

'Round the Riviera

Heading the call of autumn in the wilderness, Mr. and Mrs. Emil Huskamp, 113 Paseo de Granada, took four days off and trekked into deer country near Bishop, Calif. The Huskamps report the deer population is at low ebb. They sighted one deer, unfortunately a doe. Since the ladies of the species claim the prerogative of not being shot at, the Huskamps could only stand and watch until the saucer creature walked out of sight. In an optimistic frame, the Rivierans concluded by saying they had a wonderful time hiking and camping out.

The Riviera Republican drive toward Nov. 4 swung into high gear last week with a precinct workers' meeting at the home of Mrs. Frank E. Booth, 108 Via Monte de Oro. After a talk outlining the work necessary before election time, the workers viewed a film sent out from the Republican Central Committee titled "Votes in the Ballot Box." News of a big rally scheduled for Monday evening, Oct. 20 at El Camino College was announced and workers were each given books of tickets on prizes to be given away that evening. The proceeds from the sale of the tickets will go to support Bob Finch in his fight for the 17th District Congressional seat. Those attending the meeting were Mesdames Carlton Paul, Mervyn Porter, Philip Shaw, W. Ford, W. M. Forkum, John A. Hughes, Douglas Moir, Ed Forcier, Kenneth Dudley, Walter McClelland, Jean Handy, Frances Dowling, Margaret Parmer, Jack Satterlee, John Pierce, William R. Whyte, Evangaline Mullen, Granville Smith, Lura Watson, Phyllis Key and Don Whitney, Mr. M. B. Millar and Mr. and Mrs. Dick Barlow also were present.

Chief Warrant Officer John Reed, 138 Via Alameda, returned to his home and family last Monday after seven months in Korean waters. He was aboard the cruiser USS Bremerton, just relieved from Far East duty for overhaul somewhere on the west coast. Wife Nan reports he brought home a set of chinaware as a homecoming present to her.

Ted and Ellen Cogswell, 312 Via Pasqual, have welcomed a feminine addition to their family. Born to Ellen Sunday, Sept. 14 at St. Joseph's Hospital, Burbank, was the 7th, 8-cp. daughter. They have named Julia Katherine. She joins older sister Cynthia Lynn, 6, to make the family a foursome.

Up hill and down dale: Mr. and Mrs. Philip Stramback, 201 Via Alameda, have moved away from Riviera. Their destination Detroit, Mich., where he assumes a new job with his company. The regular monthly meeting of the Homeowners Association is scheduled for Monday, Oct. 6. El Retiro Park clubhouse is the site, and the time is 8 p.m. Main subject is announced as "Riviera Sewers." Judge Otto B. Willett, 221 Via Los Altos, will be guest speaker at the next dinner meeting of the Torrance Business and Professional Women's Club. His subject will cover the 28 propositions on the November ballot. The meeting will be held Oct. 20 at the Torrance YVCA clubhouse, John and Ann Walt, 376 Paseo de Gracia, report progress on the home renovation program. Their schedule includes a concrete patio enclosed on three sides and finished in rustic design. Mr. and Mrs. Redmond Enright, 229 Via Los Altos, played host to Bob Pinkney, 361 Paseo de Gracia, and Robert Prestley, also of Riviera. The occasion was dedicated to lightening the lives of these lonesome gents. Both their wives were visiting relatives. Jack Wiseman, 948 Avenida Altezado, enjoyed a hunting trip into Northern California during September. Betty took the occasion to visit friends in San Francisco, returning home Oct. 1.

Three pink candles decorated the birthday cake of Betsy Ann Ludwick, 348 Calle de Andalucia, at her party held Sept. 22 at her home. Party time, from 11:30 until 1:30, was highlighted by a luncheon served by Mrs. Meta Ludwick. Attending guests included Brook Byers, Fritz, Joan and Cookie Schneider, Edward Holmes and Chuck Kenner.

If there's anything better than a pancake breakfast, it's a pancake breakfast with lots of company. And that's what's in store for all us Rivierans from 7 a.m. until 1 p.m. on Sunday, Oct. 12, in the rear parking lot of the Redondo Jim Dandy Market. It's a breakfast sponsored by Las Vecinas and prepared for you by professionals, and the cost is a trifling 50 cents per adult, 25 cents for children. A luscious menu includes choice of three meats, pancakes and syrup, sausage and coffee. On top of filling up on an A1 breakfast, your ticket proceeds will be used for the youth of Hollywood Riviera and Seaside. If you have ever heard of an easier, more pleasing way to help youth, there must be a catch to it. Plan to attend this one; it'll have the taste treat of top-rate open air cuisine and the conviviality of a Long Beach "Iowa Farmer's Reunion."

Five members of the Riviera PTA Board attended the Torrance Council PTA workshop held last Sept. 24 at St. Andrew's Parish hall in Torrance. After an hour of getting acquainted with other PTA officials in joint meeting, the Rivierans adjourned to the Council workshops covering their specific offices. Rivierans attending included Mrs. Nellie Hole, president; Frances Bowser, Irene Burman, Helen Fijal and Mary Webb.

Mr. and Mrs. Kenneth Lange, 411 Camino de las Colinas, and their two children, Ken and Chris, escaped injury by inches last week when a runaway auto smashed into the wall of their apartment at 2:30 a.m. Witnesses at the scene said the car, owned by neighbor John Pierce, was set in motion by a group of half dozen teen-agers who jumped into a dark colored Buick

It always seems to be fitting to start out with congratulations so . . .

Congratulations are in order for Mrs. Leonard Priestly (Connie to us) of Vanderhill Ln. and to Sandra Rosencrantz (S. I believe) right across the street. They share the birthdate of September 26. They also shared their celebrations on the night preceding with cake, etc.

