

ELABORATE RITES JOIN YONEKO TAKAKI, YATA

The elaborate Buddhist Church in Gardena provided a distinctive setting Sunday for the marriage of two Torrance young people, Yoneko Takaki and Koji Yata.

Following the impressive ceremony, performed by the Revs. Osada and Nagatomi at 3 p.m., 300 guests congratulated the just-weds at a reception held in the church.

Honeymoon journey was made by the bride, attired in a navy blue suit with white orchid corsage, and her new husband to San Francisco. They were to return yesterday to make their home with the bridegroom's mother, Mrs. Naka Yata, 3666 Garpet St.

Parents of the bride are Mr. and Mrs. Masagoro Takaki, 23114 S. Vermont Ave. She is a graduate of Narbonne High School.

Double-rite ceremonies were performed at an altar beautified by white glads, stock, dahlias, and pom pom chrysanthemums. Traditional "Always," played by Miss Hidoko Nagatomi, pianist, set a romantic scene for the affair.

White nylon lace with a nylon net veil held in place by a seed pearl cap with nylon frills lent a summertime grace to Miss Takaki for this important day in her life. She carried a bouquet of white orchids and was given in marriage by her father.

Bridal attendants wore gowns which created a distinctive color scheme.

Miss Sally Kuriyama, maid of honor, carried purple-rose roses to complement her nylon lavender costume, while Joy Yata, bridesmaid and sister of the groom, wore pale chartreuse
