

Legion Auxiliary Discusses Fall Budget at First Meet

Budget problems, rehabilitation, child welfare, and convention reports occupied members of the American Legion Auxiliary Tuesday evening when they met at the Legion hall on Border Ave. for their first meeting of the year.

Mrs. Carl Ross, president, was in charge of the session. Reports of the convention, held the first of the month at Fresno, were presented in pantomime picture. Mrs. B. W. Roberts narrated, while Mesdames John Fess, and Lucille Thompson, carried out the pantomime.

Following the meeting, refreshments were served. Wednesday evening several members of the Auxiliary attended the 19th District installation at Long Beach Memorial Building.

Mrs. Cliff Olson was appointed district historian, and Mrs. W. F. Toombs received the appointment to handle co-operative sales.

Other members of the local Legion Auxiliary and Post attending installation rites were Mesdames Vern Babcock, Pat Boyle, Minnie Crushan, and Fess; Mr. and Mrs. Carl Ross; and Messrs. Olson and Toombs.

Duties Learned By Chairmen Of Jr. Women

Fall chairmen of the Torrance Junior Woman's Club met yesterday afternoon at the Sonoma Ave. home of Mrs. Douglas Baldwin, president, to receive district worksheets and discuss their duties for the coming club year.

The informal coffee and business session was held from 1 to 3 p.m., with Mrs. John A. Kemp sharing the hostess role.

Chairmen attending were Mesdames L. G. Jones, hostess; John Cooper, house and hospitality; James Van Dyke, yearbook; C. W. Bartholomew, bulletin; Merle Richardson, remembrance; K. L. McBroon, guestbook; H. M. Huizing, American citizenship; R. F. Beecher, decorations; John Agapito, youth counselor; George Bradford, Jr., TECA; Charles Schultz, arts and crafts.

R. C. Morton, point system; H. P. Jensen, devotionals; V. U. Kilburn, press; C. E. Adams and E. W. Eckert, reservations; William Walsmith and Lester King, telephone; Charles Rippey, Jr., bridge; Warren Hamilton, YWCA representatives; and A. P. Smith, fine arts.

Home via the Queen Mary from a three-month tour of Europe is Mrs. E. Juanita Ringo, 1913 Cabrillo Ave.

The tour included the British Isles, the Scandinavian countries, Western Europe and Spain.

Highlight of the trip was Vienna. "I liked this city best, because of the operas, and the beautiful Franz Joseph castles, which still have their original furniture and paintings," Mrs. Ringo said.

Also in Vienna Mrs. Ringo was witness to a common occurrence, the removing of American passengers from trains by Russian officials because "they didn't have the right travel visas."

"If you live a week in Paris, you're doing wonderfully," Mrs. Ringo said, "because the pedestrian has no right of way in that city."

Another highlight was the visit to Spain. "There you can buy almost anything for practically nothing," said the Torrance traveler.

FALL FASHION FEATURE IS SLIM SKIRT

PENCIL SLIM SKIRTS in all dresses except a few party and dance frocks is fashion forecast for fall as shown Wednesday evening at the Third Annual Fashion Show sponsored by the South Bay B'nal Brith Women.

Style show was presented to an enthusiastic audience in the Torrance Woman's Club House, 1422 Engracia Ave. Featured were original fashions from Emerson's French Model Shop in Inglewood and Maurice Fall Furriers displayed by professional models.

MODELS WALKED out on a star-studded stage flanked at one side with white candelabra, and brightened with varicolored flower arrangements.

"Wool tailoring with crepe feeling," was illustrated in a simple, step-in-style brown dress, ornamented only by rectangular pieces of matching material marching down the front. The dress had the typical straight skirt, with a small kick pleat in front.

Skirt length of this gown, as well as others shown during the evening, was just a few inches below the knee, as opposed to the late mid-calf length.

Brown again, but with white checks, was a "conversation piece" uniquely styled with straight skirt buttoning to the bottom of the bodice, and flaring into wide hip pockets. Flap turned down illustrated the popular step-in style with buttons all the way down.