Another recent birthday was that of little Joel George of Bindewald Rd. his first. It hardly seems possible that a year has passed since I announced his arrival, but it has. . . a year last September 25. A big celebration was had on Saturday afternoon, the 27th, with cake, ice cream and all the trimmings. Guests were Joel's grandmother and grandfather, and his aunt Margaret and her three, Ricky, Leland and Julianna. Also there were Vickie Lynn and Dee (Vickie's mother), and Beth and Babette (Beth's mother). Papa Bob took some 10mm sound movies and I'm hinting for an invitation to see the results.

There was another party in the Heights last Saturday, too. In the evening, Charline Phillips was hostess of a baby shower at her home, 5347 Bindewald Rd., for Jo Jurisch, also of Bindewald Rd. It was an enjoyable evening for the friends of Jo who attended. . . Evelyn Arnold, Dottie Epp, Joan Filigiano, Norma Ledbetter, Gertrude Lumsden, Mrs. Roomsberg (Jo's mother), Grayce Ryckman (co-hostess), Penny Schweider, Ruth Waddingham, and of course, Jo and Charline. It's too bad that fathers do not attend these affairs. . . mighty interesting subjects discussed. Many gifts were sent by those not able to attend.

Remember Jan Darian, Bindewald Rd., who directed the fine stage show last year in the Torrance Auditorium? Well, he is hard at work again, putting the finishing touches on another show. This one will climax the big birthday party in Hermosa Beach this Friday and Saturday. It will take place in the Hermosa Biltmore Hotel where Jan has a dance studio.

Visiting in the Heights just recently were Mrs. Kathleen Crane of Oakland, Calif., and Mr. Gerald Milson of Montreal, Canada.

Or Oldsmobile and fled the scene. Pierce's auto jumped the curb, rolled across the sloping lawn and punched into the wall of the Langes' bathroom, less than three feet from the bed in the next room where the couple was asleep. The damage was estimated at about $1000.

David Harvey, 6, son of Mr. and Mrs. David A. Harvey, 127 Calle de Andalucia, has returned home following an emergency trip to the hospital for a major operation. The Harveys report their young patient is recovering rapidly following a successful operation.

They are sister and brother of Jack Milson, 5311 Bindewald Rd. It was a real family reunion and they stayed about a week. Gerald Milson was a Wing Commander in the Royal Canadian Air Force during the last war. Only unfortunate thing about the visit was that Atha Milson (Jack's wife) came down with flu about the third day after their arrival. As a matter of fact, she is still not well, but is improving.

Also not well is Amy Leising. She was taken to the Torrance Memorial Hospital Saturday for treatment and at this writing is not back home. Edgar is doing the baby sitting for the two children and from what I hear, is real capable. Wishes for a quick recovery, Amy.

In the Harbor General Hospital since last week is our good friend, "Grandpa" Hatfield. He is being readied for surgery. According to his son, Howard, with whom he lives on Vanderhill Ln., he really is enjoying the rest and care. This looks to me like a good opportunity for all of you who know Grandpa to send him a get well card or note. He also can have visitors. . . call Harbor General for time.

Court of Honor of Boy Scout Troop 726 was held, as scheduled, last Thursday evening. It turned out a very special affair, too. The families of the boys in the troop got together and let the Scoutmaster and his wife know that they appreciate what is being done for their boys. No two people could have been more surprised than these two when they were presented with a shining pop-up toaster, and a cake inscribed with this dedication in icing: "Honoring Our Scoutmaster, and Will Floyd and Merle". They are Mr. and Mrs. F. Holstin, of 5121 Zakon Rd.

Everyone was very happy that Richard Nelms was able to attend. He is the boy who had polo during this summer vacation. He was able to walk in and join his friends. However, he still wears a neck cast, but I understand this will not be necessary for long. Every parent there was thankful to see him and humble in their knowing "it could have been our child." Richard received his Silver Moccasins for finishing that 65-mile hike last June. He also received five merit badges, and recognition as troop librarian. Also, the troop presented him with a signal set.

Altogether 17 boys and Scoutmaster Holstin received their Silver Moccasins, which hang from a ribbon pin. They are so nice. . . try to see them. Other awards were as follows: Life Rank—Stan Wilson, Dorsey Gruver, Raymond Parent, and Bill Evans. Star Rank—Phillip Gaul, Bill Morris and Ray Bundgard. Second Class—Jimmy Archibald, Ronnie Evans, Donny Robinson, Richard Powell, Randall Nelms, Ralph Muldoon, Gary Ledwidge, and Bobby Dwyer. First Class—Hal Muldoon, Reese Haggott, Robert Sadavage, Leonard Kissel, Bill Sternburg and David Perfect attendance medal—Ray Bundgard, Stan Wilson, Bill Evans, Hal Muldoon, and Bill Morris.

Now it's calendar time again. Check these dates: October 9 and October 12. The 9th, as you probably know, is the date of our first open Seaside PTA meeting. As usual it will be a family get-together, a pot luck affair. Full details will be sent home by the children. . . so mark your calendar and stand by for instructions.

October 12 is a date for breakfast. The Las Vecinas Women's Club is sponsoring this breakfast from 7 a.m. until 1 p.m. It is to be prepared and served on the Redondo Jim Dandy Market parking lot by regular caterers. You get all you can eat of hot cakes and coffee ages with fruit juice and sausage with milk. The tickets are only 50c for adults, and 25c for children. Isn't this a grand opportunity to get out of cooking Sunday breakfast? Bring your whole family. . . and your friends.

The proceeds are for Las Vecinas Youth Benefit which now, to all of you, I'd better add a special adieu to Barbara and Warren Walker and daughter, Jurisch, has the tickets. Call Frontier 51779 or stop by 5223 Bindewald Rd. See you there? month.
