Tomorrow Is Carnival Time At City School

Variety of food, game, and amusement booths will spark North Torrance School grounds tomorrow as the Parent-Teacher Association sponsors its annual Halloween Carnival.

Among featured attractions will be a white elephant sale and fortune telling booth.

Final plans for the affair were made at an Association meeting held Wednesday of last week at the school.

About 200 parents attended the gathering, highlighted by a talk on "Why Children Are Taught To Print Before They Write," presented by Mrs. M. C. McKelvy.

Mrs. Loomis, kindergarten teacher, received the Viewmaster and slides for her room's use this month. Prize was awarded the children for having the most parents in attendance.

Guest Night Dance Set By 'Fiestadores'

"Dress in Sunday-best and bring your favorite guest" bid invitations sent out this week by Los Fiestadores for an Oct. 25 dance, to be held at Portuguese Bend Clubhouse.

Affair will begin at 9:30 p.m. and continue until 1 a.m. to orchestra music. Name of the dance band will be announced next week, said Mrs. Burton Easley, secretary.

Hostesses for the evening will be Messrs. and Mesdames R. D. Bolen, C. T. Blakeley, E. Clayton, and R. R. Dexter.

Film Headlines Torrance PTA Meet Tonight

Torrance Elementary School Auditorium at 2005 Martina Ave. will open its doors this evening at 7:30 o'clock when the Parent-Teacher Association plays host to parents at the monthly general meeting.

Highlighting the session will be a film, "Preface to a Life," followed by audience-participation discussion to be led by W. W. Hamilton.

Film tells the story of a young boy whose two dreams involving his parents show how the forcing and stretching of his personality against his grain may cause tensions that persist throughout life, said Mrs. Gordon Jones, publicity chairman.

Underlying the film, she said, is the basic idea that children must be understood and respected as individuals—that they are personalities with their own emotional needs and rights.

Mrs. Hartley Carr, PTA president, stated that child care will be provided during the evening. Refreshments will be served by hostesses for the evening, sixth grade room mothers.

TELLS TROTH

MISS MARGARET BUNJES, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Carl Bunjes, revealed news this week of her engagement to Manuel Borges, son of Mr. and Mrs. Frank Borges, 2510 W. 106th St. The Torrance High School graduate and her fiancée plan a January wedding.

WHO'S AHEAD? ... Mesdames Venus Knoll, left, and Eunice Crabtree, teachers at Torrance Elementary School, check the membership poster to see which room is ahead in the two-week drive which began Oct. 6. Trains on the poster mark the progress of each room. At last count, Mrs. Davis' room, the first grade, was ahead with 128 per cent membership.

Lioness Club Plans Social At Red Barn

Hard-time box social will be held Saturday, Nov. 1, by the Lioness Club, Mrs. A. F. R. Ewalt, publicity chairman, announced this week.

Plans for the affair, to be held at Attebery's Red Barn, were made at a Tuesday night meeting held at the home of Mrs. H. Berkowitz, 1629 Crenshaw Blvd. All members of the Lions Club and their wives are invited to attend.

Mrs. Roy Peterson, program chairman, is in charge of the social.

Club members revised bylaws at the Tuesday meet. Next business session will be held Tuesday, Nov. 4, at the home of Mrs. H. J. Osborne, 3026 Torrance Blvd.

'Dolls' Dance In Sat. Revue

"Doll Illusion" will be theme of next Saturday night's Sixth Annual Dance Revue, to be sponsored by students of Miss Ann Olson, 1617 Cota Ave.

Beginning at 8:15 p.m. in the Torrance High School Auditorium, about 60 pupils of the Job's Daughters' Queen will perform in tap, ballet, and baton numbers, all carrying out the doll theme. Nationality and character dolls, wooden soldiers, and clowns will be in the spotlight.

Miss Olson's pupils range in age from three to 16 years old. Her mother, Mrs. Oscar Olson, will provide piano background for dance presentations.

DOLLS ON A SHELF ... Three pupils of Miss Ann Olson, 1617 Cota Ave., strike a pose for their specialty number at Saturday night's dance revue, to be held at Torrance High School beginning at 8:15 o'clock. Left to right, the girls are Sandra Adamson as the clown, Sally Jones as the Dutch girl, and Loretta Robison as the doll from Paris.

"Confetti"; Miss Doreen Shaw, "Straw Hat," and Pat Sullivan, "20 Carats." Others attending the party, held Wednesday last week at the Pennsylvania Ave. home of Miss Stanford were Marjorie Chambers, Mary Ellen Roberts, Dorothy Sandstrom, Lorraine Storey, Carol Cribbs and Mrs. Irving Caulkins.