"THE TORSO LOOK" was achieved in another step-in skirt made in black and grey striped wool, again straight-skirted and form hugging. Banded hip and neck lines were the only ornamental touches.

Also an eye-catcher was a simple black suit with slim skirt and long jacket with matching buttons down the front. A single rhinestone button on the right hand pocket gave the ensemble a unique look.

Most vivid costume was a blue jersey dress cut with dolman sleeves and deep V neck. A wide belt encircled the hand-span waist.

FULL, off-the-shoulder velvet party frocks, and slim, skirted, shimmering cocktail suits with side draping or ruffles also were shown.

Coats to go over these fall costumes are cut full, with wide turn-back cuffs. A stunning example of the style was a bead-trimmed beige beauty.

Another attention-getter was a grey spectator with stand-up collar and black leather belt.

Height of elegance, the fur coat, is shorter this year, with cape-jackets predominating. The three-quarter coat, short jacket, and stole also are perennial favorites.

FEATURED FURS of the evening were mink, sable, squirrel, muskrat, ermine, and Persian lamb. Spotlight was shown first on a new thing in furs, a blonde bolero beauty in South American llama's wool.

Furs also showed the fall trend for fullness and wide, turn-back cuffs.

Mrs. Mollie Emerson narrated the French Model Shop side of the show, with Don Ball taking over, the fur spotlight.

Children's costumes for fall emphasized plaid, easily washable cottons. Children of the members modeled the clothes, from Kale's in Torrance and Gardena, as a preview to the women's fashions, and almost stole the show.

MUSICAL INTERLUDES were played by Dr. Bernard Robinson, pianist, and the spotlight and public address system were by courtesy of Lenard Radio and TV store.

Following the style parade, refreshments were served buffet style from a white, linen-laid table with a centerpiece of dahlias and zinnias set in crystal and flanked by white and green candles in crystal holders.

Proceeds of the fashion show will be used for various philanthropic projects of B'nal Brith women. Among other things, the group sponsors the Leo Levy hospital for arthritic patients, the only one of its kind in the United States, and a tuberculosis hospital at Denver, Colo.

DOLLS ON PARADE... Sisters with twin dolls captured first place awards for the largest doll at a contest held Friday afternoon at Fern Ave. School Playground. First girl on the left, Toni Lee Jensen, and Darlene Jensen, third, are the winning owners. In between them stands Barbara Bonnell, who received a first prize for the oldest doll. In her arms she holds a 125-year-old china baby. Last and littlest is the doll winning in the "smallest" judging category, held by owner, Barbara Krauser, Marion MacDonald, assistant director, is pictured at the far left making the awards as judging was completed. Similar contests were held the same afternoon at El Retiro Park and North Torrance Elementary School Playground, as a climax to Hobby Week.

M. Bumpass Visits Texas

Ten-year-old Mattie Bumpass, daughter of Mrs. Georgia B. Bates, 23835 Ward St., is home again following a seven-week stay in Lubbock, Tex. This was her first visit to her mother's former home since she was 17 months old.

At Lubbock Mattie visited her grandparents, Mr. and Mrs. T. E. Bumpass, and other relatives. One of the highlights of the vacation was a dinner given in her honor which more than 50 relatives and friends attended.

Mattie also made trips to Austin, Houston, and the Carlsbad Caverns in New Mexico. Journey to and from Texas was made by plane.

Perry School PTA Board To Plan Association Meet

Plans for the first meeting of Perry School Parent-Teacher Association were discussed at an executive board meeting Thursday at 10:00 a.m.

The session was held at the home of Mrs. A. B. Cowie, legislation chairman, 4118 W. 182nd St. Mrs. Glenn Blake, president, was in charge.

Back issues of the California Parent-Teacher magazine will be loaned to interested persons at the first association meeting in September, according to Mrs. W. A. Wright, magazine chairman.

"Reading this magazine is the easiest way to find out what is being done through parent and teacher cooperation," Mrs. Wright said. Further information may be obtained by calling her at FR 2-2288.

