz of Torrance.

Nurses Tell Date of Branch Meet

The May meeting of District 54, local branch of the California State Nurses Association will be held at the Centinela Hospital, Inglewood on Tuesday evening, May 20 at 7:30 o'clock.

Mrs. Marian Lass, R. N., assistant director of the CSNA, will be the guest speaker for the evening. The subject of her talk will be "Group Insurance and the Multiple Choice Program."

As both subjects are of the utmost importance to members of the CSNA, all are urged to attend this meeting and take

The Social World MARJIE MEYER—Editor

South Bay B'nai B'rith Women To Induct New Slate at Dance

For the third consecutive year, South Bay B'nai B'rith Women will have a spring dinner-dance, this year on Sunday evening, May 18, at Palos Verdes Country Club.

Alberto Marrazzo, his accordion and orchestra, will provide music and entertainment. Novelty favors will be provided for each guest.

During the evening Mrs. Murray Rosenfeld, newly elected president, will be installed by Mrs. David Harris and Mrs. Yetta Stubin from B'nai B'rith Grand Lodge of District 4.

Others who will be inducted with Mrs. Rosenfeld are Mmes. David Scher, Bernard Yeskin and

GATHER IN CAPITAL State BPW Parley Opens Tomorrow in Sacramento

Delegates from the 245 clubs that comprise the California Federation of Business and Professional Women's Clubs will attend the 1952 State BPW Convention which opens officially tomorrow in Sacramento.

Representing the Torrance BPW Club are Mrs. Zada Ramsey, president; Miss Lucille Stroh, president-elect; and Mrs. Margery King, appointee of the president-elect.

Tomorrow noon the Torrance women will join others from throughout the state at a luncheon, when two BPW-sponsored candidates for the State Assembly, Misses Dorothy M. Donahoe and Evelyn Whitlow will be presented.

Tomorrow evening they will hear J. Roger Deas of San Francisco manager of the public information service of American Can Co. speak on "The Feminine Touch in Business."

Workshops under the direction of Mrs. Dorothy Olsen program coordinator, will be conducted tomorrow on education and vocations, finance, health and safety, international relations, legislation, membership, news service, public affairs and radio and television.

Theme of the convention is "Partnership for Freedom." Dr. Dorothy Patterson of Sacramento is state president, and Mrs. Marie Green of Sacramento is heading the convention committee.

New officers will be elected Saturday. Unopposed candidate for president is Mrs. Ivy A. Grace of Hollywood, formerly of Torrance, and this year the first vice president of the state organization.

Candidates for the other offices are Mrs. Kathryn A. Maloney of San Francisco, first vice pres-

Shower Fetes Mrs. Franzen

An umbrella trimmed in pink and white contained many gifts for Mrs. Frank Franzen last Thursday when she was guest of honor at a luncheon and personal shower hosted by Mrs. Paul V. Jones of 2030 Cabrillo Ave.

During the party the honoree received a corsage of pink and white flowers from her husband. The pink theme was further carried out in the bouquets of roses placed about the house.

Places at the luncheon table were laid for Mmes. Vincent Viellenave, Perry Connert, Ray Lougee, Henry Pupkoff Sr., Howard Lander, Dame Walker, Harold Strohm, Lillian Dye, Melvina Beckwith and Art Barnett.

Bobby Eipper Celebrates

A large wishing well filled with gifts centered the dining table of Mr. and Mrs. James Burchett, 1507 El Prado, Sunday afternoon when they gave a birthday party for their nine-year-old grandson, Bobby Eipper.

Guests gathered about while Bobby opened his gifts, and joined for dinner and games. Places were set for Mr. and Mrs. Robert Eipper, parents of the birthday celebrant; his brother, Dickie; Mr. and Mrs. Robert Walters and their children, Susan and Bobby, and James Burchett Jr.

