

FIRST STEP TO SMORGASBORD . . . Mesdames Dick Beecher and Joe Banks, l. to r., and other members of the JayCettes will take this pose late this week to prepare dishes for the group dinner-dance on Saturday, Aug. 16, at Attebery's Red Barn. All food for the mixer-type social is being fixed by club members.

JayCettes Set Smorgasbord

Smorgasbord style service will highlight the dinner-dance sponsored by the JayCettes Saturday night, Aug. 16, at Attebery's Red Barn. The summer affair, open to JayCee members and their guests, is the first social function to be held by the JayCettes.

Dinner-time is 7:30 p.m., and features spaghetti, garlic bread, varied salads, dessert, and coffee on the menu. Dance music will be recorded.

Participants will don cottons and jeans in keeping with the summer season. Corn stalks and old-fashioned lamps will lend a rustic atmosphere.

Tickets will be sold at the door. Special event of the evening will be awarding of a ham donated to the group by Jim Dandy market.

DONNA REEVES, O. DICK WED, AWAIT NEW HOME

July-wed Mr. and Mrs. Orval Dick (Donna Dee Reeves) are now residing in Lomita awaiting the completion of a new home in Waleria.

The couple, married at 4 p.m. Sunday, July 27, at the Catholic Church of the Nativity, traveled to Ensenada, Mexico, for a week-long honeymoon, then set up housekeeping at Lomita.

War Mothers Slate Meet

All officers of American War Mothers are asked to attend the regular meeting at 8 p.m. Wednesday, Aug. 13, at the Torrance City Hall, Mrs. Jennette King, president, announced.

"An accumulation of business makes it imperative that they be there," Mrs. King said.

Some new members are not yet obligated, she revealed, and it is hoped that this will be done that evening.

All mothers who have had sons or daughters in service, either during World War I or since 1941, are eligible for membership and are invited to visit the chapter, Mrs. King said. Any mother may attend the chapter meetings and help with various activities, including work for hospitalized veterans, although they are not eligible to become members.

The chapter comprises members from Waleria, Lomita, Harbor City, North Torrance, Carson and adjoining districts.

VETS ENTERTAINED BY GOLD STAR MOMS

Hospital group from the Torrance Memorial Chapter of the American Gold Star Mothers visited the Brentwood Recreation Center Tuesday, Aug. 5, to entertain a group of hospitalized veterans.

Refreshments of ice cream, cookies, and punch were served to about 70 patients and 20 extra guests. Music for the hour of dancing following the social visit was furnished by an orchestra composed of hospital patients.

Gold Star Mothers attending were Mesdames Helen Smith and Regina Cunningham of Torrance; E. S. Held and Orpha Wilson of Redondo; and Opal Andrews and William Erbe of Gardena. Mrs. Erbe is president of the chapter and acting hospital chairman.

"NEIGHBORS" GROUP SLATES POTLUCK

Friendship Club box, the Royal Neighbors will meet Tuesday, Aug. 12, for a 12 noon luncheon at the Woman's clubhouse, 1422 Engracia Ave. Following the potluck affair, sewing circle and card games will be featured.

Mrs. Marie Bankston is general chairman.

'SPOT' SHINES ON STYLES WEDNESDAY

Newest styles in women's and children's wear will be shown this Wednesday night at the annual Fashion Show and Membership Tea sponsored by the South Bay B'Nai B'rith Women.

Reservations for the annual summer affair, to be held at the Torrance Woman's Clubhouse, may be made by calling Mrs. Helen Yeskin at Torrance 2230-R.

Beginning at 8 p.m., professional models will display the latest modes in clothes for every facet—of women's—daily life.

MOTHER VISITS MRS. R. GOLDEN

Home of Mr. and Mrs. Robert N. Golden, 444 Hollywood Palms Verdes Parkway, Hollywood Riviera, is open this week to Mrs. Golden's mother, Mrs. Katie B. Lucy of Richmond, Calif.

The Golden's entertained their houseguest at a small dinner party Sunday, inviting close friends, Mr. and Mrs. James Hopkins and children, Norma and Paul, of Whittier for the afternoon.

Mrs. Lucy plans to remain with her daughter and son-in-law for two weeks.

Grand finale of the show will be a typical bridal party, featuring new notes in wedding wear.

Familiar faces will be seen when the "younger set" takes the show spotlight. Children of B'Nai B'rith members will model clothes from Kale's in Torrance and Gardena.

Women's clothes are original styles from Emerson's French Model Shop in Inglewood. Added fashion feature will be a showing of new fall furs from Maurice Ball furriers.

A program of varied entertainment is planned, and refreshments will be served.

Mrs. Gloria Scher is general chairman of the event. She is being assisted by Mesdames Doris Klein, Ida Rosenfeld, Yeskin, Maxine Robinson, Edith Brodsky, and Rosalind Snitzer.

Four Local Legion Auxiliary Members Attend Meeting; Report To Group Tuesday

One thousand letters of legislation passed through the hands of Mrs. John Fess, 19th district legislation chairman for the American Legion Auxiliary and current treasurer for the local chapter, on their way to Washington, D. C., the past club year.

This report was given by Mrs. Fess at the 33rd Annual Convention of the Auxiliary held in the Rainbow Auditorium in Fresno Aug. 2-5.

Mesdames Carl Ross, president; Lucille Thompson, executive committee; and B. W. Roberts also were delegates to the convention.

The four women will give a full report of the meet Tuesday night at an 8 p.m. meeting in the Legion Hall on Border Ave.

Budget for the coming year, drawn up by the executive board at a meeting held Friday in the Via Colusa home of Mrs. W. F. Toombs, past president, will be placed before the group for approval.

Newly appointed officers of the Auxiliary are Mesdames C. P. Olson, chaplain; Jim Parks, marshal; Ken Cunningham, historian; and Alma Smith, parliamentarian.

Also a guest was Mrs. Gale Carter, Mrs. Allen's sister from Mer Rouge, La. Mrs. Carter, her husband and family are now visiting Mrs. Allen and her parents Mr. and Mrs. G. H. Homolka, 710 Border Ave.

Mrs. Orval Dick (nee Donna Dee Reeves) and her husband clasp hands to cut the first piece of their wedding cake. The couple were married at Catholic Church of the Nativity July 27. They will live in Waleria.

Douglas Baldwins Move; Host Eastern Visitors

Making their home at a new address, 2870 Sonoma Ave., now are Mr. and Mrs. Douglas Baldwin, who formerly lived at 1414 Hickory Ave., Apt. A.

The Baldwins are entertaining his parents, Mr. and Mrs. C. E. Baldwin of Caldwell, N. J., this week.

Former Local Woman Tells Daughter's Birth

Mr. and Mrs. Jerry Witt of Manhattan Beach, are announcing the arrival of a daughter, Lorraine Anne.

The new baby, born July 22, weighed 7 lbs. 6 oz. Maternal grandmother is Mrs. B. W. Roberts, 1609 Amapola Ave.

Woman's Club Breakfast Draws Attendance of 75

About 75 people gathered for breakfast Wednesday morning at the home of Mrs. Phyrne Laughon, 375 Camino de las Colinas, Redondo Beach. The affair, held in garden setting, was sponsored by the Torrance Woman's Club to raise money for fall philanthropic activities.

In charge of arrangements were Mesdames Ruth Rogers, E. L. Snodgrass, A. F. Ewalt, Chris Jones, Lily Ahrens, and Laughon.
