A local housewife today asserted that Sam Van Wagner of this city, gave her an unprovoked back-strapping last Tuesday evening. When questioned, Van Wagner explained that he had been strapping ladies' backs for years, and further that he loves to do it—and feels that more ladies should have it done. He maintains that strapping ladies' backs, chair backs, that is, with a strong webbing is a modern upholstering method essential for the durability of the chair.