As an association project, the Perry P. T. A. will provide a baby sitter or transportation to persons in that area who wish to register at the deputy registrar's home in the Northwest area, 18328 Roslin Ave. Those interested may call ME 4-0038 or FR 2-2288.

"We wish everyone in the Perry School area to join our Parent-Teacher Association during the enrollment period, so that a closer relationship may be formed in home, school, and community, and so members may have a voice in shaping the purposes and policies of school and community," Mrs. Blake said. Additional information may be obtained by calling her at ME 4-0038.

Royal Neighbors Initiate 3; Plan Card Party, Trip, Sale

Royal Neighbor Camp of Torrance swelled its ranks by three new members at an Aug. 5 meeting, held in the Woman's clubhouse, 1422 Engracia Ave.

Mesdames Lucille Sloane and Cordie McDermot of Gardena and Mary Tulley of Wilmington are the new initiates. Tribute was paid to a deceased member, Mrs. Lola Doane, with a memorial service conducted by Mrs. Lou Johnson, chancellor. She was assisted by Mrs. Sophia Duncan, marshal; and Miss Della Hoy, assistant marshal.

Plans were made for several August activities, with the regular monthly card party to start the ball rolling on Aug. 19. Prizes will be awarded for high score in the five games, buncos, five hundred, pinocle, bridge, and canasta. During the adding of the tallies, refreshments will be served.

Mesdames Mary Conner and Cora Hill are chairmen of the event. On Wednesday evening, Aug. 20, members will motor to Hollywood to attend the "Women Are Wonderful" broadcast. This activity is under the auspices of the Label Saving Campaign, and Mrs. Marie Koshak will be in charge.

Transportation or tickets for the event may be obtained by contacting Mrs. Koshak at her home, 2334 W. 238th St., or by calling Lomita 320.

Rummage sale will be held by the "Neighbors" Friday and Saturday, Aug. 22 and 23, at a place to be announced later. Mrs. Rosa Shepherd will be in charge of the sale, and anyone wishing to contribute garments or other articles is to contact her.

The rag drive will be finished at the close of the rummage sale. Members having sacks out are to contact Mrs. Belva Brass, oracle.

BY-LAWS READ AT SOROPTIMIST MEET

Completion of by-laws reading featured last week's luncheon meeting of the Harbor District Soroptimist Club, held Wednesday at the Fireside Restaurant, 600 S. Gaffey St., San Pedro.

Mrs. Marion Young, president, directed the business session, and extended thanks to Mesdames Winona Ellis and Alta Collins for compiling the new by-laws.

Response to the appeal for contributions for the new addition has been gratifying, Mrs. Edith Carragher reported. The new addition will be used for the housing of transient women.

Fuchsia Slides Shown to Club

Colored slides of outstanding fuchsia brightened a Keystone Fuchsia Society meeting held Tuesday evening at the Keystone Woman's clubhouse. Host and hostess were Mr. and Mrs. J. T. Harris.

Laren Taulson, of the California Fuchsia Society, showed the films and presented the evening prize, a five-foot-high Keystone fuchsia, to Mr. Harris.

Mrs. Clyde Meyer of Keystone won the surprise package, and Mrs. Frank Alsop was presented the birthday plant, a Martha Washington geranium.

Those attending were Mesdames Alsop, J. H. Parker, Meyer, and daughter, Coyt Everson, Lucille Sloan, Alice Gravesmaker, and Messrs. and Mmes. Tom Harding, and Harris and children.

Mrs. Parker will be hostess at the next meeting, to be held at the clubhouse Sept. 9.

JUNIOR BUDGET, CALENDAR, GET SENIOR APPROVAL

Calendar of events and budget of the Torrance Junior Woman's Club received approval Monday night from the Senior Woman's Club. Meeting was a joint session of junior and senior executive boards held at the home of Mrs. E. L. Snodgrass, 1014 Beach Ave.

Mesdames Al Ewalt, senior president, and Douglas Baldwin, junior president, shared honors of presiding. Leaders of both groups were formally introduced to each other.

Thirteen members of each club joined in discussion and a social and refreshment hour followed.
