They "wanta go" and go they will; and how we love the Dogs for it! Wherever little master may go, there they will follow, or even run on ahead where they are sure he is moving. What a fine lesson for us human followers of the Great Master! Can we be as unquestioning in our devotion as they are?

He will be in the place of worship come next Sunday; shall we hurry to follow Him there? Our Lord will be in the house of pain and suffering and sorrow; shall we hasten to speak our word of cheer and of comfort? He will be at the side of the man who is daring to support the good cause in our community; shall "we wanta go" with him there and be counted, too?

What a blessed Lord we have in Jesus Christ! What a loving God speaks to us through this Son of His love! Do we not know that if we follow Him we shall be safe? Do we love Him as much as the puppies love their human friend and master? Does our Leader merit full obedience and complete trust? Let's say, whenever we see Him on the road, "We wanta go!" I'll go where you want me to go, dear Lord; I'll say what you want me to say.

Good news for the community this week came in the form of the announcement that a new Girl Scout troop is being started in the Pacific Hills area for the intermediate girls. The intermediate troop takes girls from the ages of 10-12. Sponsor for the group is Mrs. Betty Joslin, and co-leader is Mrs. Jane Wrigley, both of Danaha St. The committee which has volunteered to help with the group is Mrs. Victor Dana, Mrs. Neva Wands, Mrs. Josephine Mills, and Mrs. Pauline Welsh. The troop will be started as soon as organization can be completed. All those who have daughters interested in the group can obtain all necessary information by calling Mrs. Joslin at LO-2124, or Mrs. Wrigley at LO-566-W. The troop can accommodate up to 24 girls. May we give these women a vote of thanks for undertaking the responsibility of starting and maintaining this much-needed troop.

Torrance Cooperative Nursery School is well on its way to becoming a reality since the second meeting Tuesday, according to Mrs. Maurice Hatten, temporary chairman. Working committees are now functioning to interview a nursery school director, prepare by-laws, procure equipment, and settle on a suitable location, she said. Plans are that participating parents in the program will enroll in an adult education course under the Torrance school system. These evening classes will be concerned with child guidance and nursery school techniques. Mothers will help the director supervise the 9 to 12 morning hours of the nursery school, and fathers will help maintain equipment. "This is a community project in its truest sense," said Mrs. Hatten. "It is open to all but will by necessity be restricted in size. Parents concerned with the welfare of their pre-school children will find this program a real opportunity. Fees will be kept at the necessary minimum to meet expenses."

Next meeting of the group will be Thursday at 8 p. m. at the home of Mrs. Hatten, 820 Maple St. Additional information may be obtained by calling Torrance 2834-J or 2157-J.
