

'Farewell', Friends Say To Germany-Bound Mrs. Leitner

Surprise greeted Mrs. Joe Leitner, 2108 Dominguez Ave., as she prepared to board a plane for Germany Tuesday evening.

Waiting for her at Mike Lyman's on the flight deck of the Los Angeles International Airport were 25 relatives and friends who had gathered for a farewell dinner. Mrs. Bernice Jackson planned the surprise for her mother.

"Happy Landing to Our Mother" was inscribed on the dessert cake, gay with a spray of yellow roses and delicate blue for-get-me-nots.

Guests waved goodbye to Mrs. Leitner at 8:45 standard time that evening. She was due to arrive in her hometown, Munich, Friday, after stopping one day in Hamburg.

The popular Torrance woman will visit two brothers, a sister, and many close friends during her three-month stay in Germany. Most of her time will be spent in Munich, with short trips to Berchtesgaden and Graz, Austria.

She will leave Germany on Sept. 16 and expects to be at home again in Torrance the following day.

Guests at the surprise dinner before her departure were Messrs. and Mesdames P. W. Metzler and daughter Barbara of Gardena; Lyle Warthan and A. L. Jackson, Torrance; Chris Dobrick and Mrs. Ginsler, Redondo Beach; and a number of girls who worked with her at a variety store in San Pedro.

Mrs. Leitner made the same trip to Munich three years ago. At that time her visiting list included another brother and sister who died early last April.

Brother Visits F. Cooper
Mr. and Mrs. Fred E. Cooper, 1225 Beech Ave., now have as a guest in their home his brother, Mr. Sam Cooper, Mr. Cooper is in Torrance for an indefinite stay from his home in Medicine Hat, which is located in the western part of Canada.

Highlighting his visit will be a two-week holiday with his hosts at Twin Lakes.

Garner Has Tokyo Post
Airman First Class Bill Garner, son of Mr. and Mrs. John R. Garner, 803 Amapola Ave., has been transferred from Travis Air Base to Otata Air Base, located just out of Tokyo, Japan. He is a senior ammunition specialist there.

Quiet Rites Unite Scott, Fresno Man

A wedding of interest to many Torrance residents took place in Fresno recently when Mrs. Virginia Buxton Scott was united in marriage with Mr. Benjamin John Everett of that city.

Ceremony was witnessed at 6 p.m., Saturday, June 21, in the home of Mr. and Mrs. Benjamin John Everett, Jr., by members of the immediate families.

Mrs. Scott was attended by her sister, Mrs. Walter E. Schlick of Tempepe City. Best man for the groom was his son, Mr. Benjamin John Everett, Jr.

The bride chose an informal gown of dusty pink Chantilly lace with silver accessories. Three Cymbidium orchids were her corsage.

A wedding dinner followed the ceremony.

Mr. and Mrs. Everett are waiting in Fresno now for passports prior to an airplane honeymoon trip to Europe. Upon their return they will reside in Fresno.

Mrs. Everett is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Bronson Chapin Buxton, 1500 El Prado, Torrance.

Mr., Mrs. Howard Hudson Honeymoon at Las Vegas

A Las Vegas, Nev., setting joined Mrs. Peggy Almond, 1416 Acacia St., and Howard Hudson, 7541 McGroarty St., in wedlock Saturday afternoon.

The new Mr. and Mrs. Hudson spent three days in Las Vegas, then traveled to Lake Tahoe for a brief holiday. They will make their home in Tule, Calif., near Glendale.

Mrs. Almond, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Howard Rose, Culver City, chose a navy blue suit trimmed in pink and pink and navy accessories for her wedding day.

Her matron of honor, Mrs. Parke Montague, selected a navy suit with white trim and matching accessories. Mr. Montague was best man.

Other members of the wedding party were Messrs. and Mesdames Dick Bache, Redondo Beach; William Wall and Bob Longest, Manhattan Beach.

Prior to her marriage, the bride was honored on two separate occasions with a buffet dinner and miscellaneous shower.

Mr. and Mrs. Robert Almond opened their home, 1625 Cota Ave., to fete his sister and her fiancé at a buffet dinner. Those attending were Mrs. Tom Moore, bride's sister-in-law visiting from Mississippi; Mr. and Mrs. Harold Chaney, Palos Verdes; Charles Schultz, Jr., the honored couple, and hosts.

Pastel pink and white flowers decorated the home of Mrs. Parke Montague for a miscellaneous bridal shower honoring Mrs. Almond. White magnolias flanked by matching candles graced the living room mantel, and pink and white stock accented the buffet table.

Cakes were decorated with the same pink and white color scheme. Each guest received a favor, a packet of rice tied with a white wedding bell on which were inscribed the names of the engaged couple and the wedding date.

Thirteen Enter Club Of Moose

Thirteen Torrance women are new members of the Women of the Moose since initiation rites held Wednesday evening. The ceremony was presented in honor of outgoing Senior Regent Billie Heiman.

