Midgets to Seek Win From Oilers At Montebello

With a 1-1 record under their belts, Coach Don Porter's Tartar Midgets board the bus for Montebello High this afternoon in a non-conference clash just to keep-in shape for bigger things to come.

Playing sans the services of Dick Lindenberg in the backfield, the locals go into the fray rated a 50-50 chance to come through with another victory. They lost to Santa Monica, 33-22, last Thursday, but were playing without two stellar performers, Lindenberg and Carlos Skaggs. The meningitis scare shook the daylight out of the Tartar-babes as it did the varsity footballers and a day of practice was lost in the shuffle. However, Assistant Coach Dick Leech said yesterday that the crew is ready to go and has the stuff to wind up the season in fine shape.

Bill Meacham and Bob Moon, a sharp pass-catch combo, are on the "maybe" list as starters because they missed a couple of prep sessions this week while home on the "quarantine." Don Foth, Dennis Hester and Jerry Burns will be counted on heavily to fill the gap.

Flag Football Action Set For Saturday

Flag football games in the Junior and Midget Leagues will be held Saturday either at the Torrance Park or McMaster Park, in North Torrance. Games in the city-wide Junior League slated for Saturday include Fern-Greenwood vs. North Torrance Rams, 9:30, and Pueblo vs. Riviera Cardinals, 10:30. Out McMaster way, the North Midget League will see action, with the El Nido Bulldogs pitted against the Eagles at 9:30 and the Wildcats taking on the Tigers at 10:30.

Cameras Will Scan Play In TV'd Game

There'll be a crowning of the grid queen, presentation of her court and music by the marching band before the scanning eyes of the television cameras Friday night at El Camino College in what is expected to be the most colorful spectacle of the year. And before and after the half-time intermission, there will be a football game.

For the game gridders to the south, Harbor Tech, will invade the Warrior lair promptly at 8 o'clock with hopes of derauling the EC win train. But from all observations, it'll take a mite more strength than the Seahawks have to offer.

Slap Bakersfield Coach Norm Verry's charges landed a resounding 14-6 upset to the highly rated Bakersfield Renegades at "Quakerfield" last week-end in a mace which brought a gasp from most Metropolitan Conference followers. Tomorrow's game will be aired over KHJ-TV as the jaycee game-of-the-week-and Caminians have gone overboard to make it a spectacle worth watching. Half-time activities are planned which should resemble some of the extravaganzas staged weekly in the Coliseum. But back on the field, where there is bound to be 60 minutes of good ball playing with two neighboring teams locking horns, it looks like QB Bill Crawford and FB Jim Carmichael may prove too much for Don Merrill and Raul Hernandez, flashy Tech ball carriers.

Pulled the Stops Crawford, a former Torrance High ace, pulled the stops two weeks ago and no one has been able to slow him down since. He passed and ran his way for the 2-TD win last week and got a carload of plaudits for the San Diego victory. The Hawks were clobbered, 24-7, by potent Valley JC last week and 'previously fell to Bakersfield, 40-6.

Besides Merrill, a passing terror, and Hernandez, rated a great running threat, the Tech men boast 180-pound Don Woolfver at the fullback spot. 6-foot end Dave Carroll, stocky Fred Gates over the ball, Lou Rubio get the line, and ex-Narbonne lineman Manuel Murrieta.

Backfield Lineups Joining the crusade for the Warriors will be backfield wizard Dick Hill, who was the other half of the Crawford-Hill passing combination which proved so deadly last week; Ken Swearingen and his trusty kicking toe; Don Spicer, a defensive dragnet; Glenn Boyce, a light but rugged fullback Don Lavria, who splits Crawford at the pitching post, and zippy Don Cornell, a starting halfback.

Up front, Irwin Kasten, Tom Johnson, Pres Dills, Bill Coffey, Paul Hilton, Bob Warnock, Vince Benstead, Bob Weinberger and Stan Swanson will be shifting to fill up the gaps.

CC to Study Request For Semi-Pro Teams A four-man committee was appointed by the president of the Torrance Chamber of Commerce Monday evening to study a request for $25 weekly to support a semi-pro baseball team in Torrance.

Appointed by President Robert L. Plomer Jr. were Bob Haggard, J.H. Fagot, Fay Parks and Jack O. Baldwin.

A similar request tendered to the City Council Tuesday night was filed as a matter of record.

Fathers Honored At Tomorrow's Classic

One outfit which has more pills than Carter, the Torrance Tartars, will throw out the welcome mat for fathers-of-team members and the Montebello High varsity gridsters tomorrow evening in a non-league battle.

A spinal meningitis scare swept the school and the football field as one case was reported last week-end. Athletes were given the go-ahead sign to practice after missing Monday if they had written permission from a physician, and if they took certain sulfa pills.

Honor Dads The fathers will come in the act tomorrow as they are honored at "Father's Night," the dad of every ball player will occupy a bench seat on the field adorned with the same number as worn by his son.

Montebello, coached by Stu Pike, employs a tricky unbalanced line—shifting either to the right or left as they come out of the huddle. The gold-clad gridders have failed to connect with a win so far in the season, but Coach Pike said yesterday that his outfit would be "hot" for tomorrow's classic.

The Oilers usually come up with a fair to sharp squad and will be laying in wait for the touted Tartars.

Make Changes With practice sessions called off Monday, and many of the Torrance gridders failing to show Tuesday because of the sickness scare, some drastic changes may be forthcoming in the starting lineups. Coach Cliff Graybehl has revealed. Sure starts in the backfield probably will be Harry Baylis, Beryl Jones and Don Kasten, while either Jim Murphy or Burt Smith will take the other half back spot.

Kasten and Jones and center Dan Mayers were singled out by Samohi Coach Jim Sutherland after last week's mix-up as the "boys who most made us worry." Montebello evidently has no outstanding candidates, but all have been listed as "above average" by squads which they have met in early season games.

Doubtful Starter Frank Christenson also is a doubtful starter at the forward wall for the locals, as he injured his ribs in the week-end tilt. Frank yesterday still was taped heavily.

Others who were on the mend list seem to be back fit as fiddles—Jim O'Hara broke the cast off his arm, this time for good, and Chuck Bingham, hobbling around with an injury, seems to be ready for action.

Dear Wear Rings In Ears? Here's What to Do

If you bagged a deer in California during the recent deer season and it was wearing a fancy colored ear-ring, here's what you should do with it (the ear-ring, that is):

Return the tag to the Department of Fish and Game, Ferry Building, San Francisco, together with information as to how and where the deer was killed.

The deer was not necessarily diseased, or illegal. The plastic discs were hung on the animals with hopes that hunters would find them to the state to assist the experts in learning what is needed to improve quality and to set maximum hunter harvests.
