Republicans Urged To Attend GOP Club Meet

To promote the election of the Eisenhower-Nixon-Finch Republican ticket in November, a new organization to be known as the Republican Club of Torrance is being formed with the initial meeting scheduled for Monday evening.

All Republicans are urged to attend the meeting, which is called for 8 p.m. in the Fern Avenue School auditorium.

Officers for the new group will be elected at the meeting. Especially urged to attend are persons who can serve as precinct captains and block workers.

The aim of the group is to work with the 68th District Republicans in intensifying the campaign for the three Republican candidates in this area.
