Surprised indeed were the returned on Saturday, Septem- Nathan Gordons this last week her 20. He had been stationed when a group of friends and with the U. S. army in Korea neighbors got together to give for a year. Wesley and his them a house warming. The parents lived on Nece Ave., un- group of almost forty guests til Wesley married shortly be- gathered at the home of Jack Tinkle, Newton St., and then then his parents, Mr. and Mrs. went to the new home of the Leonard Christian, have re- Gordons, also on Newton St. mained on Nece Ave., but Wes- ley and his bride make their home in Redondo Beach.

Another house-guest arrived this week at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Thomas Fitzpatrick, Danaha St., when Gene WAIN came in on leave from the army.

"Home is the hunter" could be said this week of Mr. Robert Gene is staying at the Fitz- Mills, Danaha St., since he has Patrick home with his wife, returned with a group from a Carol, who arrived here two hunting trip in the mountains, weeks ago. Gene may have to Hopful of getting one of those return to duty in Alaska for a four-footed creatures, the group short time before he is released left last Thursday. Unfortun- ately, one of the members of the hunting party became ill and the trip had to be cut off by a much shorter than the group had planned. Three of the ten brated his ninth birthday with in the hunting party were able to bag their game though, so all of them were able to have some venison.

"Happy Birthday" was chored Sunday when little Mary Ann Manis celebrated her fourth birthday. Happy youngsters shared a grab-bag, party hats, and several little party favors, and then gathered around for games and refreshments. Mary Ann's cake was a huge chocolate one with white frosting and green decorations. Highlight of the afternoon were movies of "Andy Pandey," "Donald Duck," and "Circus Time." Helping Mary Ann celebrate were Dede and Jimmy Langston, Janice, Bobby and Butch from back east, Donny and Ernie Dahl, Pamela Freels, John and Priscilla Nilton, and Kenny Holland. May we wish Mary Ann a happy birthday, too!

Forty-one certificates were earned by the younger set this year in the summer reading project carried out by the local library. The project was titled "I am an American" and is part of the blanket campaign sponsored by "American Heritage" under auspices of the Ford Foundation.