New members are Betty McCutcheon, Elissa Funke, Louise Moreland, Marceline Ragland, Marguerite Baudin, Gay Romershouser, Carrie Clark, Helen Wiseman, Zola Livingston, Lotta Weber, Fern Nicolai, Paul Powell, and Edna Giles.

New officers will be installed today at 2 p.m., Torrance Civic Auditorium. "It will be an open meeting and guests are welcome," said Mrs. Heiman.

Each candidate for initiation received a lovely corsage and a copy of the new chapter year book at Wednesday's ceremony.

Mrs. Leona Shiffer was given the membership prize for bringing in the most candidates by Elsie Powell, membership chairman.

Certificates of award were presented by Mooseheart Chairman Eleanor Fritz, Homemaking Chairman Cora Hill, Alumni Chairman Jessie McCormick, and Ritual Chairman Leona Shiffer to members of their committees.

Coffee and cake were served following initiation. Mrs. Powell was refreshment chairman. This was the last meeting of the chapter year.

RAINBOW RITES INSTALL LAS VECINAS OFFICERS

Installation of new officers marked the year's closing meeting of Las Vecinas, held Thursday at the Redondo Beach Woman's clubhouse.

New officers are Mrs. Max Webber, president; Mrs. David Hurford, first vice-president; Mrs. Morrison Hornbeck, second vice-president; Mrs. John Kirby, recording secretary; Mrs. Peter Jurisich, corresponding secretary; Mrs. Robert Simmons historian; Mrs. Robert Pinkney, treasurer; and Mrs. Frank Hanover, parliamentarian.

New committee heads are Mrs. Leonard Doyle, membership; Mrs. Paul Howey, youth; Mrs. Earl Schas, community projects; Mrs. Paul Roettger, welfare; Mrs. Joseph Mulqueen, ways and means; Mrs. Alexander Hunt, publicity.

Mrs. Pierce Venable, chairman of the nominating committee, was in charge of the afternoon program. She was introduced by Mrs. Frank Hanover, retiring president, after a short business session.

Preceding the installation ceremony, Misses Mickey Van De Venter, pianist of Torrance, and Ann Flanagan, vocalist of Redondo Beach, presented several musical selections.

A floral arrangement in the shape of rainbow arching to a pot of gold which represented the rewards of a well-run club was installation theme. Mrs. Agnes Wright of Redondo Beach, installing officer, thanked Mrs. Hanover for her work as past president, then handed each of the new officers scrolls colored in the shades of the rainbow.

Flower decor was done by Mrs. Quentin Johnson, while Mrs. Morrison Hornbeck was the committee chairman. Mesdames Paul Howey and Earl Sachs served at the refreshment table.

Anniversary Celebration

Adolf Lynns, New Torrance Residents Fete Golden 50th

Fifty golden years of wedded happiness made Wednesday evening an event long to be remembered by Mr. and Mrs. Adel Lynn, parents of Mr. Bert Lynn, 1208 Greenwood Ave. Mr. and Mrs. Lynn, who have just moved from Mt. Vernon New York, to 2666 Torrance Blvd., celebrated the golden anniversary with dinner at the Biltmore Bowl in Los Angeles.

They have lived in New York during the 50 years of their married life and moved to California now to be near their four sons and seven grandchildren, all of whom reside in this area.

About 30 relatives and close friends joined the honored couple for the anniversary occasion.

Before dinner, guests gathered at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Howard Lynn, 607 N. June St., Los Angeles, for a cocktail hour. The honoree chose a navy blue lace gown with matching accessories. Her corsage, gift of grandson, Brian, son of the Bert Lynns, was of gold Cymbidium orchids.

High spot of the affair was the spotlight on the honored couple as the anniversary cake, three tiers high and a glitter with gold leaf, was carried in. The smiling bride and groom of 50 years then led "The Anniversary Waltz."

Helping to make the evening a memorable one were their sons, Mr. and Mrs. Leslie Lynn of Pasadena and daughter, Kathie, the Howard Lynns and daughters, Constance and Leonore; the Bert Lyns, Mr. and Mrs. Adolf Lynn, Jr., of Culver City. Special surprise guests were Mr. and Mrs. Robert Hall, close friends who flew from Darien, Conn., for the celebration.

Other friends attending were Messrs. and Mesdames Sam Levy of Torrance; Sam Presser, Isadore Spitz, Sam Schapiro, Jack Harrison, and Mrs. Charles Levitt and daughter, Mary Louise of Los Angeles; Mrs. Peter Kahn, Jr., of Brentwood.

TAKE A BIG BITE . . . Mrs. Adolf Lynn feeds her husband of 50 years a piece of cake at an anniversary celebration held Wednesday in the Biltmore Bowl. Watching the fun are their children, left to right, Mr. and Mrs. Leslie Lynn, Mrs. Bert Lynn, Mr. and Mrs. Adolf Lynn, grand daughter Kathie Lynn, and Mr. Bert Lynn.
