

Kettler Kapers

By TEO CUNNINGHAM, Lomita 232-J

Surprise! Surprise! That is what greeted the ears of Mrs. Mary Cummings last week when she walked into the home of Mrs. Dorothy Wainwright on Reynosa Dr., supposedly for a morning cup of coffee and a chat. Instead she found herself the guest of honor at a farewell party, for Dorothy, along with Marie Foote and Willa Brown, hosted the morning gathering at which Mary's friends and neighbors showed her that she will be missed in the neighborhood when she moves to Manhattan Beach soon. She was presented with a pair of brass wall plates for her new home. Those attending were Mesdames Carmen Neilson, Goody Fischer, Camilla Helphand, Polly Fuller, Virginia Jones and, of course, the three hostesses. Those missing out on the apple pie and coffee that was served, but whose 11 wishes were included, were Gloria Nixon, Iris Nash, Donna Fuller, and Betty Ewolot. We'll be sorry to see the Cummingses leave too.

Combining business with pleasure, Howard and Hilda Smith, of Sepulveda Blvd., recently returned from a trip to the midwest. Howard worked hard enough last year to gain fourth place for the United States in sales for his company. As a result, he won a trip to the home office in Rock Island, Ill. While back in the midwest, the Smiths stopped to visit in Hudson, Wis. and St. Paul, Minn. While in St. Paul, they stayed with Hilda's aunt and uncle, Mr. and Mrs. Nicholas J. Sant, who had raised her. It was a most pleasant time for Howard, as he had never met many of Hilda's brothers and sisters before.

May we take this time to extend a hand of welcome to new Kettlerites, Robert (Hal to his friends) and Jo Roy, who have brought the Sullivan house on Reynosa Dr. They formerly lived on Cabrillo Ave. and before that were residents of Colorado. Hal is a boilermaker by trade, and is at present employed at Western Pipe and Steel Co. Jo works in the office at Rubbercraft. Hal's just started to raise rabbits, which may become his hobby, while Jo enjoys good music and plays the piano for her own enjoyment whenever she gets a chance. Welcome folks, and we do hope that you will be happy in your new home.

Is your mouth watering for a good roast beef dinner? Well, if it is, take yourself off to the Nativity Parish hall on Cota Ave. next Sunday afternoon, Oct. 12, for there is going to be a really delicious one served there from 12 noon to 7 that evening... and 'tis only $1.25 per plate!

We Cunninghams donned our best bib and tuckers last week and attended the 19th District dinner at the Redondo Beach American Legion Hall, honoring the Department commander-elect, Bill White. Besides a very delectable ham dinner, interesting and inspiring talks by the new commander and other department officers, we had our evening crowned with the excellent singing of the Roguettes.

Mrs. Virginia (Melvin) Miller, of 1823 Marinette St., was the guest of honor at an anticipation shower recently at the home of Mrs. Naomi Lockman, on 218th St. Acting as co-hostess with Naomi was Mrs. Vivian Caulkins. Steven and Timothy, brother-to-be, had lots of "ohs!" and "ahs!" over the lovely gifts presented Virginia by Mesdames Carlotta Agapito, Doris Tolson, Pat Gilkeson, Mary Roberts, Wanda Stewart, and Judy Ogden, all of Torrance. Mrs. Nellie Allen of Hawthorne and Mrs. Joyce Nuckles of North Hollywood also were there to give their tokens and best wishes for the baby-to-be. Refreshments of coffee and cake decorated in the pastel yellow and green color scheme, were served at the conclusion of an evening of "most-ly just visiting."

Torrance Elementary PTA is having its membership drive this week and next. Have you sent in your membership blank and dues yet? Better do it now, if you haven't. And while you're at it, make plans to attend the annual Halloween Carnival to be held on the school grounds. It's going to be bigger and better than ever, and is sure to have something to suit your tastes and interests.

The days of the wild and woolly west came to life last Sunday when Dan Cunningham celebrated his seventh birthday by entertaining four of his little schoolmates at a cowboy party. Each guest was instructed to bring his "shootin' irons" and to wear jeans, for the Torrance Park became the open plains and hills of the old days. After the boys had rounded up all the cattle for shipment, and captured all the outlaws in the vicinity, they roasted wieners over a camp fire. Of course, there was a cake, but that wasn't so prosaic as to have candles and the usual birthday greetings on. It was the scene of a "fight to the end" between plastic cowboy boys and Indians. Favors were key chains with six-shooter puzzles on them. Those who participated were Richard Grant, Eugene Slocum, Michael Moriarty, and Michael Lillywhite.

Our sympathy is extended to Gloria Hixson of Kathy Way in the loss of her grandmother, Mrs. Mary Fish, who was 83 years old and had been in ill health for some time. Gloria returned last Friday from Merced, where she had flown for the funeral, and was accompanied by her mother, Mrs. Cora Milligan, who plans to spend a few days here with Gloria before returning north.

Mrs. Velma Raybel will be hostess to the ladies of Circle No. 7 when they meet for their regular business meeting in her home next Tuesday. She will be assisted by Mrs. Addamay Blake. It will have to be mailed soon to get there in time for Christmas.

Many thanks to Camilla Helphand, Rose Schaefer, Millie West, and Virginia Jones for their help when the Red Cross Bloodmobile made its visit to Torrance last Monday.

Does anyone feel the Christmas spirit yet? It would be nice if some of you did, and could find some old toys and outgrown clothing that the war orphans in the orphanage at Seoul, Korea could use. I received a plea from a soldier stationed there for toys, clothing, and even small bits of hard candies, so that those youngsters may have a little nicer Christmas. I will be more than happy to accept anything up, or if dents, you are near my home, 1923 Reynosa Dr., just drop it off.

Birthday wishes go this week to Judy Combs, Dorothy Hampton, Ruby Rethwisch, Peggy Spoden, Dorothy Wainwright and Lois Youngs. Anniversary greetings to Tom and Mary Andrew, and belated ones to Lawrence and Julie Batty.

The little 'one-room school house' didn't go out with modern education... so Ginny and Gordon Jones found out last week-end when they motored to Woody, Calif. to visit with Ginny's sister, Mrs. Pat Rea, and her children. Mrs. Rea is the "schoolmarm" there, has 12 students, and teaches all eight grades of grammar school. The school building is one room with the old-fashioned type desks, stove, and all. She lives in the house next door, whose living room was the town's original school some 70 years ago, and to which the other rooms of the house have since been added. After dinner Sunday, Mrs. Rea showed the Joneses some of the surrounding country which, from a historical standpoint, was most interesting. Ginny and Gordon came home appreciating much more the newer and more modern schools.