BETSY ROSS CLUB

Betsy Ross Club OES will meet Tuesday, May 20, at the home of Mrs. Estelle Des Jardins, 2116 25th St., Lomita, for a potluck luncheon at 12:30. Coffee will be served by the hostess.

WAR BRIDES CLUB TO BE ORGANIZED

War brides from many lands will be given an opportunity of getting acquainted by the formation of a new International War Brides Club for residents of Torrance, Gardena, Compton, Long Beach and other Harbor towns.

The club will have its initial meeting Saturday, May 24, at 7 p.m. in the lounge of Compton Community Center, 123 1/2 North Rd. Persons interested in obtaining more information about the group may call Mrs. John T. Denney, Menlo 4-8436.

Littlefield To Address Garden Club

Torrance Terrace Garden Club will hear a talk by Joe Littlefield, one of the Southland's foremost garden authorities, during its May 28 meeting at the home of Mrs. Carl Hood, 1433 W. 21st St., it was announced yesterday.

Mr. Littlefield, famous for his practical, down-to-earth gardening advice, will discuss "Landscaping ideas for the Small Home."

A regular contributor to leading gardening magazines, Littlefield has had 25 years of "dirt-under-the-fingernails" gardening experience.

"Gardening is all a matter of simple, regular, periodic follow-through on a few important fundamentals," he says. The meeting will get under way at 12:30 p.m.

Waleria Paper, Rag Collection Is Today

A paper and rag drive will be conducted at Waleria Elementary School today from 8:30 a.m. until 7:30 p.m., and prizes will be awarded rooms totaling highest points.

Students in the eighth grade will assist Mrs. Bruce Howay and Mrs. Glen Hurdcasto, ways and means chairman, with weighing, measuring and accounting. PTA members will also assist.

Get Benson Hi Style... Get Benson Smartness Get Benson Low Prices... at Benson's with...

...on BENSON'S Terrific Values!

with 4 Months to pay

Regular $24.95

Toppers

Smart checks, all wool fleeces and suede cloth in a wide selection of styles and colors at the year's lowest price! Hurry!

$15

JOIN THE BALLOT BATTALION—VOTE!

MRS. MURRAY ROSENFELD... B'nai B'rith Head

Ralph Klein, first, second and third vice presidents; Mack Brown, treasurer; Alfred Rodison, recording secretary; Leonard Weinfeld, corresponding secretary; Yetta Airew, sentinel; Martin Udell, guardian; William Brodsley, financial secretary and Bernard Robinson, counselor.

Chosen to serve on the board of trustees are Mmes. Steve Brodie, chairman; Earl Erdman, Nathan Lowe, Sam Raphaelson, Robert Firstman and Morton Hattam.

GOLD STAR MOTHERS BIDDEN TO REDONDO

Torrance Memorial chapter of American Gold Star Mothers will be entertained Tuesday, May 20, by the auxiliary to Redondo Beach American Legion. Dinner and program for the honored guests will begin at 6:30 p.m., and the Gold Star Mothers will dispense with their regular meeting.

Members of the chapter were guests of the auxiliary to the Fort S. Crossland Legion Post in Torrance last Tuesday evening. Dinner was served, and tables were cleverly decorated for the occasion.

forever young

New Arrivals Daily

NYLON FROCKS

Smartly designed for shorter women. They make you a little taller, a lot slimmer... and happier with the good taste and good fit of these really inexpensive dresses.

Model shown is a cool white print or navy or black. Rhinestone-lit buttons. Slant pockets and inverted pleat for the slim hip look—

Sizes 12 to 20 - 14 1/2 to 24 1/2

$8 95

1319 SARTORI TORRANCE

Advertisement for Howards Jewelers featuring a diamond ring and a woman in a dress. Text includes 'IT'S AN OLD CUSTOM IN A NEW SETTING', 'Modern, 14K gold engraved duet.', 'HOWARDS JEWELERS', '1503 Cabrillo - Torrance', and 'Join Our Budget Club. No Down Payment. Five Months to Pay!'.