

The Social World

AGNES BOLTER, Editor

FERN-GREENWOOD TEACHERS HONORED AT THURSDAY TEA

Teachers and personnel of Fern and Greenwood Ave. Schools were honor guests recently at a tea given in the teachers' room at Fern Ave. School by the Parent-Teacher Association.

New members of the teaching staff this year are Barbara Bolter, Marjorie Olson, John Marie, Herman Boodman and John Sudehum of Fern Avenue School; and Alwood F. Fuller and Bonnie Buerkens of Greenwood.

PTA paper and rag drive is set for Friday, Sept. 26. Contest will end at 1 p.m. that day, with prizes going to rooms collecting the most material in the drive.

'DAUGHTERS' SHOW PARADE OF FASHION TODAY AT 12:30 P. M.

Beginning at 12:30 p.m. today, fall fashions will be modeled by members of Court St. Catherine, Catholic Daughters of America, and their children at a garden party to be held at the home of Mrs. Laura Felker, 1010 Beech Ave.

Dessert luncheon will start the ball rolling at the fall event. During and after the luncheon, clothes from the local Adams Dress Shop will be shown.

Following the fashion parade, card games will be played with prizes being awarded for top scores in each game.

Tickets for the three-in-one event are still available, said Mrs. John Gitschier, chairman. Ducats may be obtained from any member of the Court, or at the door this afternoon, for $1.

Proceeds will go toward a fund for Court philanthropic work.

Kidnap Breakfast Planned By Lomita Elementary PTA

Members of Lomita Elementary Parent Teacher Association are warned to be on the lookout for a Kidnap Breakfast in the near future, Mrs. Rollin Northern, press chairman, said this week.

Plans were discussed at the September meeting of the executive board last Thursday. Committee composed of Mesdames Frank Mickunas, Al Strange, and Edwin Abbott, was named to investigate the possibility of having a school carnival.

New chairmen named were Mesdames Francis Markley, art; Theodore Brink, child welfare; Frank Mickunas, Founder's Day; George Mackay, health; Newell Brown, juvenile protection; Dorothy Rogers, life membership; Leslie Steigh, magazines; Rollin Northern, publicity; Mark Weiss, record book.

A. Adamson, room mothers; Edwin Abbott, sunshine; Norman Manes, ways and means;

Junior Women Attend Meet

Three officers from the Torrance Junior Women's Club attended the first Los Angeles district conference for junior membership at the El Monte Civic Center Saturday.

They were Mesdames Douglas P. Baldwin, president; B. W. Roberts, advisor; and Warren Perry, federation co-ordinator.

Hostesses for the barbecue dinner were members of the Wilmar Club, who served about 296 representatives and guests.

Following dinner, Mrs. Eugene Nott, president of the Los Angeles District, introduced new district board members, who presented reports.

District American Citizenship chairman announced that the general federation is carrying on a "get out the vote" campaign, and the philanthropy chairman announced a list of eight philanthropic District projects which will be voted on by Junior clubs.

(Herald Photo) RUFFLES AND FRILLS... Little Karen McVey shows off a pink party dress she will model today at the garden party fashion show sponsored by Court St. Catherine, Catholic Daughters of America. Shown with her is Mrs. Kay Garrity, club member, who also will model. Affair will be held at the Beech Ave. home of Mrs. Laura Felker.

STYLE SHOW... These children of St. Catherine's Court, Catholic Daughters of America members show costumes which they will model at a fashion show to be held today at the Beech Ave. home of Mrs. Laura Felker. Left to right, the children are Joan Gitschier, Larry Armstrong, and Denis Gitschier. Posing with them is Mrs. Adelaide Armstrong, one of the principals on the committee planning the garden party affair. Following style show, card games will be played. (Herald Photo)

B'NAI B'RITH WOMEN SEE MOVIES TONIGHT

Dr. Ernest Hale will entertain South Bay B'nai Brith Women tonight at a regular meeting to be held at the local YWCA building.

He will show colored movies of scenic trips he has taken in past years.

Following movies, refreshments will be served. Guests are invited.

Those needing transportation may call Helene Yeskin at Torrance 2280-R or Gloria Scher, Menlo 4-2468.

PTA Leaders To Do Chest Work Tuesday

Community Chest Work Shop will be held next Tuesday, Sept. 30, at the San Pedro YWCA building, announced Mrs. John Conshafter, community chest chairman of the Gardena-Wilmington Council PTA.

All local PTA presidents, community chest chairman and co-chairmen of the Council are expected to attend, she said.

MUSICAL NIGHT SET BY ROYAL NEIGHBORS

Musical night will be held by the Royal Neighbors next Tuesday, Sept. 30, at 8 o'clock in the Woman's Clubhouse, 1422 Engracia Ave., Mrs. Belva Brase, orator, announced this week.

Featured on the all-musical program will be the Kitchenette Band of Redondo Beach. Many other acts also will be presented, Mrs. Brase said.

Refreshments will be served.

SHES A MODEL... Miss Helen Goetz, newly-graduated from Wilma Hastings Modeling and Finishing School in Long Beach, has a happy smile as she checks finished result in hand-bag mirror. Miss Goetz is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. C. H. Goetz, 20705 Jamison Ave., in the newly-named Carson area. She is a student at Torrance High School.

'Fiestadores' Affair Draws 35 Couples

Thirty-five couples went "back to school" last Saturday night as Los Fiestadores held their first dance of the fall season at Portuguese Bend Clubhouse with a campus theme.

Women wore little cards marked with the "subject" they "taught" and men "pupils" searched to find their "class" and claim a dance. Other mixer-type dances were a Paul Jones and a football dance.

During the latter, hostesses tagged men for dances, and presented the women losing partners with footballs. Women holding footballs when the music stopped tossed a fine into a football helmet.

Music for the 10 p.m. to 1 a.m. affair was provided by Les Tronsier and his orchestra. Tronsier is a former resident of Torrance.

Local Y Heads Attend Meeting

Members of the program staff of Harbor District YWCA attended the Southern California Staff Conference held last Monday, 9 a.m. to 8:30 p.m., in Long Beach.

Mrs. John Morris, executive director of Harbor District, served as chairman of a discussion of religion, while Mrs. Joseph Lukes, branch director of the Torrance Branch, led a group on "The National and World's YWCA."

Highlight of the meet was a luncheon program featuring Mrs. Earl Cranston, member of the National Board and representative to the World's Council of the YWCA held last year in Lebanon.

Discussions of public affairs and health and recreational activities of the Y occupied morning session, while during the afternoon there were workshops on "How to Get Convention Action Into YWCA Program."

Closing dinner was held at Greenbrier Inn, with Rev. Emerson Hagen, minister of the First Congregational Church of Long Beach as guest speaker.

Staff attending from this area in addition to Mesdames Morris and Lukes were Mesdames Ardean Nordgren, young adult director; Otis S. Blackstone, membership and public relations director; and Misses Ruth Lanman, Wilmington director, and Marilyn Esslinger, San Pedro teenage director.

FIRST SHILLING

English shillings were first minted in 1504.

Everyone's Invited TO THE Fall Fashion Parade

LAST 2 DAYS THURSDAY and FRIDAY, 1 to 1:30 P. M. CIVIC AUDITORIUM

Presented Before The Cookery Carnival By

Sam Levy

TORRANCE'S FINEST DEPARTMENT STORE